A Wasps' Sting.
What some wag terms "the business end of a wasp" stings with scarcely more acuteness than the acid excretions that issue from the stinging organ. Never was there a case of indigestion without this symptom. Both cause and effect are removable by the fine carminative tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which cures regularly and vigor upon a disordered and enfeebled stomach with certainty and despatch. Besides checking the pranks of a rebellious stomach, the bitters wake up a dormant liver, and cause the bowels to act like clockwork. As its name implies it has also been won by its personal approval of medicine as a means of eradicating and preventing malaria, and has been found a powerful remedy for rheumatism and kidney complaints. Nerveless and nervousness are also remedied by it.

HEADACHE.

Acute they would be almost useless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after a sick head.

It is the base of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not. CARTER MEDICINE CO., NEW YORK.

Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

Republicans, Do Your Duty on Election Day.

At the eleventh hour the Republican party has a full fledged fusion to deal with. The combination effected with the People's party is being completed today and will carry with it a nearly solid anti-Republican vote. Republicans are warned that if they expect to carry Oregon, every voter must be got out.

THE JOURNAL has only this to say on the eve of election day: that Weaver and Penoyer are strong in this state and if the full Democratic strength can be added, as now seems likely, there will be a formidable opposition to overcome. It can only be overcome by the utmost display of voting strength that the party is capable of. THE JOURNAL is not an indifferent spectator of this which it believes to be the true state of affairs and hopes its suggestions will be acted upon by those at the head of the party organization.
