THE NEW YEAR JOURNAL.—Work on the Journal's New Year number is progressing nicely. It will be a historical number, written up in the best literary style, a book for reference of fifty chapters of valuable historical statistical facts. It will be a historical souvenir number that everyone will wish to preserve.

FOR THE JUNE RACES.—The stockholders of the Oregon State Breeders' and Speed association will meet at the office of the Pacific Land and Orchard Co. on Saturday evening for the purpose of making arrangements for the June races. Business of importance is to be transacted at this time and all members are urged to be present.

THE PLOW WORKS.—One carload of the Oregon Chilled Plow Co.'s plant of Portland, has arrived, and another is coming. Senator Jeff Myers has offered the company of Stenmen, who bought this machinery, a site in his addition, and immediate steps should be taken to get their factory started.

A TALENTED LADY.—Mrs. J. C. McClurkin, for twelve years an officer of the Woman's Board of Missions in the Cumberland Presbyterian church, will occupy the pulpit of their church Sunday morning and evening. Do not fail to hear her speak, either morning or evening.

Y. M. C. A.—The afternoon meeting to-morrow will be addressed by Prof. Edwin Morrison of the Polytechnic Institute. 20 minutes song service. All come and help sing. Selection by male quartette. Strangers cordially welcomed. 92 State street.

A BEAUTY.—Another of the Capital City Railway Company's cars came out yesterday, newly painted, and vanished. More cars will receive like treatment, which makes them an ornament to our streets.

SOCIAL REVIEW.

Fragments of the Week at Salem.

RECEPTIONS GREAT AND SMALL.

The "Entre Nous," the Social Event of the Season.

The excitement of presidential election has dulled the social ardor the past week and very little was done in society's world. The little there was is carefully recorded in THE JOURNAL's social department. We trust all who entertain friends from at home or abroad, one or many, will report their names to us for the increased interest of these columns.

Portland Telegram, Nov. 11.—Mrs. D. P. Thompson, Miss Thompson and Miss Genevieve Thompson arrived home this morning, after an extended stay in Europe. Mrs. Thompson spent most of the time in Paris and Geneva with Miss Genevieve, who was studying languages. Miss Thompson made quite an extended tour of Switzerland and Germany. They were in Europe for about 14 months, and had intended to remain another year, Mr. Thompson expecting to go over and accompany them in a tour of the continent, but on account of the cholera scare, and the consequent dangers and difficulties in travelling, the plan was changed.

A PETITE RECEPTION.

was given Misses Neta and Grace Good, members of Mrs. Dr. Lund's sewing circle, one evening last week, and a company of little ones was made very happy. It will be a memorable event in the lives of the two children who were departing for residence in the metropolis.

THE CHRYSANTHEMUM FAIR comes off this coming week and is the event most talked of in all circles. The great variety and extended period of blooming would make it almost impossible to hold another fair later on of the later varieties.

A COMIC OPERA.

The Amateur Dramatic Talent of Salem are earnestly engaged in rehearsing for a Comic Drama to be presented at the opera house on Thanksgiving evening for the benefit of the Unitarian society—from the considerable number of our best Amateurs who will take part. They predict a successful performance and a large attendance.

A SURPRISE.

A reception was tendered Miss Vera Good upon the eve of her departure for Portland, which city is to be her future home. Reared in Salem, she leaves a large circle of friends and admirers who were given an opportunity to bid her farewell at the hospitable Collins mansion on Church street, the home of Miss Esther Collins who was hostess of the evening. The house was beautifully decorated with ivy and rare chrysanthemums. A good time was had by all and choice refreshments were served, in the preparation of which it was suspected by some that Mrs. Collins took a hand. Following Salem young people were present: Vera Good, Blanch Belle, Oda Chapman, Neta Porter, Pearl Skiff, Ida Martin, Mina Huelat, Gertie Hirsch, Florence Steiner, Inga Olsen, Ethel Hughes, Esther Collins, John Roberts, Clarence Bishop, Willie Hodgkin, Charlie Holmgren, Zedec Riggs, Floyd Dayton, Phil Methan, Boyd Richardson, Harry Thompson and Legene Barnes.

A CHARITY SUPPER.

was given last night by the ladies' aid society of the Unitarian church and about twenty dollars was realized to help the Salem board of charities. This commendable work should be taken up in the same manner by other societies.

A SOCIAL HOUR.

A few friends gathered at the residence of Mrs. E. Breyman, corner of Church and Court streets, last evening and enjoyed a pleasant social hour in conversation and whist. An enjoyable time was had. Those present at Mrs. Breyman's tea were: Mr. and Mrs. T. McF. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Walte, Rev. and Dr. Lund, Judge Moores and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Breyman, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Breyman. The guests were served by Misses Ada and Annie Breyman with a fine lunch.

CARD OF THANKS.

The Salem Board of Charities take this means of expressing its thanks to the ladies of the Unitarian church of this city for its contribution of fifteen dollars, the proceeds of a supper given under their management, and kindly placed in our hands for distribution among the deserving poor of our city. We fully appreciate their generous donation, and will endeavor to disburse it judiciously. May other charitably disposed societies, and individuals, follow the example set by these noble women and by their moral and financial support, aid us in more successfully carrying forward the work of our organization. The donation was timely as it was generous, and again we thank the donors.

W. L. WADE, President.

FRANK E. HODGKIN, Secretary.

THE COMING SOCIAL EVENT OF THE SEASON.

The committee of arrangements for the grand party to be given on Tuesday evening the 15th by the Entre Nous social club who have spared no pains to make it the social event of the season. They have secured twelve picked men from the Marine band of Portland including the kettle drums as an orchestra. The grand march itself will be a feature and the gallery will be open on that evening to give the music lovers a chance to listen to the finest concert of orchestra music ever given in the city. Tickets will be sold to the gallery spectators, but to attend the ball proper an invitation is required.

THE WILLAMETTE CLUB.

chartered the ordinary and dining parlors of Hotel Willamette Wednesday night for the first social dancing party of the season by that club. The rooms were elegantly accoutered by Mine Hosts, Col. Wagner and lady. The older members present played whist and the younger tripped the canyassed floors until near midnight. A more select and happy company of young married people never met in a social way. They meet again Nov. 23d, and the committee like the club's quarters so well they have engaged them for all of the season.

THE MOTOR WHIST.

meets with Mrs. A. N. Gilbert Wednesday evening next on the occasion of the postmaster's birthday. The next Salem postmaster is expected to be present and will receive congratulations from the club. The Old Folks whist club meets at Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fleming's next Friday evening.

MRS. REED'S RECEPTION.

The ladies of Salem have been hospitably received during the past two weeks by Mrs. S. C. Reed at her store. This lady succeeds Mrs. M. E. Wilson in the millinery business, and takes great pleasure in showing the Salem ladies what new things she has introduced here. Among the rest is a full line of Parisian hats and bonnets, the latest things in dress hats, trimmed by an experienced milliner. A new line of shaded silk veils and high art novelties in millinery has been added. The beautiful display of artistic feathers, birds, poupons, and all the latest novelties known to the profession are attracting wide attention. The ladies are welcome and invited to call and inspect all these new things.

WILLAMETTE NOTES.

The examinations for the first term were held Thursday & Friday. The results are good. Some of the papers will probably be selected for the world's fair exhibit.

Mrs. Cochran has been hearing some of Dean Hawley's classes and is highly spoken of by the students.

Financial agent Chapman reports a steady advance along money lines and a prospect of securing a large loan.

The entertainment by Prof. Hawley and Scriber has been postponed for a time on account of so many entertainments in the university taking place so near the time originally set for it.

Papers will be selected from the examination papers of this term and all succeeding terms, to be sent to the world's fair.

The laboratory fund will net $20 from Donald Downie's lectures. This is almost entirely due to the efforts of Prof. Arnold. The University has no friend more untiring than he, and many useful things about the school are the results of his care for its interests.

Why are not electric lights fixed on the court house so that the town clock can be used at night?

Black Langshans.

Cooks, Cockerels, Hens, Pullets, Trice or pens. Four strains of America's best. Best winter layers, birds not a-kick. Exhibition birds good breeders, but no culis. Have never been beaten in Langshans yet having taken over fifty first prizes. E. J. LADD, 253 First St., Portland.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a Bilious look, if your stomach be disordered, you have a Dyspeptic Look and if your Kidneys be affected you have a Pinched Look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alternative and Tonic acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Blisters, Boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at Daniel J. Fry's drugstore, 235 Com'l St. 50c. per bottle.

Special sale at Ed Jackson's, 90 State street, of men's and children's clothing and shoes. These goods will be sold regardless of cost—this is bona fide—we are compelled to sacrifice them as we must have the room for our increasing hat and furnishing goods trade. If you want to make the most of your dollars, don't fail to call at 90 State street.

How does the Portland Telegram feel by this time over its emphatic order: "Oregon must be carried for Weaver!"

Jackson the hatter, 90 State street.

American Cholera.

From the Daily Revue, Whatcom, Washington: "T. C. Burnett, the Democratic candidate for sheriff was taken violently ill at Clearbrook. He had all the symptoms of Asiatic cholera, and for an hour or two it was feared he would die. They finally gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which revived him until a physician arrived." That is precisely what the manufacturers of that medicine recommend for cholera. Send for a physician but give their medicine until the physician arrives. If cholera becomes prevalent in this country next summer this preparation will be in great demand because it can always be depended upon. For sale by Backett & Van Slype.
