SOCIAL REVIEW.

THE ENTRE-NOUS BALL.

This brilliant event at Reed's opera house Tuesday evening was an affair that will long be talked about in Salem social history, and all who saw or participated are asking when the next ball will take place. The orchestra, composed of twelve pieces of Parsons & Fleck's of Portland, rendered a program of music that has never been equalled, and was enjoyed from nine o'clock to three a. m. At least seventy-five couples attended and the grand march was witnessed by two hundred spectators, who saw as pretty a grand march as was ever executed in Salem, taking thirty minutes, led by Henry Hopkins, of Albany, and Mrs. C. S. Riely, of Salem. The dresses of the ladies present produced an effect of richness and a profusion of the latest fashions. A complete list of costumes, that will torture the hearts of those who could not attend not a little is given below. The young ladies and young married ladies all appeared in evening and ball dresses, and even the matrons were en-gala for the occasion.

THE LUNCH.

eaten off miniature tete-a-tete tables on the stage and in the private boxes, served by Westcott & Irwin, consisting of hot and colds, coffees, ices, salads, sandwiches and oysters. It gave great satisfaction as no one had to leave the hall for refreshments, and this contributed not a little to the comfort of all. The decorations of the hall were rich and every detail was well arranged. The date of the next "Entre-Nous" is anxiously awaited.

THE LADIES.

MASQUE CARNIVAL.

A regular Mardi Gras will be had at the armory next Wednesday evening by some of Salem's fun-loving youth. A large number of invitations are out and some great characters are expected. Spectators will be admitted to the gallery.

THE HAWKEYE CLUB.

will be entertained by Mrs. Elder Johnson next Tuesday evening, at her rooms in the Cottle block.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Henry Westling was fined $150, and it was paid. The jury was discharged until 10 a. m. Monday.—Dave Young, one of the owners of the ill-fated steamer Young, and who pleaded guilty, and afterwards changed his plea to not guilty, was acquitted by the jury.—Fred Van Wagner was found guilty and sentenced to one year.

Y. M. C. A.—Young men! Will you come to the association tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock to hear an address? Rev. Cephas A. Clapp of Portland will deliver one for your benefit. You may join in the 20 minute song service. You will become acquainted with the best young men in Salem. Rooms open from 2 to 6 p. m. Come.

DOES NOT LIE TO THEM.—Advertisers in the JOURNAL say they get very satisfactory returns because the people can believe what they read in its columns and not be misled or deceived. It is not worked by outside interests but it is solely a newspaper published in the best interests of its readers.

YOU WILL LAUGH.—Where? At the mask carnival Wednesday night at the armory. Admission, adults, 50 cents; children, 25 cents. A great many maskers will take part. Be sure and see the Pirate Chief and clowns.

PROCLAMATION.—Thanksgiving will soon be here, and you will want the luxuries of the season. The best raisins, older, mince meat, and everything for a rich Thanksgiving dinner at Harritt & McIntyre's.

TOO DRY.—It is never too dry to do your own errands but frequently too wet, especially now. Call one of the Lockwood messengers, and stay in the dry.

A. M. E.—Sunday, Nov. 27th is the first quarterly meeting under Presiding Elder Blakeley. He will preach morning and evening. All welcome.

CONGREGATIONAL.—Cephas F. Clapp will preach at the Congregational church both morning and evening.

Don't almost kill yourself by violent purgatives. Take Simmons Liver Regulator, a mild laxative.

Empty barrels for sauerkraut—only a few left, at Clark & Epply's.

TUTT'S PILLS invigorate body and mind.

LIKE UNTO A FLOWER.

The Mam Fair Blooms Out Into a Grand Success.

Last evening was the second of the chrysanthemum fair. The armory was crowded with people to witness the grandest display of flowers ever made in Salem, as well as the most successful program of the season.

The tableaux of the Columbus entertainment are praised by all who saw them. The costumes were most appropriate and rich, while the conception of the groups was something unusual for an amateur effort. The result will greatly advance the public's ideas of the art of expression, and this first attempt should be encouraged in our community. The young ladies are entitled to the gratitude of all true lovers of art, and Salem has many of them.

Tonight will take place the great "cake-walk," in which everybody present is invited to participate. Every young man should come "with his best suit of clothes" and best girl to participate in this grand carnival. A prize will be awarded to the best appearing couple, in carriage, walk, figure, face, and all around. Don't miss this great event.

The orchestra will be present tonight and discourse some of its best music.

The flowers are as beautiful as the day they were put on exhibition, and it is understood that the cut flowers will be sold at auction.

The Symphony club is under great obligation to many who have rendered invaluable service during the show. Mr. Anson, of the electric light company, Mr. Whale, the piano dealer, Keller Bros., the hall management, those who assisted in the programs, and others.

The show is a great financial success. A portion of the proceeds of the Chrysanthemum fair will be used by the ladies auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. to go towards the furnishing of the new association rooms soon to be opened in the Minto and Chapman block.

TO ADVERTISERS.

Here are a few pointers. THE JOURNAL practically reaches all the people of Salem and ALL of its suburbs. It employs seven carriers, besides several newsboys and a city circulator.

It is in read more homes than all other papers printed in the city or county.

In order to reach the people, the workmen, the farmers, everybody, you do not have to advertise in a half dozen publications and placards and directories.

You can reach them all 'with an ad. in THE JOURNAL.

Our rates are low.

See our lists and be convinced.

GOOD NEWS FOR EVERYBODY.—Bishop H. J. Becker of the United Brethren church is coming to Salem again. He will be here one week from today and will put in just two days at Salem, Saturday 26th and Sunday 27th of November. He will both preach and lecture. Look out for his subject and program in Monday's issue of this paper.

OREGON FRUIT.—At the 'mum show today Dr. A. J. Richardson showed a small stem of raspberries, containing nine fully formed berries, and twenty blossoms. Most of the berries were ripe or ripening. How is that for Oregon climate, when snow storms and blizzards are prevailing in the east?

THE IMPERIAL JAPANESE TROUPE.—Gave a most excellent performance at the opera house last night which was highly appreciated by the audience. There will be a change of program tonight, and a large house is expected.

RECAPTURED.—Cyrus Reed, who escaped from the state reform school Oct. 30th, was recaptured by Superintendent Smith Friday, in the mountains above Mehama.

AT AUCTION.—After the program this evening the cut chrysanthemums will be sold at auction. It should be a matter of pride with our people that all these flowers be sold and sent away to friends by mail or express.

EXCHANGE PLACES.—The circuit court adjourned until Monday at 1 p. m. Judge McBride of Oregon City will hold court here and Judge Burnett will occupy his bench at Oregon City.

PAID HIS BET.—A. W. Bowersox paid an election bet by wheeling John Gavin, who weighs 275 pounds, a distance of a mile and a half. The procession was headed by the Marine band and a few Democrats.

AT TURNER.—The Methodist ladies are getting up a big Thanksgiving dinner at the hall in Turner, to aid their new church. Dinner from 1 to 4.

METHODIST.—Services at the First M. E. Church tomorrow as follows: morning subject, "Spiritual Athletics;" in the evening, lecture to young women, subject, "Woman's Power." All are requested to attend.

PRESBYTERIAN.—Rev. Riding, of Albany, recently from Australia, will occupy Dr. Gwynne's pulpit at the Presbyterian church tomorrow.

"Safe and Certain"

Is the testimony of Dr. George E. Waller, of Martinsville, Va., in reference to Ayer's Pills. Dr. J. T. Teller, of Chittanooga, N. Y., says:—"Ayer's Pills are highly appreciated. They are perfect in form and coating, and their effects are all that the most careful physician could desire. They have supplemented all the pills formerly popular here, and I think it must be long before any other can be made that will at all compare with them. Those who buy Ayer's Pills get full value."

"I regard Ayer's Pills as one of the most reliable general remedies of our times. They have been in use in my family for various affections requiring a purgative medicine, and have given unvarying satisfaction. We have found them an excellent remedy for colds and light fevers."—W. H. Woodson, Fort Worth, Texas.

"I prescribe Ayer's Pills in my practice, and find them excellent. I urge their general use in families."—John W. Brown, M. D., Oceana, W. Va.
