MRS. S. C. REED,

265 Commercial St.

SOCIAL.—The JOURNAL's society report is very popular because it is open to all. Its space is given generously to Salem people because it is the Salem paper that is read by all, as witness the sale of a hundred extra copies Saturday night with a 3-column social department. The Oregonian gave the "Entre Nous" about five lines.

QUEER PEOPLE.—Be sure and take in the mask carnival at the armory on Wednesday night and see the queer people. Probably some of your friends will receive one of those valuable sermons. Adults, 50 cents; children 25 cents. Grand march at 9 o'clock. Doors open at 7:30. Plenty of seats for your ladies.

JUST OPENED.—A beautiful line of parlor and hanging lamps, at prices below competition. Harritt & McIntyre.

THANKSGIVING DINNER.—The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will give a Thanksgiving dinner at their rooms on Court street. Everybody invited.

Empty barrels for sauerkraut—only a few left, at Clark & Epply's.

GOT EXCITED.—George Kirk, who lives west of Irving, was at Junction City Tuesday and heard the news of Cleveland's election while there. He was very much elated and started home. When near home he commenced waving his hat and shouting for Cleveland, which frightened his team and they ran away. They ran through two fences and broke the wagon all to pieces and then one of the horses dropped dead.—Brownsville Times.

ENCLOSE A STAMP.—Citizens and tax payers writing to the county officials will hereafter enclose a stamp. The county treasurer is allowed no stamps or exchange in remitting funds to school officers. The county court has now cut off the sheriff's office from any allowance of stamps. The law allows the county superintendent of schools postage, but other officials are only allowed stationery.

AT THE HUB.—When one goes to Cherrington's art gallery, he is at the hub for photographs or crayon work. There can be seen half-a-dozen artists busy as bees turning out all kinds of work pertaining to their profession, and the reputation of this house for artistic work is of the highest order. If you want a beautiful holiday souvenir for your friends that is the place to go.

TROUBLE WITH ICE.—The electric motor line cars were not a little prevented from making good time Sunday morning by a coating of ice on the wire overhead. It is seldom Jack Frost interferes with traffic in Oregon but Saturday night he got his ire up and did what little mischief he could in a feeble way.

OLD WHITE HORSES.—Sunday morning a man was leading an old white horse up Commercial street. It was a tall rambunctious creature and possessed of some Arabian blood and spirit, as was shown by his resentment of some blows from two boys who followed behind pelting him with stones. The white hobnob who used to be driven on a horsecar was sold to a Salem man, who traded him to some Gypsies.

THE LIBRARY SOCIAL.—To be given by the young people of the Baptist church in the parlors on Wednesday evening is free to all—that is the entertainment and supper part—and only a few cents will be charged for reading any of the books. They can be read there or taken home—any work wanted will be furnished and in any style of binding.

COMPLETE.—A Thanksgiving dinner is not complete without some of that celebrated Nectuca cheese, celery, raisins, citron, lemon and orange peel, figs, prepared mince meat, oranges, lemons, jellies, jams, and innumerable other delicacies on sale by Clark & Epply.

BOUND OVER.—Charles Nelson, who is charged with stealing a purse from a lodging house, had a hearing before Recorder Goodell this morning and was bound over to the Grand Jury, in the sum of $100, and he stands committed.

PETTY THEIVING.—A party in East Salem has lost a number of carpenter tools from a new house he is building, and unless the same are returned soon some arrests are liable to follow.

ED. JOURNAL.—We believe all your readers should know that the place to buy groceries is at Squire Farrar & Co's. One trial will be a convincing argument.

GOOD TICKET.—A Republican caucus was held Saturday evening in the second ward and agreed on Ed. Cross for alderman. Unless he is needed for Mayor, Mr. Cross will be a good nominee if he can be induced to serve.

RAKE IT UP.—A good suggestion from a citizen is that where the track was muddy in the middle the gravel be raked up from the sides. Such a process is necessary.

CAPTAIN SCOTT NO MORE.

A Pioneer Politician, Legislator and Ex-Postmaster Dead.

Died, at the family home at 399 Center street in Salem, Monday morning, at 4 a. m., LYMAN SAMUEL SCOTT, aged 62 on October 1st.

Deceased came to Oregon in 1861 as captain of Co. D, Fourth California Infantry vols., stationed at Fort Yamhill.

He was at different times commander at that post, Fort Hoskins, Siletz Block House, and in 1865 was ordered with his company to establish a post in the Harney Lake country. After being mustered out at San Francisco in 1865 he returned to Oregon and went into merchandising at Portland, coming to Salem in 1866. Here by his social qualities he rose rapidly in private esteem and no man soon had more warm friends than he.

L. S. Scott was Mayor of Salem in 1868-69, sheriff of Marion county in 1872, member of the legislature and city council. He was in his prime a political leader and always an enthusiastic Republican, being state chairman from 1874 to 1878. Succeeding H. M. Thatcher, Mr. Scott was postmaster at Salem from 1879 to 1883, under President Hayes and filling the office acceptably to the government and the people. He was succeeded by A. B. Crossman. Under the present administration he was employed in the service until rendered unfit by disease.

Mr. Scott leaves a wife and five children, two sons and a daughter at Salem and two sons at Portland in business.

The funeral will be from the Episcopal church Tuesday at 2 p. m. The Masonic order will attend at the grave. Mr. Scott was also a member of the G. A. R. and A. O. U. W.

THE FAIR CLOSED.—The armory presents a chaotic appearance today. The hall that has known only mirth and beauty for the past week is deserted. The receipts of the chrysanthemum fair were about $270.

The auction of flowers Saturday night brought about $9.00. Denton's parlor orchestra rendered fine music. The cake-walk was successfully led off by Mr. Spaulding and Mrs. Wagner, some couples participating, the former taking the prize. The report of the committee on awards is not yet made public.

TURKEYS, TURKEYS.—The finest fat corn-fed turkeys, also, fat hens, ducks and geese are to be found at Davison & White's 94 Court street market. Our reputation for having the finest dressed turkeys each year stands undisputed; proof of the quality of the turkeys is in the eating. We invite the public to call and see our poultry. Order early and select the best. Eastern orders and plenty of them. Davison & White, 94 Court street.

WIRE DOWN.—The telegraph report for the JOURNAL is late, but very complete when it is considered that the wires all over the Northwest are down, and the Western Union Co. is obliged to send every word from the East via Chicago, New Orleans, El Paso, and San Francisco to reach Salem. Our report is an excellent one nevertheless, thanks to the Associated Press and the expert force at Salem.

ATTENTION, SEDGWICK POST!—Comrade L. S. Scott, of this post, who died Nov. 20, 1892, will be buried under the auspices of the Masonic order, from the Episcopal church Tuesday, Nov. 22d, at 2 o'clock p. m. Jas. Batchelor, commander.

Notice.
 All legal voters, who are willing to participate in the forming and electing of a non-partisan ticket for Salem, are requested to meet at Reed's opera house, November 22, 1892, at 7 o'clock p. m. sharp.

THE CITIZEN'S MOVEMENT.

ED. JOURNAL.—I am very glad you show a feeling for the taxpayers and are not so bound hand and foot by a few political managers as not to be able to say your soul is your own. What is more silly than to introduce party politics in our city affairs, or to let a few village politicians fix up the state we are to step up and vote like dumb cattle?

Give the people a chance you will say. For a few who scalp contractors and get their favorites a fat office to meet in each ward and name the delegates we are to ratify under Jo. Simon's primary law is not American. If that law is to force us to vote a party slate you will find a good many Republicans unwilling to stand it.

[The primary law does not prevent any assembly of citizens in a ward agreeing to a ticket and supporting it at the polls. The tickets put up at the party primaries do not become an official ballot, but a citizen may vote any ticket he pleases. The primary law is a law to prevent fraud in the party or stop illicit practices among politicians.

A mass meeting of citizens at the court house can put up a citizen's ticket for city officers. There is nothing in the law to prevent it. Only they must not profess to be a political organization in the sense of a party. That is the plain intent of the law.]—ED. JOURNAL.
