

TWENTY-FOUR CAPTURED.

Roelyn Robbers and Gilliam County Terrors.

NORTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN ROBBERS

Supposed to be of This Gang—Other Late News.

PORTLAND, Nov. 28.—Officers arrived here today having in charge Thomas Kinzie and George Zachary, two of the men who were arrested in Gilliam county, Thursday for robbing the bank of Abraham, Snipes & Co. at Roelyn, Wash., Sept. 23. Colvin Hale, a third man arrested will be brought to the city later. Arrests were made by four different posses, comprising in all 24 men. None of the men offered any resistance but quietly submitted to officers.

The plan was to make arrests almost at the same time, but owing to the long distances, roughness of country and stormy weather, could not be carried out, and one day elapsed between the arrest of Kinzie and Hale. The arrest of these men will break up a gang of tough characters who have long terrorized this section, and to whom is attributed the loss of cattle and horses. There are supposed to be about twenty-five of them in all. All have ranches and considerable stock, and are related to one another by blood and marriage.

It is thought that parties who robbed banks at La Grande, Enterprise, and Weller (Idaho), some time since, were members of same gang. It is known that three of them are not at home now and it is believed that absent ones are men who held up Northern Pacific train near Hot Springs Thursday night. Upon their arrival here today Kinzie and Zachary were placed in county jail where access to them was denied. They will be taken to Ellensburg tonight where they will be held for trial. They are identified by Cashier Abernethy of Roelyn bank as men who robbed bank. Other arrests are expected soon.

BAND OF ROBBERS CAPTURED

Identified as the Men Who Went Through the Roelyn Bank.

ARLINGTON, Nov. 28.—Three men identified as members of the gang who robbed the Roelyn bank in September last, arrived here in charge of Sullivan and deputies of Thiel's detective agency having been captured in the mountains. They are desperate characters and for years have been the terror of the people living in the vicinity. They are believed to be the same gang who robbed two other banks during the past year in a similar manner. Officers are now in pursuit of the balance of the gang and expect to capture them in a few days. An effort was made by confederates to rescue the prisoners, but it failed. The prisoners were taken west this afternoon on the train to Portland.

THREE ARE IDENTIFIED.

PORTLAND, Nov. 28.—Word reached here this evening from Arlington, Gilliam county, Or., that three of the five men who robbed the First National bank at Roelyn, Wash., September 23 last, had been captured in the hills near there. Only meagre details of the capture have been received. At Thiel's detective agency in this city it is learned that a posse of about 25 men, consisting of sheriffs of surrounding counties and a number of Thiel men was formed Sunday last and started in pursuit of the three men who had been located by detectives. The entire band of robbers, whose headquarters are known to be in Gilliam county, numbers twenty or twenty-five. It is thought they have been operating all over the Pacific coast, robbing banks and holding up trains. The first clue to the rendezvous of the gang was obtained by finding a horse which one of the robbers had left near Ellensburg. After some time it was ascertained that the animal was owned in Gilliam county. After following the trail of the robbers for several days, the posse came upon them and an engagement took place, in which, it is supposed, one of the robbers was wounded. Next day a man with which a man had dressed a wound was found. This clue was followed up and it was learned the robbers went toward the Columbia river. From accounts of the capture received, it is supposed that the posse came upon the three men when they were off guard and captured them without resistance. It was feared that the remainder of the gang would attempt to rescue the prisoners, as they are known to be well armed and desperate. The three men were identified by Dr. Lyons who was in the Roelyn bank at the time of the robbery. He passed through this city yesterday, having been summoned to identify the men in case the capture was effected.

FLOODS IN CHINA.

Many People Drowned in the Raging Waters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—Additional advices per steamship China state that a traveler, arriving at Foo Chow, reports that in the latter part of September a gale, accompanied by a water-spout, swept down from the mountains, swamping the country in the neighborhood of Chang Chow, the water in some places standing 19 feet. The confucian temple and the temple of the city God were both damaged, and the walls of the latter collapsing, and burying 80 soldiers. In the Nanh-sien district the people suffered much.

In a gale off the Japanese coast October 20 to 23, a number of boats were wrecked, and 19 fishermen drowned.

A number of attacks on foreigners are reported from the interior of China and Japan, but no serious injury to life or limb. At Kieng Pang, China, Rev. H.S. Phillips and wife, missionaries, had their house burned over their heads and were forced to appeal to the local magistrate for protection.

H. M. S. Rapid shelled and destroyed seven native villages on Solomon Island. Her officers have tried a number of natives for the killing of Nyberg and another white trader. The native found guilty was executed.

Australian advices state that the conviction of six union leaders of the Broken Hill mining strike, October 31, was a great surprise to the strikers and led to rioting, in which the police and non-union miners were beaten and roughly handled. A number of arrests were made.

In Whangier harbor recently, a yacht belonging to John Tucker, a coach-builder, capsized, and Tucker and eight others were drowned.

Found Dead in His Room.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 26.—[Special]—D. T. Sullivan, an expert finisher in the woolen mills, was found dead in the Russ house this morning, having been taken to a room there yesterday when intoxicated and left until he should be all right. He came here in March from Philadelphia, and has a wife in Westford, Vt.

Peter Jackson Insulted.

BIRMINGHAM, Conn., Nov. 26.—Peter Jackson, pugilist, while at a hotel in this city today in company with a number of sporting men, was approached by a New Haven man named Bunnel. The latter told Jackson he had some doubts about his being anxious to meet Sullivan, and wound up saying "Why there are plenty of niggers in Webster Street that can whip you." With that Jackson struck the fellow a blow on the jaw and knocked him out.

Railroad Trusts.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 26.—The first of a series of bills aimed at railroad wreckers was passed unanimously by the house of representatives today. The bill passed will prevent the consolidation of stock in the hands of a few people who would place the same in trust companies, practically in perpetuity.

An Oregon Hanging.

OREGON CITY, Nov. 26.—William Henderson, who last Wednesday was convicted of the murder of Cyrus Sutter, was today sentenced to be hanged.

Missionary Work.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—A question of considerable moment is to come before the congregation of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, at its regular prayer meeting. A collection is to be raised for missionary work abroad and the question to be decided is whether it will continue to send through the American board or some other channel. The prospect is that the Plymouth church will break away from the board, and Dr. Abbot admits that such a course would be in harmony with his views. The theological views of Dr. Storms, the president of the board, and of the board itself are not of sufficient liberality to meet the advanced opinions of Dr. Abbot and the majority of the members of his church.

SIR JOHN RESIGNS.

Coining the World's Fair Souvenir Half Dollars.

MONTREAL, Quebec, Nov. 25.—Hon. John Foster, minister of finance, left England, carrying in his pocket the resignation of Premier Abbott. This will lead to the reorganization of the cabinet, and on good authority it is stated that Hon. J. A. Chapleau, minister of customs, will be made lieutenant-governor of Quebec, the present holder of the position, Lieutenant-governor Angers, succeeding to the portfolio of customs. Sir John Thompson, present minister of justice, will be appointed premier, and W. B. Ives, M. P. for Sherbrooke, will be taken into the cabinet as minister of agriculture. Other changes will likely be made, but what they will be those who know refuse at present to state. J. A. Chapleau, on his appointment, will receive an extended leave of absence and go to France to regain his health. During his absence, either Sir A. Coste or Judge Casault will be appointed the administrator of the province.

Fighting Brothers.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 26.—A Gallop, O., dispatch tells of a bloody fight that took place on a north-bound Ohio-river train. Six brothers named Adams boarded the train at Huntington, in a drunken condition. Shortly, one of them entered the ladies' coach with a drawn revolver, and used menacing language. Conductor Smith seized him and drew him into the smoker. The other brothers rushed to his help and a brakeman came to the assistance of the conductor. Meantime a newsboy gave the riot alarm, the train was stopped and the entire crew came to the scene. The Adams boys were badly beaten and thrown off the train. It is not known whether any of them were killed or not. The conductor and brakeman were severely injured and several passengers hurt.

Blaine's Condition.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The condition of James G. Blaine is such as to arouse the fears of his friends. It is impossible to state definitely the exact nature of his present illness, as his family and the attending physician decline to disclose it. It is known, however, that he has a recurrence of his old stomach trouble and has also been suffering from an affection of the throat. Doctors Johnson and Hyatt met in consultation at Blaine's residence yesterday, and afterward said the patient was much improved. The throat trouble in particular had almost disappeared. Nothing was said, however, about the stomach ailment, which is the more serious of the two. Until some thing encouraging is heard on that point, those who know Mr. Blaine's constitution will not feel reassured.

Souvenir Half-Dollars.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—The coinage force of the United States mint has been divided into two shifts, and the work of coining the souvenir half-dollars donated by congress to the world's fair will go on night and day without intermission. About 30,000 coins can be turned out every 24 hours, and it is anticipated that not less than 300,000 will be ready for delivery by Wednesday next, the last day of the month. The total number to be coined is 5,000,000.

Crazed by a Dream.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—Mrs. Maggie Bartolino was taken to the Harrison street station last night a raving maniac. Tuesday night she dreamed that her husband, who is cook in a hotel at Cedar Rapids, Ia., was murdered. Being a believer in dreams, she got the morning papers and read them closely, expecting to find the story of the murder. The unfortunate woman's condition was noticed by her neighbors, and they tried to keep the thoughts of murder from her mind, but without success. Her husband left Chicago a few weeks ago, and intended to send for her as soon as he found a place to live.

Safe Crackers.

BAKERFIELD, Cal., Nov. 26.—The saloon of Owens and Eckhoff was entered by burglars early yesterday. The burglars entered from the back part of the building by breaking through a window. A sledge hammer and punch was used in breaking the combination on the safe, which was knocked off and a bolt driven through, destroying the lock. Between $1200 and $1500 is supposed to have been taken. Two gold watches were in the safe but were not taken. It is thought to be the work of professionals. No clues to the robbers.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovell Prescott are keepers of the G.W. Light-house at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but she grew worse rapidly. Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you can get a trial bottle free at Daniel J. Fry's drugstore, 225 Corn'l St.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Blaine is reported better. English Goldbugs want to cut short the silver conference at Brussels. Massachusetts official count shows Russell (Dem.) for governor to have 2696 plurality, Wolcott (Rep.) for Lieut.-Gov., 9993. Rev. Dr. Scott, the president's father-in-law, is much improved in health.

American Cholera.

From the Daily Revue, Whatcom, Washington: "T. C. Burnett, the Democratic candidate for sheriff was taken violently ill at Clearbrook. He had all the symptoms of Asiatic cholera, and for an hour or two it was feared he would die. They finally gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which revived him until a physician arrived." That is precisely what the manufacturers of that medicine recommend for cholera. Send for a physician but give your medicine until the physician arrives. If cholera becomes prevalent in this country next summer this preparation will be in great demand because it can always be depended upon. For sale by Baskett & Van Slype.

Circuit Court.

In case of Mrs. Easton vs. city the jury returned a verdict against the plaintiff, and her counsel will take an appeal to the supreme court. Alfred Apin vs. Jas. S. Apin, an equity case, is being taken in short hand. Amanda Wheeler vs. Ida M. Babcock, judgment a verdict. The jury is dismissed.

IT IS THE BEST.

That is Why I Recommend It.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives the most satisfaction of any cough medicine I handle, and as a seller, leads all other preparations in this market. I recommend it because it is the best medicine I ever handled for coughs, colds and croup. A. W. Baldrige, Millersville, Ills. For sale by Baskett & Van Slype.

A Tremendous Rumpus.

In the system is produced by a disorderly liver. Bile gets into the blood and gives a salmon tinge to the face, and the eyes, such as headache, indigestion, and other ailments are thrown out of gear, the bowels become constipated, and the system is in a state of nervous prostration. The right side and shoulder blade, the breath gets sour and the tongue furred, dizziness is frequent, especially rising suddenly. This state of affairs could not exist unless the disturbance were a serious one. Yet it is easily remedied with Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Remedy, which relieves every symptom of biliousness and indigestion, promotes a regular action on the bowels, and is auxiliary of appetite and sleep. It is a sure and specific for all material and kidney trouble, rheumatism and debility. A wingless full thrice a day.

Could Not Open His Eyes.

I took him twice during that time to the Eye and Ear Infirmary on Charles street, but their remedies failed to do him the faintest shadow of good. I commenced giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla and it soon cured him. I have never doubted that it saved his sight, even if not his very life. You may use this testimonial in any way you choose. I am always ready to sound the praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced. It seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels."—W. J. McLELLAN, Macon, Ga.

Wonders of Engraving. It is now known that precious and semiprecious stones were engraved with all the delicacy of modern filigree work as long ago as the time of Horace, centuries before emery powder, wheel and lathe were known. In more modern times, and with the tools and appliances which civilization naturally places in the artisan's hands, engravers have performed wonders, even going to the extent of carving relief pictures on the hardest of all mineral substances, the diamond. The first artist to engrave a diamond was Giacomo da Trezzo in 1567. The earliest instance of any kind of an engraved gem is the emerald signet ring of Polyocrates, 740 B. C. In the time of Francis I. Matteo del Nassaro, an Austrian citizen of Italian parentage, cut his famous "Crucifixion" upon a bloodstone, the lines conforming with the red spots and specks in such a manner as to make it appear that they were drops of blood issuing from the mortal wounds of the Saviour of the human race.—St. Louis Republic.

An Anecdote of Pope.

Mr. Jesse narrates an anecdote of Alexander Pope concerning one of the old watermen who was employed for many years in rowing Pope on the Thames. Pope was in the habit of having his sedan chair lifted into the punt. If the weather was fine he let down the glasses; if cold he pulled them up. He would sometimes say to the waterman: "John, I am going to repeat some verses; take care and remember them the next time I go out." When that time came Pope would say: "John, where are the verses I told you of?" "I have forgotten them, sir." "John, you are a blockhead. I must write them down for you." John says that no one thought of saying, when speaking of him, "Mr. Pope," but that he was always called "Mr. Alexander."

Do Women Like to Be Bossed?

Speaking of the "Taming of the Shrew," a woman whom one would scarcely imagine cherished such sentiments remarked: "All women love masterful men, and though I do not approve of the whiplash method of Petruchio's wooing, still even that is preferable to the pleading, humble style of lovemaking some men assume, for it is only assumption after all, not their genuine feelings. I like, and I know most women feel the same, a man that above all else they can respect and are just a tiny bit afraid of. Just as soon as a woman gets the upper hand she loses half the delight of being ordered around by one whom she would ten times rather serve as slave than rule as master."—Philadelphia Times.

A Libel on the Ivy.

The Japanese ivy has been charged with many serious things, such as injuring the stone and brickwork of buildings upon which it grows, and affording a safe harbor for mice. And now comes another. The offending plant covered the walls of a stable and forced an entrance by the window. There one of the horses, in his eagerness for green food, nibbled freely of the leaves within his reach, immediately fell ill, and died soon after from their poisonous effect, as an examination indicated. All of which is doubtless a libel on this lovely creeper.—New York Tribune.

It is pleasing to find that Dr.

Stables energetically exposes the vulgar fallacy that "cats ought to find their own food" if they are to be good layers of vermin. The most determined and adroit mouser we have known was carefully tended and regularly fed. This well bred and most killing cat disdained to prey on the slain.—London Saturday Review.
