THE WILLAMETTE

social club met Wednesday evening at their season's quarters, for drive and play. The largest scores were made by Mr. Brasfield and Mrs. Brown. The former received a pretty decorated broom, the latter a basket of roses. Mr. and Mrs. Turner received the honors that fall to the lot of the unfortunate. The club adjourned at 10 p. m. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Boies, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Monell, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willman, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Brasfield, Dr. and Mrs. Philbrook, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lafore, Capt. Goodhue and Major Hill, of Salt Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Col. Duval, of Chicago.

AN AFTERNOON WITH THE CECELIA.

Tuesday afternoon the music pupils of the Sacred Heart academy gave to their parents and friends one of those literary and musical entertainments which have made the institution popular. Although the day was dark and rainy, the aroma of happiness and intelligence which filled the atmosphere within and around the academy told the patient visitor that an intellectual treat was in store for him. At 2:30 o'clock the invited guests were ushered into the reception hall, which was beautifully festooned with bright flowers and evergreens. To add to the beauty of the surroundings the hall was brilliantly illuminated, and it made the visitor think that he was about to spend an evening rather than an afternoon with the youthful Cecilia. The following is the program rendered:

Sounds from the Ohio... Instrumental Duet
Music and Song... Solo and Chorus
Les Jours de la Jeunesse... Instrumental Duet
Those Evening Bells... Song and Chorus
Fairy Fingers... Instrumental Duet
Drifted Out to Sea... Instrumental Duet
Recitation with Piano Accompaniment
Zither and Piano
Racing Down the Rapids... Instrumental Solo
Birdie's Ball... Minnie's Song
Romeo and Juliet... Instrumental Solo
Tablature... Marydorm of St. Cecilia

The singing, music and recitations were in keeping with the high reputation the Sacred Heart academy has always enjoyed as a teacher of these delightful accomplishments.

AT THE DEAF MUTE SCHOOL.

Thanksgiving day was observed in an appropriate manner. The regular school exercises were suspended. Bountiful rations of turkey, cranberry sauce, mince pie, etc., were served at mid day. By 7 p. m. a goodly number of visitors, some from Portland and other places at a distance, had assembled in the institution hall to witness the unique exercises of the children of silence. An interesting program was rendered in the natural sign language of the deaf.

GUILD OFFICERS.

The ladies' guild of St. Paul's church elected officers Wednesday. Mrs. John F. Miller, president; Mrs. Huelat, 1st vice president; Mrs. D. F. Wagner, 2d vice president; Mrs. Plamondon, 3d vice president; Mrs. Berry, secretary; Mrs. Patton, treasurer. This is the senior guild and it secured $256 the past year for church work. The junior guild announce a fair for early in December.

THE MYSTERY SOCIAL.

Wednesday evening at the M. E. church parlors was a success in attendance and plan. The Greek syllbs were in full costume and beautifully arrayed. Four torch bearers escorted the questioner before the goddesses. Miss May Alderson represented the Asian Sybil, Miss Myrtle Marsh the Delphian, Miss Bell Aitken the Sybian, Miss Jessie Northup the Erythraean, Miss Lillian Roblin Tibartine, Miss Myrtle Hepburn the Cumean, Miss Flora Pringle the Persian.

JUST MOVED IN.

The Salem Y. M. C. A. has moved its effects into its new quarters and Bishop Becker of Akron, Ohio, will formally initiate the Association hall Sunday at 4 p. m. Only two rooms are finished. The rest are waiting for the plaster to dry. It is the intention of "the boys" to keep open house New Years with an all day reception. An orchestra has been engaged for the occasion.

LIBRARY SOCIAL.

The library social given last Wednesday evening by the young people of the Baptist church was a most enjoyable occasion. The social was something entirely new, nothing like it ever having been given in the city before, and its appreciation was attested by the large audience in attendance. More than one hundred and fifty persons partook of the bountiful free supper prepared by the young people. The books of the library were represented by the young ladies and gentlemen of the society and were just what they were advertised to be, books of the 20th century—talking books. Those deserving special mention were: "Hypatia," Miss Mary McIntyre; "The Griddle Papers," Mrs. H. S. Gile; "An Oregonian Belle," Mrs. B. E. Critchlow; "Uncle Tom's Cabin," Little Alice Sroat; "Maud Muller," Miss Lottie Burton and others. So many have requested that the society are contemplating a repetition of the entertainment.

FRIDAY'S WORK.

Some good work was done Friday to this end. How much remains to be seen. The E. M. Waite ticket in the third ward carried by 102 to 10 for Thos. Kay, in spite of the fact that Mr. Waite declined to make the race. He will make a popular candidate and an independent alderman if elected. In the fourth ward the Ed. Hutchins ticket carried the day by 94 to 69 for Mr. Marsh. Alderman Klein was on both tickets and will go in without much opposition. In the first and second wards there was no contest.

Some good men are named for mayor: E. M. Croisan, I. L. Patterson, E. C. Cross, C. L. Keller, Claude Gatch. These are all sterling business men, who can render the city good service if so disposed and left free to act for the good of all.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is the best remedy for Croup, Whooping Cough, Hoarseness, and all the sudden Throat and Lung Troubles to which young people are subject. Keep this medicine in the house. Hon. C. Edwards Lester, late U. S. Consul to Italy, and author of various popular works, writes:—"With all sorts of exposure, in all sorts of climates, I have never, to this day, had any cold nor any affection of the throat or lungs which did not yield to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral within 24 hours. Of course I have never allowed myself to be without this remedy in all my voyages and travels. Under my own observation, it has given relief to a vast number of persons while in acute cases of pulmonary inflammation, such as croup and diphtheria in children. Life has been preserved through its effects. I recommend its use in light and frequent doses. Properly administered, in accordance with your directions, it is a priceless blessing in any house."

Deafness Can't be Cured. by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents.
