

FRENCH MINISTRY RESIGN

President Carnot Accepts Their Resignation.

PRESBYTERIAN HERESY TRIALS.

Proceedings of Brussels Monetary Conference.

PARIS, Nov. 28.—Today an interpretation was submitted in the chamber of deputies asking why the government did not enforce the law providing for an autopsy in case of the sudden death of Baron Reinach, the banker, who is supposed to have committed suicide as a result of damaging exposures in the Panama canal management. Instead of responding, Prime Minister Loubet asked the chamber to pass to the order of the day pure and simple. The chamber rejected the request and the minister is now considering the question of resigning.

Later: Members of the cabinet, this afternoon tendered their resignation to President Carnot. He accepted the resignations but asked them to remain in office till their successors are appointed.

The Heresy Trials.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The members of the New York Presbyterian assembly this afternoon, for the purpose of trying the charges of heresy against Prof. Briggs. The charges are eight in number.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 28.—The heresy case of Prof. Preserved Smith was resumed this morning. Arguments proceeded as to legality of form and effect of the second charge, which is that Prof. Smith taught that the holy spirit did not control the inspired writers in the composition of the Holy Scriptures, so as to make their utterances absolutely free from error.

The Brussels Proposals.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 28.—At today's session of international monetary conference Alfred De Rothschild, one of Great Britain's representatives, presented his proposals. They cover 11 printed octavo pages. Rothschild argues at great length that bimetalism in Great Britain is absolutely impossible. He suggests that a question arises whether it is now possible to extend silver generally and by this means assist checking a further fall in values. Rothschild said he did not claim his proposals would prove a final solution of the question but they would prove palliative.

His proposals are that America continue purchases of silver and European powers buy an amount equal 5,000,000 pounds sterling a year for five years, at 48 cents. If silver should rise above that price, purchases to be immediately suspended. It is expected that the proposals will be referred to a committee of Portuguese delegates who have been instructed by their government to act in harmony with British representatives. It is stated that Rothschild proposes to raise the legal tender quality of silver in England from two pounds to five.

Great importance attaches to this proposal, as it means that English 5-pound notes are to be payable in silver.

On the Trail.

TACOMA, Wn., Nov. 28.—The report that three men who robbed the Northern Pacific train at Hot Springs, Wa. last Thursday night had been captured, is without foundation. Sheriff Woolery and Price both think they are working on the right clue. Woolery's posse has moved its headquarters from Hot Springs to Palmer.

Children Burned.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—The dwelling of W. L. Dasey burned this morning. Two children aged 3 and 6 years burned to death. Mrs. Dasey and James Henry are seriously injured by attempting the rescue of the children. Financial loss is insignificant.

Union Men Go Back.

HOMESTEAD, Nov. 28.—Many non-union men taken at Carnegie mills during the strike realize that they will have to give place to returning strikers and are leaving before they are discharged. Many old men are being re-employed.

Blaine Better.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 28.—Inquiry at Blaine's house this afternoon elicited the response that Blaine is very much better today.

GOLD AND SILVER.

Two Wonderful Mines Opened Worth Millions.

HERMOSILLO, Mexico, Nov. 28.—There is much excitement in the western part of the Sonora over the recent discovery of a gold mine of fabulous richness. The find was brought about in a remarkable way, the fortunate discoverer being Athur Corna, a merchant of Altair in this state. About two weeks ago Mr. Corna bought a piece of quartz from an Indian which contained a little over six pounds of pure gold. A few days later the Indian appeared again with another of rich gold-bearing quartz, which he sold for $20. Mr. Corna then offered the Indian $30 to show him the place where the gold was obtained. The offer was accepted and the two went off to the hill, and when a little ways from the mine the Indian told Mr. Corna where to go and see the gold for himself. The Indian would not approach the mine because of the tradition that any one of his race showing a mine to a Mexican would die within a few days. Mr. Corna went in and found the rich gold mine, which is named the Teaderus. The mine shows evidence of having been worked for centuries, and is believed to be one of the lost mines of the Aztecs, from which they obtained such wealth centuries ago. Mr. Corna will soon begin working the property on an extensive scale.

The Pension Bills.

Carver Again Sentenced.—A Repeater Convicted.—Suicide.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The secretary of the interior transmitted to the secretary of the treasury the estimates required to pay pensions for the next fiscal year. The sum of $165,831,350 will be necessary to pay pensions on account of the army and navy, including the maintenance of pension agencies, clerk hire and other incidental expenses. Of this amount it is estimated that $165,000,000 will be paid directly to pensioners. In addition to the estimate of $146,737,350 for the fiscal year, ended June 30, 1892, a deficiency of $10,508,621 is asked.

LIEBSENTER.

UNION, Or., Nov. 28.—Evan Carver who was tried and convicted of murder in the first degree in the state circuit court one year ago for the killing of Lebor near Elgin, was arraigned in the circuit court again, the case having been appealed to the supreme court and remanded back for a new trial on account of an error in the proceedings. The prisoner had been suffering with fever and was hardly able to come into court. When asked by the Judge as to his guilt, Carver made a plea of guilty in the second degree, upon which plea he will receive his sentence next Tuesday.

Suicide.

CORVALLIS, Nov. 28.—James Brown, a well-to-do farmer living near Philomath, committed suicide by shooting himself. He was subject to crazy spells, resulting from poor health. He leaves a widow, but no children.

For Repeating.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, Nov. 28.—Harvey McKay, who pleaded guilty in the U. S. district court to repeating on election day, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Another Discovered.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 28.—A cable received from the European Union of Astronomers announces the discovery of a faint comet by Mr. Freeman of Brighton, Eng. Its position Nov. 24, 1892 Greenwich mean time, was right ascension, 0 hours 27 minutes; declination north 30 degrees 9 minutes. It has a motion directly south of 3 deg. daily. It is about 5 deg. south of the Holmes' comet.

Criminal News.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 28.—Hugh Ross one of the Homestead strike leaders and ex-burgess John McClelluck, who have been missing ever since charges of murder and treason were preferred against them returned to the city today and surrendered to the sheriff. They have been jailed pending an application for bail.

Two Reckless Men.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 28.—Anglo and Joseph Zappe, Italians, were sentenced this morning for the murder of Frank Helmstatter. They attempted to dash their brains out against the prison walls after being taken to cells in the county jail. Both are seriously injured. They were removed to other cells after being placed under guard.

POISON MIXERS.

A Rich Old Man Disposed of—A Case of Jealousy.

DUBLIN, Ga., Nov. 28.—Joy Bennett, a rich citizen of Lothair, Montgomery county, is lying at the point of death, and it is charged that his young wife gave him arsenic in a cup of tea to rid herself of him. Mr. Bennett is 70 years old, and Mrs. Bennett is only 29, a handsome, vivacious blonde. The marriage, which occurred years ago, was never happy. A year after the marriage Mrs. Bennett and a married physician named Thomas became intimate. The old husband thought to retain the love of his wife by willing to her all his property and by insuring his life in her favor for $10,000, but without success. It is believed that Mrs. Bennett and the doctor have been trying for months to get Bennett out of the way. Last Sunday morning they drove the old man from his home, and he was compelled to ask neighbors for shelter. He returned to his house Tuesday evening. The authorities are investigating the charge made against his wife.

ANOTHER CASE.

LE SUEUR, Nov. 28.—Word is received from St. Henry, 12 miles from here, that Joseph Houder, a prosperous young farmer, has died with symptoms of poison. Soon after he was buried, Agnes Bear, an elder sister of his wife, and whom he courted before his marriage to her sister, died in the same manner. It is believed she poisoned him through jealousy, and then committed suicide.

THE GILLIAM CO. ROBBERY.

Details of the Capture—Another Taken—One Still at Large.

PORTLAND, Nov. 27.—The men were scattered over about 100 miles of territory, and arrangements were made for concerted action by the one man's learning of the capture of the other in time to make his escape. The intention was to take the four men on Wednesday morning. However, this part of the officers' plans were blocked in this respect.

One of the four men had left the country to look after his cattle on the range; the posse which was in search of Hale did not reach the house of his brother, where he was supposed to be, as soon as had been expected, owing to the very bad condition of the roads. Zackery was not found at the house of his father, where he was expected to be, having gone down to his brother's house, about 10 miles distant, and only one man, Keuzie, was captured according to the pre-arrangement on Wednesday morning.

CAPTURE OF HALE.

Sheriff Banks, of Killekitat county, City Marshal McGrath, of Ellensburg, and Sheriff Wilcox, of Gilliam, did the capturing of Cal Hale, who bears the reputation of being the bad man of the Northwest. In an interview granted to a reporter, Sheriff Banks said:

"Really, I am surprised even yet that we captured our men as easily as we did. Not one of our party expected to get away without an exchange of shots, but so adroitly was the entire affair managed that we caught the men without a struggle. We left The Dalles Saturday night, and proceeded at once, according to arrangements, to Ed. Hale's ranch, on Thirty-mile creek, just seven miles from Fossil. We knew Cal Hale was at his brother's ranch, and that he reached there just five days after the commission of the robbery.

"Just what clues we followed cuts no figure in the matter, but it is sufficient to say that all the developments date from a flour sack. We were very confident from the time we took up the case that we were on the right trail, and could have arrested the men before, but for the fact that we wanted to get all the evidence possible before making the capture. Now we have a complete chain of evidence, and the men in custody have been fully identified, so the time for arresting our men had come."

Considering the nature of the case and the desperate character of the men, the capture was a most creditable one for the officers. They knew when they went into the bandits' retreat in Gilliam county that they were taking their lives in their hands. In fact, they fully expected bloodshed, and had it not been for their quick, skillful manipulations in surrounding their men unexpectedly, this would surely have occurred. Had Hale, who is recognized as being the worst of the lot, received any intimation that the officers were after him, he could have soon brought together a band that would have wiped the officers, posse out of existence.

Another One Arrested.

PORTLAND, Nov. 27.—Dell Zackery, another of the gang of Roslyn bank robbers, was arrested Saturday in Gilliam county. Dell is a brother of George Zackery. The prisoner will be brought here tomorrow by Deputy Sheriff Haley, of Pendleton. Byron Bernard, the last of the five men engaged in the robbery, is still at large.

THE COMET COMING.

Georgia Negroes Believe the World is Coming to an End.

ATLANTA, Nov. 28.—The granite quarries at Lithonia have agents in this city trying to get workmen. They employ 500 colored helpers for the granite cutters. Not more than half reported for work last Monday, and day by day since they have dropped out until not one of them is left. The comet is the cause of this absence from work. The negroes have become so wrought up over the end of the world, as they call it, that they devote themselves to wild religious orgies. A marriage, which was to have taken place at the Lithonia (colored) church last night, was broken off, because, as the groom explained, "What's the use if there is only three days more to live?"

Houses are left open, and everything is in common; but so intense is the belief in the comet judgment day that nothing is disturbed. Saturday night they set down as the time for the end of all things.

Big Display.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Professor J. K. Rees, of Columbia college observatory, was busy watching the comet, and was also on the lookout for meteoric showers. At 9:30 Saturday night he said the comet was scarcely visible and was rapidly disappearing straight above the earth. He added:

"Sunday night I expect a brilliant display of falling meteors and probably Monday night also. The best time to see the heavenly display is between the hours of 12 and 2 a. m., though it may commence earlier."

At Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Local astronomers were much disappointed Sunday at being unable to obtain a view of the comet and the expected star shower but the sky was overcast the entire day with heavy gray clouds. Professor Hough, of the Dearborn observatory, said:

"There has not been the slightest chance of seeing the comet. It is not Bella's comet, anyway, nor is it at all likely to collide with the earth. In fact, it is moving directly away from our planet at the rate of 150 miles second, and it is already 150,000,000 miles away."

Dispatches from many points throughout the West and Northwest state an inability to see the comet.

At New Haven.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 28.—The Yale observatory astronomers were on the watch for a shower of meteors, as it was last night they were expected. They were disappointed, as no meteoric display took place.

On Duty.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—At all the observatories of the old world every astronomer whether of greater or lesser repute, will be on duty tonight, it is probable that the result will be of great value to the astronomers.

Kob's Contest.

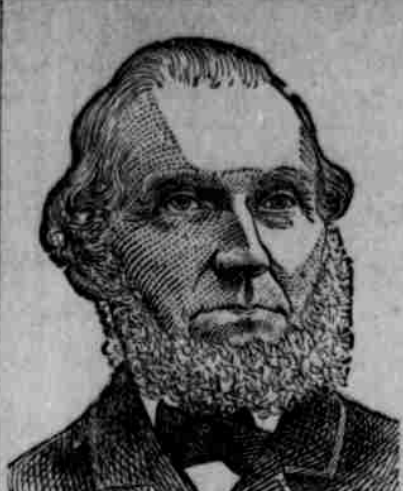

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 28.—There is going to be a bitter fight over the governorship. The Alliance candidate Kolo declares he was elected by 45,000 majority but was counted out. Jones, the Democrat, on the other hand, says there is not the least foundation for Kolo's charges. There is no law for a contest by State officers in this State, and Kolo's chances hang on the passage of a law now before the State Legislature.

Custer's Father Dead.

MUNROE, Mich., Nov. 28.—Emanuel Custer, father of the late General George Custer, the famous cavalry leader, died at Harrisonville yesterday, aged 85.

Silver Ore Struck.

SILVER CITY, N. M., Nov. 28.—The largest body of silver ore ever struck in New Mexico is being opened at Lone Mountain, 10 miles southeast of this city. The property belongs to John Brockman. It is believed 500,000 tons of ore already taken out will average $20 per ton.

Mr. David M. Jordan, of Edmonston, N. Y. Colorless, Emaciated, Helpless

A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Onondaga Co., N. Y. "Fourteen years ago I had an attack of gravel, and have since been troubled with my Liver and Kidneys gradually growing worse. Three years ago I was so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked like a mere corpse that was being kept alive. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why? Not so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I feel well and am well. All who know me will testify to me so well. D. M. JORDAN. HOOD'S PILLS are the best after-dinner Pills, assist digestion, cure headache.

THE UNSETTLED CLAIM.

Story of One Man Who Had Patience and Waited for a Railroad Company. I never knew when the accident happened. It was on the books of the railroad company when I first went to work for the attorney of the road. "Well, let that go over another year," were his instructions to me whenever I would refer to the matter and urge that it be settled. The man used to hobble in the office about once in six months and ask about the case. He had lost his leg in a smashup, and had been promised, again and again, after the fashion of corporations, that his case would be settled. "In a little while now," would be the lawyer's words, "we will be getting to your case; you must be patient, you know; there are so many ahead of you." Year after year every six months the old fellow used to come down to the city to see if we were ready to settle. "We are not liable; but we will do something for you," would be his greeting from the astute railroad attorney. One day he hobbled into the general offices, and declared that he would not leave unless he was attended to. "Your claim is for $20,000?" asked the lawyer kindly. "That's it; every decision of the courts has been again you; it is now nine years since you told me you would settle. My wife has died. Poor soul, I thought some of the money would do her good. All the old neighbors I had are dead and gone. The boys have grown up. Lightning struck the barn. Fire swept away all I had. Jim, my favorite son, went down with liquor." "We will settle," said the lawyer kindly, "but you must be patient." And the years swept by, and the lawyer himself went to his reward. The road changed hands, was sold under a mortgage and was reorganized. New officers filled the places of the old ones. A new life and a new generation held sway. They said the claim was to be settled. Yes. Well, that funeral you just saw passing the door from the county poor farm was the last of earth for old Abner Coles, who lived and died without justice between man and man.—New York Recorder.
