Petitions were also presented for closing the world's fair on Sundays, and for the construction of the Panama canal. The president today sent to the senate the following appointments: G. M. Lambertson, of Nebraska, assistant secretary of the treasury, Vice A. B. Nettleton, resigned; J. W. McDill, of Iowa, interstate commerce commissioner, reappointment; P. C. Cheney, of New Hampshire, minister to Switzerland; P. S. Grosscup, of Chicago, United States district judge for the Northern district of Illinois, to succeed Judge H. W. Blodgett, resigned.

A Silver Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.-Stewart introduced a bill amending the Sherman act so as to provide for free silver coinage of the bullion now held in the treasury, and in addition for the issue of treasury notes based on silver deposits which notes are to be redeemable in gold or silver coin at the option of the government, and are made legal tender. The anti-option bill was laid before the senate.

Specie Imports of the Past Week NEW YORK, Dec. 12,-A shortage of $4000 has been discovered in the account of the Hoffman house cafe in the basement of the Consolidated Exchange, at New and Beaver streets. An employe of Edward S. Stokes has had charge of the restaurants for the last two years. 'Aud this man," said Mr. Stokes, in the Hoffman house last night was discharged from his position by me a few weeks ago, after I had discovered a discrepancy of $4000 in say that the chain evidence against his accounts. Of this sum he had charged about $1500 or $1600 upon his books to some members of the produce exchange who took their uncheou at the cafe in Beaver street. Three of these men are R. O. N. Ford, C. B. Hegg and E. D. Neustadt. I found that these gentlemen did not owe the cafe a cent. The employe before he was dismissed learned I was to examine his accounts, and ordered the bookkeeper to charge to him the apparent accounts of Messrs. Ford, Hegg and Neustadt. Where the money went I am not prerared to say The man who has deceived me was earning $40 a month when I took a fancy to him and put him in place of trust.
