SANTA'S HEADQUARTERS.—Salem merchants are fully up to times in the handsome decorations of their show windows for the approaching holiday season. Santa Claus is holding court in at least a score of places, any of which would fully equal the monarch of Christmas for his midnight journey, Dec. 31st. There is enough to fill all the stockings great and small.

UNITARIAN.—Morning service at 10:30 o'clock; the sermon will be upon "Freedom through the Truth," by Rev. T. W. Haven. Dr. E. B. Philbrook addresses the Sunday school upon science. Rev. M. V. Rusk will lead the adult class in the parlor at 12 m. The evening service begins at 7 o'clock.

Y. M. C. A.—The association will be addressed by Rev. I. D. Driver tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Those who heard Mr. Driver's toast at the business men's banquet, need no second invitation. Twenty minute song service and a hearty welcome. Men only. 250 Com'l St.

A BEAUTIFUL DAY.—Saturday opened clear and frosty. The sun rose over the Cascade mountains with unusual brilliancy and the whole day has been mild, fair and springlike as April sunshine could make it.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—This year will be delivered by the Lockwood Messenger System. This is a new thing for Salem which is appreciated by all.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH.—Tomorrow, Sunday school at 12, Y. P. C. E. at 6:30 and preaching at 7:30 p. m., J. Bowersox, pastor.

A BEAUTY.—One of the finest holiday gifts ever gotten up in book form is now being offered the people of Salem by the canvassers of Middebrook & Shumaker. It is "Glimpses of the World," a beautifully illustrated volume. When the agents call to see you be sure to look the work over.

CONGREGATIONAL.—Rev. I. D. Driver will preach at the Congregational church morning and evening next Sabbath, Dec. 18th. Mr. Driver will have many new things to tell the people of Salem as he has traveled over a great deal of the world since he has been with us. Let there be a good turnout.

IN THE WAY OF SOCIAL DOING

Revelation of What is in Store for Those Seeking Pleasure or Culture.

The Unity club gave another one of its dancing parties Wednesday evening, Dec. 14th. Nearly all those holding invitations were present. During the past week the Old Folks' Whist club met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cottle, on Marion street, for the usual evening of pleasure.

THE HAWKEYES.

Salem's good people have gained a wide fame for their great hospitality and social qualities, and it is a justly merited reputation. The Capital city has numerous clubs and social organizations, and among them all probably none offers its members more solid enjoyment than the Hawkeyes. The members met last night at the home of Elder Frank A. Turner on Center street and fully kept up its record for substantial fun and refreshments. After the usual programme, the festive "college song" was turned loose on the midnight air, and sent all home happy as when on their native soil.

SECOND PARTY OF "ENTRE NOUS."
The committee have prevailed on the proprietor, Eugene McCormack, to put in a nice new dancing floor in the opera house, which will add greatly to the enjoyment of those attending the party on Wednesday evening next. The ball is to be lighted throughout with electricity. The management has secured the same orchestra as before, which will render the following selections for the music lovers before the dance: Overture, "Rosamund"; Selection, "Plantation Echoes"; Patrol, "Guardmount"; Overture, "Twilight hours"; Piccolo Solo.

CHINA WEDDING.

Cards are received by friends in this city, announcing the china wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson at the Dalles Dec. 21. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson are former Salem people, the latter being Miss Blanche Gray, daughter of Hon. G. W. Gray of this city.

CHANGE OF DATE.

The Willamette club will meet next Tuesday for whist, instead of Wednesday, the change being made to accommodate the date for the Entre Nous club meeting at Reed's.

WILLAMETTE NOTES.

"The Oregonian" of Dec. 13, writing under the title of an "Able Lecture on the Earth's Crust" by Prof. L. G. Cochran of Willamette university, before the academy of science, says: "The lecture was most profusely illustrated by stereopticon views, and was listened to with the closest attention for nearly two hours by an audience that occupied every available seat and who testified their appreciation by the most hearty applause." There were more than 500 in the audience.

Misses R. F. and C. E. McIntyre, teachers, were visitors at the session rooms Thursday and Friday.

A mail box is to be placed at the western steps of the university.

A strong committee from the board of trustees went to Portland to meet Bishop Newman and confer with him on the affairs of Willamette university.

Miss Cora Winters read an essay on Dreams, Tuesday, and Miss Belle Aitken, on Opposition, Thursday. Both essays were meritorious and well written.

We now march into chapel from the session rooms by a drum, J. R. Parvin, being drummer.

The Philodorian society held an open meeting Friday evening and a very successful one too; among the parts of the good program Prof. Scriber sang with band accompaniment and was enthusiastically endorsed. Probably no body of people have a more generally good time than these societies enjoy at their open meetings.

Miss Mary Kelly, a last year's student, who has been teaching, has returned to attend the university.

KNOCKED OUT IN ONE ROUND.

A Short and Sharp Struggle at 8:15 A. M. in Polk County.

Before a select audience there came off an encounter just across the river at fifteen minutes past six that was not on the bills. Barney Pompeler, referee. For convenience the contestants will be named Tabby and Jim. The first pass was made by Tabby who got onto Jim's back. Jim got Tabby in chancery and his backer, Newt, Farrell, thought of withdrawing his fighter. But Billy Adolph, who backed the Simian light-weight, insisted that the battle go on. At this juncture Tabby executed a leap into the air of about fifteen feet, leaving a streak of fur behind and Jim picking the hair out of his teeth. The light-weight danced into the center of the ring while Tabby advanced slowly from the outside. There was another clinch, followed by a rattling and squalling that came near calling the police across the river in skirts. The Simian was the victor in the first round, and is receiving a regular ovation today, hundreds calling to see his athletic majesty and witness his prowess.

SALEM GRANGE.—Officers were elected as follows: J. B. Stump, Master; F. R. Smith, Overseer; T. L. Davidson, Lecturer; Clara Smith, Steward; H. C. Fletcher, assistant Steward; Mrs. M. A. Minto, Chaplain; Geo. H. Croisan, Treasurer; Lydia Leabo, Secretary; Mrs. M. J. Miller, Gate Keeper; Mrs. Fletcher, Ceres; Mrs. R. B. Boise, Pomona; Mrs. Jennie Strong, Flora; Mrs. Kate Watt, Lady Asst. Steward; Hon. R. P. Boise and State Sec. W. M. Hilleary, of Turner, were invited to conduct the installation of officers on the first Saturday in January, 7, 1893. A lunch was served and there was a large attendance at both closed and open sessions.

SPECIAL SESSION.—An adjourned term of the circuit court will commence Monday. The following new cases have been added to the docket. They are either for money or divorce: C. B. Moores, administrator, vs. M. J. Crump. C. H. Harper vs. J. C. Martin. Inez E. McComb vs. L. A. McComb. J. C. Johnson vs. J. J. Roberts. E. P. and M. M. Lewis vs. S. E. Nolt, et al. Theresa Fisher vs. Jos. Fisher. T. C. Patterson vs. M. J. Boyd. Gilbert Bros. vs. Wm. Leeper. G. S. Downing vs. M. M. Jacobs. Jennie E. Warren vs. A. Warren. A. B. Smith vs. Robert Wakefield. J. G. Johnson vs. Charles Calvert. A. W. Jette vs. Alex. Labonta. F. Vander Baan vs. S. Ramp.

SOME BEAUTIFUL BIRDS.—The management of the forthcoming poultry show have the promise of an exhibit of imported pea fowls and several varieties of pigeons not known here. The poultry feature of the show is assuming such proportions that it has been decided to drop the dog exhibit entirely, and all premiums on canines have been withdrawn.

OUR MOTTO.—"Quality of goods and neatness of package," is our motto for candy for Christmas presents. The Spa.

Suppression of the Meneses may be relieved by a dose of Ayer's Pills which produce the desired effect through sympathetic action.

J. H. Ross has been appointed guardian ad litem of Frankie Gunnison of South Salem.

Judge Burnett holds an equity term of court next week, beginning Monday.

Squire Farrar & Co. do not pretend to make gifts of groceries to their customers, and believe they make cash sales ahead of any house in the city. There is reason for this—fair treatment the year around.

C. E. Deichman and wife of Hillsboro are visiting relatives in the city. Mr. D. is county assessor and has business with the state board of equalizers.

Mrs. Casebeer has been appointed administratrix in the estate of her late husband.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure, rich, and vitalizing. Sold by all druggists.

Jones & Bernardi lead on Christmas candies.

The Verdict

OF ALL who have used Ayer's Pills for Biliousness and Liver Complaint it is that they are the best ever made. Being free from any mineral ingredients, and sugar-coated, Ayer's Pills are adapted to all ages, constitutions, and climates.

"Having used Ayer's Pills for many years in my practice and family, I feel justified in recommending them as an excellent cathartic and liver medicine. They sustain all the claims made for them."—W. A. Westfall, M. D., V. P. Austin & S. W. R. E. Co., Burnett, Texas.

"Ayer's Pills keep my stomach and liver in perfect condition. Five years ago I was afflicted with enlargement of the liver and with a severe form of dyspepsia, most of the time being unable to retain any solid food on my stomach. I finally began to take Ayer's Pills, and after using only three boxes of these magical pills, was a well man."—Lucius Alexander, Marblehead, Mass.

PERSONAL.—Hon. J. R. N. Bell of Independence is in the city. He was a former clerk of the Oregon railroad commission, for ten days owned an interest in the Hotel Willamette property, has conducted many newspapers, some of them more than local fame and some to an early grave, is a Presbyterian preacher second in ability only to Father Driver, and is everywhere mistaken for Grover Cleveland, though he is by far a better looking man.

NEWMAN IN PORTLAND.—Sunday will be a memorable day with Portland Methodists, whose thirteen churches will unite in a tabernacle meeting, to help the Portland hospital. Bishop Newman was to arrive in Portland this morning. A cordial reception awaits him. He is undoubtedly one of the great divines of the century. He was General Grant's chaplain during the last lingering illness of the great soldier-statesman, and baptized him just before his death. Bishop Newman was three times pastor of the Metropolitan church of Washington, and has held the most responsible positions in the gift of his church.

TWO FOR THE PEN.—Deputy Sheriff C. G. Kinsey, of Baker City, arrived with John Kelley and John H. Neilan, prisoners. Kelley is sentenced to one year in the penitentiary, for larceny from a dwelling, and Neilan will serve three years and a half for obtaining money under false pretenses.

DEAFNESS CAN'T BE CURED.
by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure, sent for circular, free, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents.

Serious Issues in Oregon

Various papers in Oregon are favoring the working of the roads by penitentiary prisoners. It is true that Oregon has lots to do in the way of roadmaking, but her forests are thick and would afford fine opportunities for the escape of criminals. If it would take as many guards as it does prisoners it would be better to pay the guards to work the roads and keep the convicts inside the "dead line" of the penitentiary. There is, however, another alarming phrase in this prison question. The penitentiary is getting crowded to its full capacity, although the last legislature had cells built for 250 more boarders. Perhaps if they could be brought out on the roads and allowed to escape, Governor Penney wouldn't have to stand the blame of pardoning so many. The prison question and the insane charge will soon loom up as serious issues in Oregon. With a combined roll of 1150 in the institutions, Oregon is pretty well supplied with a non-producing and expensive element for her population.—Grant's Pass Courier.
