CHILLED FLOWS AND STOVES.

Papers Drawn Up and Bond Filed—Terms on Which Bailor Can Secure It.

The time has come for Salem to capture another manufacturing enterprise. There is now an opportunity to secure a plow factory and stove works that before 1893 shall have rolled around will add another to the list of payrolls that will put money into circulation every week.

THE PROPOSITION.

John Patterson, Emanuel Krugbaum, J. M. McAllister, and Wm. Perry have filed a bond of $4000 by which they oblige themselves on or before June 1, 1893, to erect in this city or its suburbs a chilled plow and stove works, the plant for which is now in their possession, valued at $7000, and the lots for which are already donated, in consideration of this city giving them a subsidy of $2000. The buildings they agree to erect are 40x80 feet, of two stories, and molding room 40x80, covered with an iron roof. $1500 of the sum is to be subscribed before any is due. Frank Holmes has been to interview our business men with a subscription paper and the work of raising the bonus should be pushed right along. The Salem board of trade will no doubt hold a special meeting to consider the matter, and give it a lift as was done to secure the soap works established here this year. The projectors of the plow and stove works are all Salem men and it is just such enterprises that should be made successful. This city would give a hundred thousand dollars probably to get another railroad when that sum will secure a score of small factories of far more practical value to our city. The plow and stove works is a good starter for 1893.

THE LEVELS FLOODED.

Salem's Sewers Taxed to Their Utmost and Some Obstructed. The Chinook thaw has sent all the streams about Salem to flood. Great ponds are found on all the level expanses and low grounds. In the city many sidewalks are afloat and small bridges in danger. If much snow melts on the mountains there will be a flood.

SEWERS FLOODED.

Street Commissioner Culver this forenoon inspected all the sewers. The three main sewers on Ferry, Court and Marion streets are only 18 inch sewers, and are altogether inadequate for an occasion like this where rapidly melting snow and an occasional shower accelerate the discharge of water. The Ferry street sewer is working all right. The Court street sewer is blocked and water running over at the manholes. The Marion street sewer has 8 to 10 feet of water standing in the manholes. It is very plain that more and better sewage is needed, and that the present sewers are too small.

DEATHS.

At his home, 422 Summer street, Salem, Sunday night at 5 o'clock, Dec. 25, 1892, Dr. J. W. McAfee, at the age of 69 years. Deceased has been ailing for nearly two years and finally passed away from general physical debility. Dr. McAfee was a native of Louisville, Ky., coming to Oregon in 1850, residing in Salem since 1863. He was a graduate of the McDowell Medical college of St. Louis, Mo., in 1849; also of the department University of California in 1863; in 1866 the University of the City of New York also conferred a degree upon him. He was one of the founders of the medical department of Willamette University, holding the chairs of Chemistry and Anatomy for a number of years. He belonged to the Odd Fellows and Masonic orders, both societies will probably participate at his funeral. In his youth he was reared a Catholic, but has of late years been identified with no religious sect. Dr. McAfee leaves a wife and two children, Mrs. Norton and W. E. McAfee both of Salem. Dr. McAfee was a liberal man and highly respected in all his professional and private life. The funeral will be at the Episcopal church Tuesday at 2 p. m., burial at Rural cemetery.

Nervous Prostration.

Of prevalent opportunity among women. Suffering from overacting the system. The sensitive organs becoming arranged, the blood grows weak and impoverished, and hence "that tired feeling" of which many complain. For all such cases, there is no remedy equal to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Take no other. "Some time ago I found my system entirely run down. I had a feeling of constant fatigue and languor and very little ambition for any kind of effort. A friend advised me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did with the best results. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used."—Frank Matthews, Chelsea, Mass. "For months I was afflicted with nervous prostration, weakness, languor, general debility, and mental depression. By purifying the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I was completely cured."—Mrs. Mary Stevens, Lowell, Mass. When troubled with Dizziness, Sleeplessness, or Bad Dreams, take
