[illegible] POPULISTS LOSE.

Democrats Recognize the Republican House.

COLD WAVE CONTINUES.

Wheat Blockade in Saint Louis.

POPULISTS STAND BROKEN.

Both Houses Meet—Mrs. Lease on the Ground.

TOPEKA, Kas., Jan. 12.—Committees of the two houses held a conference this morning, but without any result, and both houses met at the appointed time. Neither attempted any business. Mrs. Lease was present, and encouraged the Populists to stand firm. Republicans have about completed preparations for bringing mandamus proceedings in supreme court to compel the secretary of state to turn over the papers in the contested cases.

Speaker Dunsmore, of the Populist house, is authority for the statement that the governor and senate will recognize the Populist house this afternoon. Republicans say they will maintain their organization and leave the hall peaceably, should the governor send the adjutant general to dispossess them, and go to a hall down town and continue their sessions.

During roll call by the Republican house this afternoon, the Democratic members announced that they had held aloof as long as proper for them to do so, but now, believing the Republican house the only properly organized one, they would recognize it as such. The announcement was received with great demonstration by the Republicans. Populists are very much depressed.

First in a Hundred Years.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 12.—Niagara Falls presents a beautiful sight. A complete ice bridge covers what is known as "Big Kettle," extending from about one hundred feet below the suspension bridge to within 50 feet of the foot of the falls. This is the first time in one hundred years that this has happened.

Grain Blockade.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 12.—As a result of the early marketing of grain by the farmers and the exports and shipping demand, there is a grain blockade in this city, with little prospect of relief. Elevators are full to the roofs, and 1600 loaded cars are on the side tracks, for which there is no storage capacity. Some roads are refusing further shipments of grain for this city.

France Safe.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—The chamber of deputies showed its confidence in the government today by defeating a motion asking the government to fix a day for a new election.

Washington's Governor.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 12.—Retiring Governor Ferry introduced his message with reference to enlarged transportation facilities of the state by land and water. Referring to the payment of interest on state warrants, the governor suggested that this expense should be obviated by requiring payment of taxes earlier in the fiscal year. He strongly endorsed the provisions for the formation of a bureau of statistics to encourage immigration. He recommended that the present legislature should create two congressional districts. He suggests legislation providing for the election of two supreme judges at the election to be held in November, 1894, and in reference to the harbor line commission, which expires by limitation on January 15th, he recommends an amendment to the law be enacted prior to the 15th inst., extending the term of office of members of the board to such future day as may be deemed necessary. For the erection of a creditable state house, he recommends issuing bonds to mature in ten years, to be paid [illegible] proceeds of granted lands. He [illegible] the legislature to investigate [illegible] agricultural college troubles. From the balcony of the senate chamber, Governor McGraw addressed the gathering. Referring to the duties and trust that the people of Washington had imposed upon him, he said: "Ever thoughtful of the trust reposed in me, it shall be my earnest endeavor to so discharge [illegible] duties that it may be said, when [illegible] history is written, that under [illegible] administration some progress [illegible] toward the attainment of [illegible] destiny." The oath of [illegible] administered by Chief [illegible]

A Senator's Funeral.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 12.—The body of the late Senator Kenna was conveyed to the capitol building this morning, in the midst of a blinding snow storm. In spite of the storm, the outside galleries were crowded before the opening services. Bishop Kean, of the Roman Catholic church, preached the funeral sermon.

Wool Manufacturers.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The annual meeting of the National Association Wool Manufactures began here today. The matter of chief interest to be discussed is the impending tariff legislation, affecting the wool industry.

Poisoners on Trial.

PITTSBURG, Penn., Jan. 12.—The trial of Hugh Dempsey, district master workman of the Knights of Labor, J. M. Davidson and Robert Beatly, charged with poisoning nonunion workmen in the Homestead steel mills, began here today.

Montana Senator.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 12.—The ballot for United States senator today resulted the same as yesterday, except Beecher, Populist, voted for Mulville, populist, instead of Hauser Democrat.

Murderer's Reward.

CHESTERTOWN, Md., Jan. 12.—Intense excitement reigns in Kent county. Four of the Ocette murderers, who assassinated Dr. J. H. Hill, have been removed from the place. Their sentences were commuted by Governor Brown. Those whose lives are spared, are Henry Hurtt, Joshua Bainard, Charles Emery, and Lewis Benson. Those who are left and who will surely hang on Friday, if they are not lynched before, are: Charles Brooks, Moses Brown, Fletcher Williams and Frisby Comegys. When the populace learned this morning that the sentences had been commuted and the prisoners taken away, excitement and indignation amounting to almost madness followed. Remarks were made that it would be dangerous for the governor to be seen about the city. Crowds gathered in the neighborhood of the jail and in all places of public resort, and discussed the matter in loud tones. Lewis Justice, a prominent merchant, appeared to voice the sentiment of the populace. When he said: "I should not be surprised if the other four were lynched tonight. You can hardly realize the pitch of excitement to which the people are worked. If the secret had leaked out last night, the police would not have had an easy job to get the men away."

NOTICE.

Attention is called to section 35 of ordinance 203, which by order of the committee on streets and public property, the street commissioner is directed to strictly enforce. It reads as follows:

Any person who shall throw or deposit in any street, sidewalk or footpath of the City of Salem, any broken glass, bottles, crockery, nails, or other substance whatsoever, whereby the feet of horses, pedestrains or any beast of burden may be injured; or throw, deposit or sweep into or upon any street, sidewalk or footpath of Salem, of paper or other substance whatever, except snow or dirt resulting from travel, shall, upon conviction thereof before the recorder, be fined not less than five dollars or more than fifty dollars.

THE LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE—2 P. M. JAN. 10.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

Cooper, homestead exemption to amount of $[illegible].

Belknap, fixing salaries of clerks of county and supreme courts, sheriffs.

Geer of Clackamas, to regulate running at large of stock.

Houck, to punish placing of obstructions on railroad tracks.

Ormsby, to fix per diem of jurors before justice or recorder's court when holding inquest.

Geer of Marion, amending railway commission law to elect same by vote of people.

Trullinger, to amend code.

Sheridan, to fix liabilities of railroad companies for injury to employes.

RESOLUTIONS.

Daly moved that senate be requested to return house joint resolution amending constitution, fixing qualification of voters, introduced by Northup. His point is that the resolution is in conflict with the federal law, which requires only two years to intervene between taking out of first papers and election; the proposed amendment requires three years residence to intervene. The resolution was ordered returned.

BILLS.

Gullixson, to define and punish act of breaking into railroad car.

Ford gave notice that tomorrow he would introduce bills for county prosecuting attorneys, precinct assessors and for purchase of supplies at state institutions.

PETITION.

Wright of Union, introduced petition from the members of the bar of the sixth judicial district for creation of four judicial districts out of present sixth and seventh districts. Referred to committee on judiciary when appointed.

Ormsby moved that house adjourn. Carried.

SENATE—2 P. M. JAN. 11.

President Fulton announced appointment of following investigating committees:

Land department, Steiwer, Cogswell.

Clerk hire, Denny, Looney, Dodson, Cogswell, Myers.

Jetty and locks, Cross Veatch.

State university, McGinn, Matlock.

State penitentiary, Willis, Weatherford.

World's fair commission, Woodard, Raley.

FIRST READING OF BILLS.

Cross, regulating road supervisors.

Butler, for addition to Monmouth state normal school.

House joint resolution appointing committee to investigate orphan's home at Salem and Portland and all charitable institutions; concurred in.

H. J. R. for amending constitution: referred, committee on elections.

Returned from printer and read second time, and referred.

H. J. R. same; judiciary committee.

Raley, for Portage railway above the dalles.

Huston for assessment of dogs.

Bancroft, for benefit of education.

Steiwer, incorporating Fossil.

Huston, for punishment for assault.

Bancroft, for protection of railway cars against burglars.

Adjourned at 2:35.

HOUSE—10 A. M. JAN. 12.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

The speaker announced following as house members of joint resolutions.

To visit jetties and the dalles locks: Durham, Nichols, Elmore.

To visit state university, agricultural college and normal school at Monmouth: Lamson, Brown of Douglas, King.

To visit orphans home in Salem and Portland and houses of correction: Myers, Russell, Miller.

The house reconsidered vote by which it passed Northup's amendment to constitution defining right vote at Oregon electors for purpose of amendment, which its author prepared, to make it conform to federal law on subject. Upton moved further amendment that word "male" be struck out and allow all citizens to vote. Ruled out of order.

Northup's amendment was adopted. Daly argued for reference to judiciary. Lost.

Northup's resolution as amended was adopted ayes 35, noes 20.

RESOLUTIONS, ETC.

By Wilkinson that cigarette smoking in the hall of the house be prohibited. Adopted.

By Gill, for joint committee to investigate locks at Oregon City and use of water power at falls. Adopted.

Geer of Clackamas, to memorialize congress to prohibit gambling in futures by passage of the anti-option bill. Adopted.

By Ford, that representatives in congress be instructed to secure an annual appropriation of $500,000 to be expended by war department, to build post roads in the interior of state, and reciting that nearly all public money appropriated by congress are expended at the seaboards and that little or no benefit accrues therefrom to the great inland empire. Adopted.

By Miller, for return of house bill No. 15, to extend bounds of town of Lebanon, to be referred to Linn [illegible]

Sec. 4, Art. 2, so as to hold general elections in state in November instead of June, Ayes 45, noes 10.

By Upton, concurrent resolution providing capitol improvement committee. Adopted. Mr. Upton wants to know why after expending so much money the acoustic properties of the House are so low.

Myers moved that when house adjourned it be to 2 p. m. Monday. Carried.

McEwan, joint memorial alleging scarcity of money, demonetization of silver, and general suffering from scarcity of money and asking speedy adoption of a free silver law. Northup moved reference to Com. on Labor, and that it be printed.

By Geer, concurrent resolution reciting that by voice of the people at last election it had been declared that the McKinley tariff bill was unjust, unconstitutional and a fraud and our financial system a failure, that the President be directed to call an extra session of congress to relieve the poverty of the masses, etc.

Brown, of Morrow, moved it be printed and referred. Geer moved its adoption. Ford said the spirit of the resolution meant one thing, the language another.

He had opposed the party that carried the election and did not want them in power now, nor in four years. Miller, Dem., said he was pleased to see a prominent Republican calling for the repeal of the McKinley law. Bishop said all knew that the Democrats would not deliver the goods promised in their platforms and this was buncombe. Ford said there was no sense in hurrying the Democrats up to do something that Republicans did not want done.

Moved to adjourn, ayes 22, noes 28. Lost. Moved to table; lost. Manley moved to make special order. No second. The previous question was ordered and the question being taken to vote stood ayes 27, noes 29.

Adjourned.

SENATE—FORENOON.

Courtesies were extended to Messrs Hyde and Slater.

Reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

SENATE BILLS.

By Dodson, to provide times and places to hold court in the 6th judicial district. Read second time and referred to senators of the 6th judicial district.

By Looney, to prevent the sale of unwholesome food.

Cogswell presented two petitions asking for increased appropriations for the O. N. G.

By Cameron, to amend code raising fees of sheriffs in Eastern Oregon.

By Butler, to amend code, effecting certain county officers.

By Denny, to allow married women to convey real estate without husband's consent.

By Maxwell, to incorporate Tillamook city.

By Denny, to regulate incorporated building and loan associations.

By Smith, to amend code, relating to killing live stock by railroad.

By Dodson, to amend code effecting Baker and Morrow counties.

Courtesies were extended to Hon. Jno. R. McBride.

By Steiner, to create the county of Stockman.

By Vanderburg, to amend incorporation of Marchfield.

By Bancroft, to provide to issue bond for city improvements.

By Cross, to appoint lumber and log inspectors.

By Dodson, to amend code, effecting leins on mining claims.

By Maxwell, to provide for an additional term of circuit court in Tillamook county.

By Dodson, for the relief of Baker county.

By Willis, relating to legislative clerk, prohibiting the employment of ladies as clerks.

By Willis, to amend code, on incorporation of churches, and benevolent societies.

By Willis, to provide for the improvement of the harbor of the Columbia.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Maxwell, that committees be appointed to examine books of the military board. Adopted.

By Alley, to change the channel at the mouth of the Siuslaw river, appealing for further assistance from congress. Adopted.

By Cross, providing that no one person shall hold more than one committee clerkship in the senate. Adopted.

By Cross, instructing the secretary of state to show what pay sheriffs and district attorneys of Oregon have received in the past four years.

The president announced as a committee to visit the Orphan's home, Senators Hodson and Vanderburg.

Senate adjourned until Monday at 2 p. m.

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Sillsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

Article of Merit

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall she took Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seemed surprising what one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite is also better. From experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits." A. A. WILLIAMS.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Weekly is acknowledged as standing first among illustrated weekly periodicals in America. It occupies a place between that of the hurried daily paper and that of the less timely magazine. It includes both literary and news, and presents with equal force and felicity the real events of current history and the imaginative themes of fiction. On account of its very complete series of illustrations of the World's Fair, it will be not only the best guide to the great exposition, but also its best souvenir. Every public event of general interest will be fully illustrated in its pages. Its contributions being from the best writers and artists in the country, it will continue to excel in literature, news, and illustrations, all other publications of its class.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Bazar is a journal for the home. It gives the fullest and latest information about fashions, and its numerous illustrations, Paris designs and pattern-sheet supplements are indispensable alike to the home dress-maker and the professional modiste. No expense is spared to make its artistic attractiveness of the highest order. Its bright stories, amusing comedies, and thoughtful essays satisfy all tastes, and its last page is famous as a budget of wit and humor. In its weekly issues everything is included which is of interest to women. The serials for 1893 will be written by Walter Besant and Edna Lyall. Christine Terhune Herrick will furnish a practical series, entitled "At the Toilet." Grace King, Olive Thorne Miller, and Candace Wheeler will be frequent contributors. The work of women in the Columbian Exposition will be fully represented with many illustrations. T. W. Higginson, in "Women and Men," will please a cultivated audience.
