Revolution in Hawaiian.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. Jan. 28 The Hawaiian steamer Claudine at rived here this morning, bringing news of a revolution at Honolule The revolutionists have overturned the Hawailan Government, and United States troops have been land ed. A provisional Government has been established, and a commission headed by Thurston, came on the Claudine, enroute for Wasnington with a petition to the United Stater, to appex the Hawaiian Islands

THE QUEENS PROCLAMATION. The Queen attempted on Saturday January 15th, to promulgate a new constitution, depriving foreigners of the right of franchise and abrogating the existing house of nobles at the same time giving her the power of appointing a new house. This was resisted by the foreign element o the community, who at once appoin ed a committee of safety of thirtee members, who called a mass meet ing of their class at which twelve o fifteen hundred were present. That meeting unanimously adopted resc lutions condemning the action of th Queen, and authorizing the commit tee to take into further consideration whatever was necessary to protect public safety. They did so and or ganized a provisional government on the Tuesday following.

INDEPENDENCE ESTABLISHED. They at once issued a proclama tion, reciting the arrogance of the queen, giving the broken promises of Her Majesty, detailing the wrongs inflicted on residents of the Hawaiian Islands, and saying: "We the free list. are organized and acting for the public safety and common good d thereby proclaim as follows First, the Hawallan Monarchial System of Government is hereby covernment for the control management of public affairs, and the protection of the public peace is hereby established, to exist until terms of union with the United Hintes of America have been negotiated and are acted upon."

THE QUEEN SURRENDERS. The old government surrendered without striking a blow, though it had about 400 men under arms and a battery of gattling guns. The new government then notified the foreign representatives of the change in government, and asked recognition. It was at once granted by all powers but England. The Ex-Queen has retired to her private residence at Washington Place. No difficulty te apprehended on the other islands. Charles L. Carter, one of the Commissioners to Washington appointed by the Provisional Government at Hawall, made the following stateto the Associated Press object of our visit Washington is to have the United States take possession of the Hawaiian Islands. We want to join the Union not as a state, however, but under a territorial or district form of government; a government like that of the District of Columbia, with the ddition of a governor appointed by the president, is preferrable for many There is such a large numof Chivese and other cheap labor a the islands, who cannot be trusted vote intelligently, that, if univer-I suffrage is declared, those who a almost the entire business to of the country would be WAVERLY, Kans., Jan. 28 - Yesterday, as Cashler Duvall and As sistant Converse, were balancing the books, preparatory to closing men entered and covered them with revolvers, One of the men eeded to rob the cash drawers and had gone into the vault when man entered to make a deposit seeing the situation, the robbers fled. After mounting their horses one of the highwayman turned in his saddle and fired, instantly kill ing A. P. Ingleman. A general fusillade followed, without damage to either side, the robbers escaping to the westward. A mounted posse was hurriedly organized and overtook the men two miles from Lebo where another fight occurred, and the robbers only surrendered when their horses were shot down and their ammunition exhausted. They only secured $500.

THE PANAMA SCANDAL.

Employed.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.-In relation o the conference of the proposed investigation by congress of the American end of the Panama canal scandal, a morning paper prints the following from its Washington corre-

"No American has been mor rominent in urging the construction of a canal across Central America than Rear-Admiral Daniel Ammen. Admiral Ammen was mentioned in the interview of ex-Secre tary of the Navy R. W. Thompson some days ago, as one of those who appeared before the house committee on foreign relations January 11. when the committee refused to invoke the Monroe doctrine against the French encroachments in Panagulch 25 feet below and disappeared ma. No arrests published January 23, is gratifying in the statement that 500 cars were built in Indiaua, and dredges, locomotives and other machinery were paid for out of $12,000,000 sent to this country, which Charles de Lessesps was reported as saying had spent. Let us hope in justice to Colonel Thompson as head of the American Panama canal syndicate and his associates, that Charles de Lesseps will correct his statement TO REPRESS MONROE DOCTRINE.

" 'Colonel Tompson errs in supposing that I appeared before the foreign affair committee of the house to argue the validity of the Monroe doctrine, as against the Panama canal. Looking over the question of bribery, in which Colonel Tomp son sees no possible motive other than to repress the Monroe doctrine resolutions, I would suggest another possibility which has escaped his acumen. At that time the Maritime Canal Company, of Nicaragua, holding very liberal concessionsfar more so than that held by De Lesseps at Panama-was endeavoring to obtain simply an act of incorporation from congress without guarantees, and was unable to do so passed a bill creating the county of in all the period of the excitement Fremont out of the northern por- of the concession, which had an extension of time and finally expired by limitation. He had too the bill was referred has prepared a many friends in the United States

A STRANGE FACT.

" 'It is a curious fact, as stated be fore, that the Maritime Canal company, of Nicaragua, then holding mercially practicable and superior to any other route known, could ever obtain a single act of incorporation, even when shorn of any guarantee. I recall this fact to the memory of Colonel Thompson, who Washington special says: "The doubtless has forgotten all about it, Press correspondent has the best au- after such a lapse of time. ESTIMATES OF BLAINE.

Cabinet Members Speak His Fatal Resignation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 28. Secretary of State Foster: In diplomacy his chief characteristic ras his exalted Americanism. His reputation abroad will mainly rest upon his nets as secretary of state, and it is no exaggeration in saying that in the past ten years, at least, he has been the best known Amerlean in foreign lands. Secretary of Treasury Foster: His coreer has been one of leadership and without doubt he possessed the confidence, respect, and affection of vast majority of the American people more than any other man of his time. His fame is world wide Attorney General Miller:-With reference to Blaine it may be truly said that his failure to be president was an accident. At the funeral of Daniel Webster, one of his neigh bors, looking on the face of the dead Was the Money Purnished Usefully statesman, said; "Daniel Webster, the world will be lovesome without you." The same may be said with propriety of James G. Blaine.

Secretary Tracy-Blaine, with the possible exception of Henry Clay, Farma, Is., 10 a tp 7 s 2 w, $600. was the most brilliant statesman and political leader the country has ever produced.

Secretary Noble-James G. Blaine neld the attention and commanded the respect of his country to an exraordinary degree, more, I think, han any other political leader since Lincoln or Clay. His critics will not be in this country. Secretary Elkins-Blaine was one

f the greatest statesman and politcal leaders that the country ever produced, and the most conspicuous aders of his time. Postmaster General Wanamker said: Pennsylvania may be proud of her brilliant son. Cleverer than Henry Clay and as eloquent as Daniel Webster.

Secretary Rusk said:-I have no esitation in saying that in many espects Blaine outranked any of his contemporaries, and none wielded greater influence in shaping the ortune of the Republican party.

A gentleman who was intimately asociated with Blaine said that at 12 o'clock of the day on which Blaine's resignation was given out, he had no idea of resigning from the cabinent. At that hour be went home and found that some one had marked a number of interviews which had been telegraphed from Minneapolis and printed in several papers. They accused Blaine with betraying President Harrison and with using his place in the cabnet as a cover for a conspiracy to defeat the president and secure the nomination. The interviews wound up by declaring that Blaine was not an able man, or he would have resigned from the cabinet. Under the heat of indignation over these interviews Blaine wrote his resignation, and he has since told his friends that there were never but two occasions of difference between himself and President Harrison, and that they had been fully explained and satisfactorily settled.

Honors to Blaine. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 28.-In he opening prayer, in the house, the chaplain referred to the death of Blaine in feeling and spmpathetic terms. Then, amid profound silence, Milliken, Republican member from Maine, who represents Blaine's old district, rose and said: "It becomes my sad duty to announce to the house the death of James G Blaine, for fourteen years a prominent and leading member of the

Throughout his long timess he has been able to recognize his family and his physicians, While he has not with his family for some time past, he has been always able to indicate his wants very clearly. To questions asked him, he always replied I stelligently but in monosyllables.

Dr. Johnson said further that there had been really no hope of Blaine's recovery since the sinking spell in December. Until within two or three weeks there was a strong hope that life might be prolonged, but since then there has been no hope and practically nothing has been done except to give mourishment.
