

BLAINE'S FUNERAL

The Homage of the Waiting Thousands. THE GREAT STATESMAN LAID AT REST

The Hawaiian Annexation Problem. WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Blaine could not have a private funeral. The surging wave of public interest swept over the barriers and made his private funeral one of the most impressive public demonstrations.

Details of the Funeral. WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The body of the late ex-Secretary Blaine was removed last night to the parlour on the north side of the second floor of the residence. During the afternoon and evening a number of friends called and took a last look upon the face of the dead.

The state of Maine sent a delegation of 14, headed by Governor H. Cleaves; Massachusetts had a delegation of five members. The Union League Club, of New York, sent 25 members to represent the organization, and the Union League Club, of Philadelphia, 20.

As the hour for services arrived mourners, including members of the family, were grouped around the casket, delivered in low tones the Presbyterian service for the dead, Walter Damrosch in the meantime touching the keys of the piano to music of a slow dirge.

Laid at Rest. The funeral procession arrived at 12 noon. Services at the home as simple as at the funeral home. The casket was carried to the cemetery and laid at rest.

wailan islands, is called at this time. The pro-American congress met in October, 1899, or about that time, Blaine discovered that Hawaii had not been included in the countries invited to participate, and he spoke to the executive officer of congress about the omission.

IN THE SENATE. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 30.—In the senate Chandler, of New Hampshire, offered a resolution requesting the president to enter into negotiations with the provisional of the Hawaiian islands for admission of the islands as a territory, and to lay the convention before congress for ratification by legislation.

Cleveland's Administration. NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—A morning paper quotes a New York Democrat of national reputation, with whom Cleveland talked frankly about his plans, as saying that Cleveland looks on the silver issue as a paramount one in politics, superior even to the tariff, and to be the first matter to be settled by his administration.

Cleveland is astonished that certain congressmen after visiting him to urge high federal appointments should return to Washington and endeavor not only to prevent the repeal of the Sherman law but even to work hard to pass free coinage.

Fire Works Explosion. CINCINNATI, Ohio, Jan. 30.—An explosion occurred this morning in the large fire works factory of Diehl & Co. Reading, this county, this morning, wrecking almost the entire place. Of 50 employes, all seen since are more or less injured.

NEW HOME RULE SCHEME

An Outline of the New Bill Before Parliament. LONDON, Jan. 30.—The following is the synopsis of the new Irish home rule. It declares there shall be established in Ireland, a legislature consisting of the queen and an Irish legislative body, empowered to make, amend and repeal laws for peace, order, and good government in Ireland.

When Oehlschlager finished the coroner asked him to sign his statement. He replied, "I cannot write." The statement was signed by the clerk and Oehlschlager made his mark, which was witnessed by Mr. Lafferty.

THE MURDERER'S CONFESSION. "I had a bottle of whisky and Woolridge had a bottle of port wine when we left Nell's saloon," he said. "When crossing the bridge we quarreled over the whisky, and the old man hit me with a thin stick, breaking the handle of my basket. I got mad and hit him with a stick I carried.

W. H. Woolridge lived in Portland about 17 years. He came to the Northwest 25 years ago, and was a soldier at Vancouver barracks for a number of years. He was 46 years old, married and leaves 10 children.

There is an entirely new clause, which gives the crown the right to veto all bills of the Irish legislature and gives the Irish representative peers the right to sit in the house of lords at Westminster and vote on all imperial questions.

THE PORTLAND MURDER. Oehlschlager Confesses Killing the Grand Army Man. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—Frank Oehlschlager is the confessed murderer of William Henry Woolridge. The crime was committed between 9 and 10 o'clock Friday night while the men were crossing what is known as the double bridge, about six miles west of this city.

His Second Story. Frank Oehlschlager was called upon for an explanation. He said he worked on his father's farm, beyond Fulton, and was 23 years of age. His story conflicted some what with the one he told young Woolridge. He said that himself and the murdered man were walking home together and conversing about a tree which had recently fallen.

Sculling Race. LONDON, Jan. 30.—The great international sculling race, between George Bute, the English champion, and George Hosmer, of Boston, was won today by Bute, by five lengths. The race was for the champion of England.

ODDS AND ENDS

Tale university has 1,969 students. Women put too much confidence in pins. A good credit is often as useful as a good bank account.

Electric omnibuses are to be introduced on Liverpool street in London. The best work of Paisiello was composed while that genius was in bed.

Allegories are fine ornaments and good illustrations, but not proof.—Luther. The soul moving accordion was invented by Damian, of Vienna, in 1839.

Denistis bury in human teeth about 1,800 pounds of gold a year in the United States. Franz Sigel, the jolly German general, was familiarly known as "Dutchy" among his soldiers.

Why Mustelins "Tune Up." A correspondent asks, "Why do musicians tune their instruments after instead of before coming into the orchestra?"

It is a mistake to imagine there is no tuning of the instruments before coming into the orchestra. Violinists, double bass players and viols (if professionals or good amateurs) keep their instruments, as a rule, up to concert pitch, the difference of temperature, the loosening of a peg or variation in the tension of the strings necessitating another tuning when in the orchestra.

Concert weather, experience both conditions. Hence so much tuning and playing as soon as in the orchestra is necessary to get the instruments accustomed to the temperature of the room.

Grandmother's Advice. To raise a family of wise children, and to keep them from being spoiled, the mother should give them the following advice: "Be good, be true, be kind, be brave, be honest, be clean, be industrious, be obedient, be respectful, be generous, be patient, be forgiving, be cheerful, be helpful, be loving, be kind, be true, be good."

Freashish Actions of a Spring. The greatest curiosity in West Virginia and one of the most wonderful freaks known in the south is a spring at Northfield—that is, it is located at Northfield during two months of the year and at some other place during the other ten months.

MARKETS. PORTLAND, Jan. 28.—Wheat $1.15, Walla Walla, $1.05 @ $1.07. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—Wheat, May 1.33. CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—Wheat, 73c.

Pain Relief-Inflicted. This is supposed to be an age of enlightenment. Yet the hair civilized persistence with which the people keep dosing themselves on small quantities of drugs, which are in a measure doing curative, which in a measure do not.

ALL CORPORATION LAWYERS

Under the head of news from Washington the Salem Democrat says: "A Democrat will be appointed by Cleveland to be Judge Brady's successor. Among those mentioned for the place are S. S. Mearns, S. B. Cox and C. B. Belonger."

All railroad attorneys are capable of looking after the corporation interests. It seems the people are to have nothing but big corporation lawyers for judges under Cleveland.

Conscience, or What? "Conscience doth make cowards of us all," says the poet. But it is just as well to have a conscience, for a man's nerves are unstrung, through indigestion and torpid liver and impure blood, what wonder that he starts at every little unexpected sound; is afraid of his shadow, and feels like a fool. Let such a man go to the drug store and get a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great Blood-purifier and Liver Invigorator guaranteed to benefit or cure, or money will be promptly refunded. It cures indigestion, or Dyspepsia, and from its wonderful blood-purifying properties, conquers all skin and scalp diseases, such as Eczema, Tetter, Kozema and kidney ailments. All blood-poisons, no matter of what name or nature, yield to its remedial influences.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged.

Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BE DISAPPOINTED. As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., it hardly ever fails. It is a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.
