CLARKSON OBJECTS.

Shows Bitter Feeling Against the President for Appointing Jackson.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The Press says Hon. James S. Clarkson, chairman of the national Republican committee, said to a Press reporter:

"In my judgment the act of President Harrison in appointing to the supreme bench, especially at this exceedingly critical juncture in national affairs, a Southern state rights, free trade, anti-pension Democrat, and an unrecreated believer in the secession theory, is a betrayal of public trust and party faith. Indeed, it's the most serious blunder in party politics which President Harrison has committed. No president since the foundation of the republic has appointed a man from the opposition party to the supreme bench. It is especially a betrayal of party interest at the present time when the Democrats are soon to take possession of every branch of the government except the judiciary. If this appointment is confirmed there will be five Republicans to three Democrats, with two members of the court one over 74 years and the other 72 sure to retire within a year or two. In this case the Democrat appointed by Harrison would provide the Democratic majority for the court, thus putting at peril all the legislation growing out of the war and delivering the court over to the control of men believing in free trade, Southern ideas and prejudices, and opposed to the system of pensions to Union soldiers.

"The president, when he had done this because irritating rumor had said the senate would reject any Republican he should appoint, has proposed a renunciation of Republican principles and makes it possible for the supreme court to become Democratic during Cleveland's term.

"Any Republican senator could with more loyalty to party and honor have voted for Grover Cleveland for four years last November than to vote for Jackson for life now. To vote for him is to approve in cold blood of the abandonment of the wronged and helpless Republicans of the South. It is to approve of the brutal disregards of the rights of all colored men in the South, and the more brutal treatment of real or supposed colored criminals in the Southern states who are in these latter years so frequently burned alive or quartered at the stake. The Republican party, which is still living and which is to rule again despite any man's disappointments, may well be saved from the present reproach of enduring historical dishonor, of such an act of perfidy and wrong becoming an accomplished fact."

Completely Uprooted.

How many remedies there are which merely relieve without uprooting disease. The contrast with sterling medicines which such palliatives afford, not only enhances the dignity of the former, but serves to emphasize the folly of employing half way measures when thorough ones are available. A marked instance of this is the effect, on the one hand, of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in a case of chills and fever and bilious remittent, and on the other of ordinary remedies in maladies of this type. By the Bitters, malarial complaint in every stage, and of the most malignant type, are completely conquered and lose their hold upon the system. They are rarely, if ever, dislodged by the ordinary resources of medicine, although their symptoms may be subdued by ... through such means. The same holds good of indigestion, biliousness, kidney complaint, ...

HAWAIIAN ANNEXATION.

Course of the American Minister Sustained

BY SECRETARY OF STATE FOSTER.

The New Government Recognized by England.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Secretary Foster made public the full text of the dispatch announcing the Hawaiian revolution, received by him from Minister Stevens January 28, by telegraph, from San Francisco, in answer to one he had sent to the minister. The information contained in the dispatch sent by Stevens has already been made public, but the reply of Secretary Foster is herewith given for the first time. It is addressed to John L. Stevens, United States minister, Honolulu, and reads:

"Your dispatch telegraphed from San Francisco, announcing the revolution and the establishment of a provisional government, was received today. Your course in recognizing an unopposed de facto government appears to have been discreet and in accordance with the facts. The rule of this government has uniformly been to recognize and enter into relations with any actual government in full possession of effective power with the assent of the people. You will continue to recognize the new government under such conditions. It is trusted that the change, besides conducing to the tranquility and welfare of the Hawaiian islands, will tend to draw closer the intimate ties of amity and common interests which so conspicuously and necessarily link them to the United States. You will keep in constant communication with the commander of the United States naval force at Honolulu with the view to acting, if need be, for the protection of the interests and property of American citizens and aiding in the preservation of good order under the changed condition reported."

Secretary Foster also gave out for publication a statement defending the landing of United States marines at Honolulu.

RECOGNIZED BY THE BRITISH MINISTER.

The official announcement contained in Minister Stevens' dispatch to Secretary Foster, that the representatives of all the foreign governments would recognize the provisional government of Hawaii, is evidently as much a surprise to the commissioners now here as it was to the general public, as it may properly be construed to include the representatives of Great Britain. The commissioners say it is probable that the British minister met the United States minister and communicated verbally to him the information that he had just before notified the officials of the new government of his recognition or that he intended doing so, which gave to Mr. Stevens grounds for the statement contained in the dispatch. The commissioners say they have full power to negotiate a treaty of annexation with the United States, and although they are not officially recognized by the government, yet they are encouraged to believe, from the manner in which they have been treated, that a formal recognition will soon follow.

THE SUGAR INTEREST.

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 4.—Henry T. Oxnard, the beet sugar king of America, who has just returned from Honolulu, in an interview said:

"By the treaties with Hawaii all sugars are admitted duty free. In this manner they really obtained a bounty of 2 cents per pound on every pound of sugar sent to the United States. This 2 cents per pound did not go into the United States treasury, as did the 2 cents on all sugar imported by the United States, but went directly into the pockets of these Hawaiian planters who today are asking the United States to annex the Sandwich islands. If Hawaii were annexed, and they enjoy the same privileges as the American home sugar-producers, it will greatly injure the new American industry of beet sugar, which is just beginning to develop itself, and which will in a few years, if not stopped by adverse legislation, find a home in every state in the Union from the Atlantic to the Pacific. They have a strong lobby at Washington, but I do not believe, if only from an economic standpoint, the United States will want to burden itself with a territory which has already cost us over $50,000,000 and from the United States treasury to the pockets of the Hawaiian government, otherwise known as the Hawaiian sugar planters. Annexation or nothing is the motto. The reason is evident, for a protectorate would not give them what they are really seeking—money from the United States treasury."

THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE—FEB. 6—FORENOON.

At first roll call but 17 senators answered to their names, and the sergeant-at-arms was instructed to gather in all the straggling members to be captured within the confines of the state house. After an absence of about five minutes the officer returned, having in his custody Senators Gates and Raley. This made only 19 in number, and the sergeant was dispatched on another crusade. Meanwhile the stillness of a tomb prevaded the chamber, it only being broken now and again by the fresh, statesmanlike humor of Senators Meyers, Cogswell, Blackman, Butler and Alley. This levity was speechlessly frowned upon by President Fulton.

At about 10:45 the sergeant-at-arms returned empty handed, and Senator Raley moved to adjourn for the purpose of attending to committee meeting, which was carried. Senator Cogswell's motion to convene at 1:30 p. m. also prevailed.

The absent senators were Beckley, Crosno, Cross, Hayes, Hirsch, Huston, Looney, Mattock, McGinn, Veatch and Weatherford.

The house assembled at 2 p. m.

Perils of Modern Life.

Contacts with eletric wires, railroad accidents, broken car and elevator cables, explosions of steam, natural gas and chemicals, poisons in adulterated food and drinks; are a few; but all these dangers combined do not kill as rapidly as slow and sure Consumption. The death rate, however, from Consumption, is being yearly cut down since Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y. has given to the world his celebrated "Golden Medical Discovery," a cure for consumption and throat and lung troubles that lead consumption, if taken in time and given a fair trial. The time to cure consumption (which is really nothing more or less than Lung-scrofula), is in the first stages. A cough generally sounds the alarm and you should take the "Discovery" at once. There is a time when it is too late.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

Scrofula Humor

"Until my boy was six years of age he was from birth a terrible sufferer from scrofula. Sores would appear on him and spread until as Large as a Dollar and then discharge, followed by others, so that the larger part of his body was one mass of sores all the time, especially severe on his legs and back of his ears and on his head. The humor had a very offensive odor, and caused

Intense Itching

We cannot tell how that poor boy suffered. Physicians did not effect a cure. At last I decided to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla. In about two weeks the Sarsaparilla began to have effect. The sores commenced to heal up; the flesh began to look more natural and healthy. Then the scales came off and all over his body new and healthy flesh and skin formed. When he had taken two bottles he was entirely free from sores, having only the scars to show where they had been. These have all disappeared. We are unable to express our thanks for the good has done our little boy." HARRY K. RUBY, Box 356, Columbia, Pennsylvania.

A SHORT FABLE FOR MEN.

An Imaginative Conversation That Might Have Taken Place.

Once there was a widower left with three children who concluded instead of rewiving to take a bachelor brother to superintend his house and be as far as he could a house parent to the little ones.

"If you come to me," says widower John, "I will do as well by you as I did by Mary. You shall reign supreme in my home, and I will lay my fortune at your feet."

"Fortune; where is it?" says innocent bachelor William. "Will you make it over to me in writing?"

"I mean," says John, explaining, "that I will provide the table liberally, dress you handsomely, get you meerschaums and canes and generally do my best to make you happy."

"But that wouldn't do," says bachelor William. "I have never been considered extravagant in my habits, but I can imagine desires to arise which neither meerschaums, canes, nor unlimited credit at my tailor's would wholly cover."

"Oh, don't be afraid," says the widower kindly. "If you learn how to coax as well as Mary did, you will get no end of odd change to spend in your little vanities. You are my youngest brother, and I have always been fond of you. Just 'lay your sweet hands in mine and trust to me.'"

"It wouldn't do," says William; "it would kill my self respect. I would rather have $50 a month at my own disposal than $500 dribbled out to me for the asking."

"I am disappointed in you, brother," said the kind widower. "I had thought that there was such a beautiful fraternal relation between us that you would be above caring which of us held the money. Mary didn't mind."

"Are you so sure of that?" said the bachelor brother, thoughtfully.—Working Woman's Journal.

For All Good Citizens to Heed.

We have before us the annual report of Mr. Lovegrove, surveyor to the board of works for the Hackney district. Among the special points touched on in the report we find a comment on the disfigurement of the streets by loose paper, a nuisance which in many districts of London requires checking with a strong hand. Mr. Lovegrove says: "The sources of supply are loose paper from hoardings; tradesmens' circulars received by passersby only to be thrown in the road, and often scattered by handfuls from a cart driving rapidly along the streets, also thrown away by tradesmen and street hawkers." Men are employed, at the cost of the ratepayers, in clearing away much of this, but shortly after clearance the street is as full of paper again. It is observed at the dust cart shoot that often one-third of the load consists of paper. In some districts the dustmen are ordered not to take paper, this coming under the head of articles which ought to be burned in the house. Some stringent legislation on this subject seems necessary, though it must be admitted there might be difficulty in applying it.—London Builder.

Mustache Dye Taken Internally.

Having been appointed a ward detective he bought a gallon of black dye for his mustache. The man he bought it from was a basement barber, who was just going to enter into an explanation of how it should be applied, when the detective waved him off, saying that he knew.

After three weeks he returned to the barber shop for another gallon. His mustache looked quite as red as when he started.

"I mean to keep at it" he said, "though it seems a little hopeless. I suppose some mustaches dye faster than others. I've been drinking a tablespoonful in water three times a day. Guess I'll have to double the dose."—New York Herald.

Jews, Not Hebrews.

The word Hebrew now has but one meaning, and that is a dead language. We are Jews because we are adherents of the Jewish religion. Our religion is the only mark of distinction between us and other citizens of this country.

There is an impression in the minds of many non Jews, and even some Jews, that it is courtesy to call us Hebrews, thus implying that there is some stigma attached to the name of Jew. We are Jews, not Hebrews or Israelites.—Jewish Tidings.

Doesn't Like Her Own Photographs.

Miss Ellen Terry has no fancy for seeing herself depicted in different characters, and no portraits of this kind adorn her walls. "It is enough," she says, "to see my photos scattered about the house of a friend of mine. It really made me quite wretched the last time I was there. There I was, weeping in her bedroom and mad in her dining room, and in her parlor I was actually dying in three different positions."—New York Sun.

A Troublesome Age.

"Goodness me, Wallace," cried his uncle, "you are getting to be a big fellow. Nearly eight now, aren't you?"

"Guess so," said Wallace. "Papa says I'm worse than a dozen."—Harper's Young People.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Weekly is acknowledged as standing first among illustrated weekly periodicals in America. It occupies a place between that of the hurried daily paper and that of the less timely magazine. It includes both literary and news, and presents with equal force and felicity the real events of current history and the imaginative themes of fiction. On account of its very complete series of illustrations of the World's Fair, it will be not only the best guide to the great exposition, but also its best souvenir. Every public event of general interest will be fully illustrated in its pages. Its contributions being from the best writers and artists in the country, it will continue to excel in literature, news, and illustrations, all other publications of its class.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Bazar is a journal for the home. It gives the latest and latest information about fashions, and its numerous illustrations, Paris designs, and pattern-sheet supplements are indispensable alike to the home dress-maker and the professional modiste. No expense is spared to make its artistic attractiveness of the highest order. Its bright stories, amusing comedies, and thoughtful essays satisfy all tastes, and its last page is famous as a budget of wit and humor. In its weekly issues everything is included which is of interest to women. The serials for 1893 will be written by Walter Besant and Edna Lyall. Christine Terhune Herrick will furnish a practical series, entitled "At the Toilet." Grace King, Olive Thorne Miller, and Candace Wheeler will be frequent contributors. The work of women in the Columbian Exposition will be fully represented with many illustrations. T. W. Higginson, in "Women and Men," will please a cultivated audience.
