THE MODERN KNIGHT ERRANT.

In days of chivalry the Christian knight-errap thied him forth, whatever did battle needlessly and for unworthy ceived yesterday by Lord Salisbury. people but never from an unworthy The object of the delegation was to motive. He might be imposed upon in his sallies of righteous indignation, but he was never moved to strike the erring for the mere love of afflicting punishment.

Not so our modern knight-errant, and often Christian at that. One in mind, who wields a pen with mighty force, though he conceals the weapon beneath an elegant classical drapery, deals powerful blows for the apparent love of dealing them, upon any head in sight and which presents a fair and de tenseless front. He lays about him, a true knight-errant, generally errant to a considerable extent, and like the true son of Erin at Tipperary fair, he gets in to the indecent haste with which the his blows for the mere love of fighting.

He cannot see a brother expose his shining, theological pate, bald enough with error to be sure, but down comes his cudgel with a resounding thwack, It matters not that he acts a little un gracious in all his encounters, so long as there is a chance to fight. Seest thou not, brother editor, this is unchristian conduct. Hold back thy lance, curb thy charger, and sally forth in true chivalric style to rescue the oppressed, to right the wronged, but, forget thy miserable babit of hitting for hitting's sake.

WILLAMETTE NOTES.

Dr. Whitaker was called to Portland Monday to see Bishop Goodsell.

The Philidorians debated, "Resolved that Hawaii should be annexed to the United States" on Friday night.

The Philldorians had a photograph taken Friday to be sent to the World's Fair. Also photographs of all students will be included in our exhibit.

Prof. Scriber's juvenile entertainment on March 4th, was a new and pleasant The current history class are deeply interested in the new administration and in analyzing the forces that dominate it, and its probable policy by study ing its members.

Prof. Cochran has been determining the latitude and longitude of that platform in the west campus by means of our new $1000 instrument.

Miss Edith Gwynne read a pretty essay on "Launching the Ship," Monday. Miss Henry recited a very humorous poem, "Patrict Mercy Jones," on Wednesday. J. R. Hume, the senior for the year '93 read a very satisfactory cassy, being a resume of what is known about the Mound Builders on Friday.

Tuesday at chapel Dr. Whitaker awarded to I. P. Callison the prize of $10 offered by Dr. J. C. Griffith for the best Columbian essay on the subject "The material and educational resourses of Oregon."

Buffalo Wants the Match.

BUFFALO, March 11. - The scheme to secure the great Corbett-Mitchell contest for Buffalo has taken a tangible form, and a provisional lease of the exposition building, which will seat 20,-000 people has been secured. A meeting will be held tomorrow, when it is likely certain propositions will be sub-mitted to the Buffalo Athletic Club to have the contest come off under its auspices. If this club refuses to accept the responsibility, the Eric County Athletic Club may be revived for the purpose. The scheme to bring the contest here has taken a firm hold, and cuarantees of funds sufficient to outbid all other competitors are already assured. Whether the authorities would mit the contest is another question, sat so far little opposition is evinced.

A Solid Knock-down Blow.

A solid Knock-down Blow.

The whale blows water while at play:
Trees blow in every clime:
The sweetest flowers blow in May.
But wind blows all the time.

There's lots of blowing in this world.
Sufferers from catarrh blow their moses, and quacks blow about their "cures."
Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is the only infallible one. Its proprietors back up this claim by offering $500 for every made they fail to cure permanently raise is an unanswerable blow at humburgery, coming from men of sterling aguitation and ample capital. The German Parliament Refuses More Soldiers.

LONDON, March 11.-A large delegation of merchants, bankers and shipperformance that may imply, succoring owners from Dublin and other places the afflicted and righting the wronged in Leinster, and also from the provinces wherever he might find them. He often of Munster and Connaught, were reshow there was a strong opposition to home rule in other parts of Ireland beside Ulster. Salisbury was assisted in receiving the delegation by Hon. A. J. Balfour, Lord Randolph Churchill and Right Hon, C. J. Goschen. The members of the delegation spoke in strong and earnest language of the disaster to the business interests which they pre dicted would follow the creation of a separate government for Ireland. It was also mentioned that Gladstone had refused to receive the delegation. Salisbury expressed surprise that this should have been done. The refusal, Salisbury added, was doubtless owing government was pushing this bill for he separation of Ireland from the United Kingdom before it was possible to have the measure duly considered. Salisbury urged the delegation and all other loyal subjects of her majesty in Ireland to keep up their courage. He said there were signs of a healthy change in public opinion, Balfous followed Salisbury in addressing the delegation. He said the hardship to the people of Ireland in adopting a separation policy would be that the comparative poverty which now prevailed there would thereby increase, and become worse until even bankruptcy would result throught capital being driven from the country. Lord Randolph Churchill spoke in language equally pronounced as to the disastrous results to be anticipated from separation, and Mr. Goschen expressed strong forebodings of a financial and industrial calamity to Ireland, as the outcome of the success of Gladstone's scheme.

Battle in Honduras.

PANAMA, March 11.-News has been received from Honduras confirming the report of a battle near Teteguciagalpa. Further reports indicate that cause. Ex-President Leiva is in no danger as he remains neutral. Expresident Bogran has sided with the government and will aid the minister of war, General Pasquez. Rosendo Aguero, secretary of state under Leiva, has been proclaimed provisional president by General Pasquez. He was a warm supporier of Bonilla at the last election, and has many friends among the liberals of Honduras. This situation still further complicates matters in the republic. An insurrection is reported in the Gallapagos islands. The residents killed the local Ecuadorean governor, and wounded many of the Drowned While Out Boating. PANAMA, March 11 .- The American colony here is plunged in grief by a most melancholy accident. Mrs. Wilson, daughter of Henry Yehuber, the oldest American resident in Panama, was out boating with Captain Schackford and Miss Wilson. The boat was swamped and the three thrown into the water. Mrs. Wilson was drowned, and Captain Schackford and Miss Wilson rescued. The body of Mrs. Wilson was recovered.

The Withdrawn Treaty.

ATCHISON, Kas., March 11.-Exenator Ingalis says he is glad to nee President Cleveland exercise some sense in regard to the Hawaiian affairs by withdrawing the treaty. He C. N. CHURCHILL.

"I hope that he will keep it in his trousers pocket. To take in a lot of valueless islands that we would have to fortify and worry about would be contrary to the principles and tradi-tions of our government. The Hawalian treaty was a great bluuder. Cleveland ought to send a delegation to Hawaii to ascertain the needs of the people and to see to what extent the sugar speculators are responsible the revolution."

The bold thief who a few weeks ago tried to kill Charles Wonnell when the latter refused to quietly submit to seeing his house robbed returned to Wonnell's house about 4 o'clock yesterday morning, and knocking at Mr. Wonnell's window until he was aroused made a proposition to sell the watch secured upon the night of the burglary. Wonnell replied that he couldn't buy the watch them if he wanted to, as he had no money in the house, and added that he did not care to buy the watch

Cold Nerve in a Robber.

"Well," replied the man outside the window, "you will surely give some thing for it. Will you give me ten dollars for it?" Wonnell asked how he knew it was the stolen watch, and was told that a brother knight in Wonnell's lodge, K. of H., had told him that it was, and that it had the proper initials engraved upon it. The man said he had bought the watch, but refused to give his name, saying when asked, "Oh, you wouldn't know me if I told you my name." Wonnell finally told the man that if he would leave the watch at Frank Hosbrook's grocery he (Wonnell) would leave ten dallars at the same place.

The man departed, ant the watch was not left at the grocery. Mr. Wonnell hinks he recognized the voice of his last visitor as that of the burglar, and believes that the proposition to sell the watch was but a ruse to induce him to spen the door, when he would be ever powered and compelled to submit to another robbery.—Indianapolis Journal.

The Love of Domestic Animals. The man who has not music in his soul is justly exposed to the disparagement of the poet, but what shall be said of him who cannot find one dumb ani mal at least on which to bestow care and kindness? Sailors and soldiers have their pets; the feathered, the feline, and the canine creation are universal favor Carriers and draymen are rarely indifferent to the companionship of the four footed friends, and the navvy's dog. while his master is at work in the cutting or on the embankment, sits on his peajacket and guards the bundle containing that midday meal of which, when the toiler returns, the good and faithful servant will have his share. It would be a very dreary and perhaps a wickeder world than it is if we had not animal pets, domestic as well as regimental.—London Telegraph. She Saved a Life.

Maggie Gallagher, a girl employed at Frazard's Woolen mill, near Conshohooken, Pa., saved the life of the wife of her employer. A fire broke out in the Frasard residence, and during the excite-ment it was forgotten that Mrs. Frazard, an invalid, was confined within the burning building. Finally Maggierushed m and carried her out in her arms. The leed was recognized by Mr. Frazard, who immediately made Miss Gallagher forewoman of one of the departments.-

Fountain Head of Strength.

When we recollect that the stomach is the boratory in which food is transformed into the secretions which furnish vigor to the sysem after entering and enriching the blood; that it is, the fountain head of strength, it is essential to keep this important machine in order, and to restore it to activity when it beinactive. This Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does effectually, seasonably, regulating and reinforcing digestion, proting and reinforcing digestion, promoting due action of the liver and bowels. Strength and quietude of the nerves depend in great measure upon thorough digestion. There is no nervine tonic more highly esteemed by the medical fraculty than the bitters. Physiciars also strongly commend it for chilis and fever, rheumatism, kidney and biadder trouble, sick headache, and want of appetite and sleep. Take a wine glassful three times a day.
