DAILY WEATHER PORECAST.

PORTLAND, March 21.-Wednes-

U. S. WEATHER SERVICE.

VAIL DISCHARGED.-Wm. Vall, the man arrested at Lebanon for the murder of John Loveall, was discharged, as there was not sufficient if any evidence against him. Vall was one of the men who found Loveall after the murder. Two brothers were on coroner's jury. The $300 reward will probably cause several arrests. Every man in the vicinity seen with money will be suspected. A Lebanon man says that a dozen different men are watched, and each one did it. There is a law providing for levying of the costs of suits unneceswitness, and it would not be a bad idea to apply it occasionally. Murder is a terrible offense; but it is also a big offence to be accused of murder on mere suspicion without evidence to back it. Every effort to secure the guilty man in this aggravated case is commendable but there should be some reliable evi dence before arrest.-Albany Demo-
