DAILY WEATHER FORECAST.

PORTLAND, March 27.—Monday fair followed by rain. Tuesday rain. U. S. WEATHER SERVICE.

THE DECORATIVE ART.—It is by no means a truism that every paper hanger is a decorator and combine the various colors and shades so that they are attractive and beautiful. But with the elegant stock and good taste of Hawks & Levar, 97 State street the public has been more than satisfied and the liberal patronage they have received already shows that they had in their line of business. Before you make final arrangements for work of this character call and examine their stock and prices and you will save money by so doing besides getting your work done in a manner which will not fall of meeting your expectation and approval.

THE RIGHT TITLE.—A young lady writes to the sporting editor of the JOURNAL as to what is the proper term in which to address a parent. She says a number of her young lady friends refer to their elders as "paw," and "maw." Others call them "papa," and "mama." Another style is "poppa" and "momma." Still others call their progenitors "pappy," and "mummy." If you would say it right, dear young friend, use the French accent, and say "pa-pa," and "ma-ma," in soft and syllable. It would be perfectly proper to call them father and mother.

THE STOVE WORKS.—The new foundry and stove works in Depot addition is nearing completion. Howard the house-mover and boss erectionist is today putting in position the cupola and smokestack. What Howard cannot erect with safety in the way of tall towers and dangerously high structures of wood or iron no one else need undertake. The plucky managers of the stove works when they could not get a subsidy they went right ahead and put in their plant on their own strength and resources. Win or fall they will be respected for it and such men usually do not fall.

TONIGHT, TONIGHT.—A grand Woman's Relief Corps social this Monday evening at 7:30 at Grand Army hall. Messrs. Wenger and Kundert will sing, as will Misses Knight, Hutton and Layson. Supper and dance with an excellent program. Admission 25 cents.

ALWAYS WITH YE.—John Star, formerly of Salem, writes to the JOURNAL from Boise, Idaho, that there are hundreds of men in that place who would be glad to work for their board. There are some of those people in Oregon.

MISS PINKHAM'S

GRAND MILLINERY OPENING

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

March 28th and 29th, afternoons and evenings. Ladies and gentlemen invited to see the handsomest stock ever in Salem.

109 Court Street.

BOY NEARLY SCALPED.

Run Over by a Cart and His Head Gashed Open.

A nine year old son of Richard Campbell, carpenter, residing at corner Lee and Berry streets, was run over by a dog cart Sunday evening, between 5 and 6 o'clock, cutting his head severely. Dr. Jessup was called and by 7 o'clock had dressed the wound, taking thirteen stitches, the cut extending nearly from ear to ear, and being seven and one-half inches long across the middle of the forehead. The wound was opened two inches wide at the center.

Two boys were playing with a cart, and pulling the other down a hill when the accident happened. The boy hurt was riding and fell off, the wheel striking him, and glancing off. The little fellow stood the operation bravely and is resting well.

REED'S OPERA HOUSE—Thursday March 30th, John F. Sheridan. This celebrated comedian, who is the only one upon the stage that has traveled and performed in all countries of the globe that are habitable, is now making a tour of the United States after an absence of several years. Mr. Sheridan will be seen in his famous character of Widow O'Brien in that sterling and original farce comedy, "A Night on the Bristol." Mr. Sheridan is supported by an exceedingly large company of players, including artists of rare reputation from England, Australia and this country as well. Among them will be noticed Miss Blanche Siegrist, the famous Parisian vocalist and danseuse; Miss Gracie Whiteford, the queen of soubrettes; Miss Fannie Liddiard, optic prima donna; Messrs. Marion and Post, eccentric and grotesque dancers; the Yum-Ki-Poo troupe of Japanese dancers; also numerous specialties by members of this large and talented company.

TAKE A PAPER.—A newspaper in public places has become in a way public property. Copies found in reading rooms, public libraries, public offices and barber shops are to be read by any one at will. But when persons go habitually to sponger their reading of a daily paper, it is little better than petty larceny. It is meaner, for the petty thief usually steals because of actual want, but the newspaper swiper who steals his reading does it to save five cents a day at some other man's expense. He always takes a paper as the highwayman takes up a collection.

UNCLE GEORGE LEFT.—Pendleton Tribune: Hon. George W. Webb expected to accompany the governor and party from La Grande to Elgin Monday, but only got as far as Island City. When the train stopped at the latter station Uncle George alighted and entered the depot, where he remained scarcely a minute. When he again returned to the platform he was amazed to see the train nearly half a mile away. It is very seldom that the ex-state treasurer gets left, but this time was an exception.

VERY ILL.—Dayton Herald: Mrs. Dr. B. F. Swick on Wednesday, received a telegram from her sister, Mrs. Dearborn of Salem, containing the information that A. R. Flint, their father, was much worse, and requesting Mrs. Swick to go to Salem. She went up on the boat Thursday. It will be remembered Mr. Flint was paralyzed several weeks since, from the effects of which he is now suffering.

NEW FAMILY.—Silverton Appeal: Jacob Baur, an old resident of this neighborhood has sold his farm on Drift creek and will move his family to Salem this week, where they will stay until the weather settles when they will visit their children and friends in California and the East, returning to Oregon in the fall.

CITY HALL.—A citizen says: There is undoubtedly a scheme on foot to work off a $100,000 city hall on Salem taxpayers, which they have no more need of than of wings to fly. All cities find the city hall schemes a fruitful source of corruption. In twenty years Salem will have fifty thousand people and such a hall is not too big.

ENLARGED.—We wish to announce to all, that we have greatly enlarged our stock of carpets and fine furniture and would be very much pleased to have them inspected while the assortment is large. Buren & Son.

INCORPORATIONS.—The following filed articles today: Woodbine Cemetery company; Columbia county; Oregonian Pecosontas Tribe No. 1. Woodmen, Jacksonville; Church of the Spirit, Portland; Wasco Fruit Co., capital $10,000, The Dalles.

INSANE.—Alfred Eiving, aged 44 years, of Klamath county, and Jas. F. Ethridge, aged 27, of Clackamas county, are the latest commitments to the asylum.

Embalming a Success.—A Salem undertaking firm have had photographs made of a body embalmed by them. Although the picture was taken ten days after death, the countenance is perfectly life like. The body was prepared at the undertaking rooms of Oliver & Ridgion, corner of Court and Liberty streets, opposite Opera house.

FULL FOUR DAYS' RACING.

Program of the Great July Meeting at This City.

The directors of the Oregon Breeding and Speed association, held a meeting Saturday evening to complete arrangements for the July races. A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions for additional stock.

The report of the committee on program, Messrs. Minto, Looney and Claggett, as finally amended is as follows:

THE HORSE SHOWS. At 3 p. m. the annual meeting of the Willamette Valley Horse Breeders association was held at the office of White & Tanner's barn. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: Judge T. C. Shaw, president; W. E. Simeral, secretary; Henry Fletcher, treasurer; J. T. Beckwith, J. A. Tanner and T. C. Shaw, executive committee E. S. Judd was chosen assistant secretary.

It was decided to hold a colt show at Salem on Saturday, May 27th. Judges will be selected to pass upon the animals exhibited in the respective departments. There will be a set of judges for each department and the catalogue of the state fair has been adopted for the classification. These judges are to be selected by the officers of the association at a meeting to be held on Saturday, May 6th, at 1 o'clock p. m., sharp.

WILLSON'S AVENUE.—Park Commissioner Skiff is again at work with a man, trimming up the trees in this handsome park. Last year's work improved it greatly, and it is gratifying to know that the good work is to be continued. A few dollars spent here from year to year will add not a little to the beauty of the Bonquet City.

SUNDAY'S HARVEST.—It was light. A solitary poor drunk put in an appearance this morning before Recorder Edes and got five days on the street, if he does not pay out.

DID YOU SAY.—That you like the most delicious tea? Well, try Clark & Epley's various brands.

Desires to Bear Testimony. Henry Thorne, Traveling Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., writes from Exeter Hall, Strand, London, February 2d, 1893.

I desire to bear my testimony to the value of Alcock's porous plasters. I have used them for pains in the back and side arising from rheumatic and other causes never without deriving benefit from their application. They are easily applied and very comforting. Those engaged as I am in public work which involves exposure to sudden changes of temperature, will do well to keep a supply of Alcock's porous plasters in their portmanteaus.

Compressed yeast—Clark & Epley. Ice cream soda today at The Spa.

Baking Powders Before Congress.

The Pure Food bill before Congress would be a righteous measure for the people, and should become a law. The public want pure food, and in order to protect themselves must know what is adulterated. All adulterated preparations should be so branded, including Baking Powders containing Ammonia or Alum. Then if people want to dose themselves with "Absolutely Pure" Ammonia or Alum, they will do it knowingly. The public have been looking up the composition of Ammonia and Alum and they don't like the idea of eating either in their hot biscuit.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

is a Pure Cream of Tartar Powder; free from Ammonia, Alum, Lime or other adulteration. And every investigation, whether in the laboratory or kitchen, confirms and emphasizes its superiority in every way.

Is Life Worth Living?

That depends upon the Liver. If the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmons Liver Regulator a medical perfection.

I have tested its virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. Have tried forty other remedies before Simmons Liver Regulator, and none of them gave more than temporary relief, but the Regulator not only relieved but cured. H. L. JONES, Macon, Ga.

A SENSIBLE MOVE.—The farmers in the vicinity of Turner met this afternoon for the purpose of forming a joint stock company to engage in the manufacture of flour. They propose to purchase the Red Star mills and convert their entire wheat crop into flour and feed, whereby it is figured that they will realize an additional profit of about one fourth the market value of wheat.
