DOUGLAS PICKETT'S ESTATE. The Heir to Twenty Thousand More or Less. "6th. It is further my will that my said trustees and executors shall pay out of the moneys arising from said contract between Henry L. Pittock and J. L. Parrish, as soon as practicable after my decease, to my son Douglas Pickett, the sum of two hundred dollars; and I make it discretionary with my said trustees and executors to pay him more out of the proceeds of my estate, or not, as they may choose." The above quoted paragraph from the will of the late Jennie L. Parrish, deceased, was found in the record of wills at the office of recorder of wills of Marion county. It is the only evidence that anything was ever left to one Douglas Pickett. The contract referred to is one assigned to Mrs. Parrish, and was for circulating the Oregonian in part of the city of Portland. The trustees referred to are George W. and David W. Lichtenthaler.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL. Ho for the world's fair. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney is at Gervais this afternoon. Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson is visiting friends at Portland for a few days. Rougen started back for Waterloo, Iowa, this morning. He takes his family for a visit. Herman Barr started today for Kansas City where he goes to take a position in a manufacturing jewelry house. The minstrels tonight carry one hundred and forty-two trunks. The party is forty-one strong and arrived on the overland this morning. They go from here to Seattle. There was a largely increased attendance at all the Sunday schools yesterday. The floral meeting at the Hotel Wilamette this evening will be held in the upper parlors. Miss Agnes Earhart, who has been the guest of Miss Mae Boies, returned to Portland today. Dr. Powell Reeves went up to his stock farm in Lane county today, and will not return until Wednesday. YOU DON'T KNOW what a comfort it is to have ready at hand a remedy that never fails to relieve Constipation, and that, without pain or discomfort; and almost immediately cures headaches, and dispels every symptom of Dyspepsia. Such a remedy is found in Simmons Liver Regulator—not a sweetened compound to nauseate, or an intoxicating beverage to cultivate an alcoholic appetite, but a medicine pleasant to the taste, and perfectly harmless when given to the smallest child. S. L. R. never disappoints. It possesses the virtues and perfections of a reliable remedy of the kind endorsed by eminent physicians. "It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to those you receive annually in reference to your valuable medicine. I consider Simmons Liver Regulator the best family medicine on the market. I have prescribed it with excellent results." W. F. PARK, M. D., Tracy City, Tenn.

OUR NEIGHBORS.—The Democrat says: "The Journal chuckles over the rumor that the Oregonian is to run an early morning train to Salem. How fond we are of our neighbors. The newspaper situation in Salem is quite interesting." There is nothing small about THE JOURNAL. It is willing to let the field here. So long as the Oregonian gives Salem no more space in its columns than any crossroads village, it matters little to Salem people whether it comes here by rail or river. The Sunday issue put Salem at the bottom of its column of northwest news, with exactly seven lines of space. HO! FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR.—No world's fair ticket, no pianos, no gold watches, no houses and lots, nor any other presents given away at Osburn's Racket store, but good shoes are sold enough cheaper to give you the hard coin to buy these things with. A MARRIAGE BUREAU. A Lady of Some Means Wants a Life Partner. THE JOURNAL is in receipt of the following letter: SALEM, April 16, 1893. ED. JOURNAL: Is there any single man of good habits amongst your readers who wants a partner for life? My object is to correspond with him, and maybe we can get up an agreement. Have some little property. He can send you a sealed letter to any address you fix, but do not give out my name as I am an old reader of your paper. THE JOURNAL sees nothing wrong in the above and does not see why two suitable intelligent people who want to marry should not get acquainted in this manner as well as any other, and the result be mutually beneficial. Letters for this party will be transmitted in confidence if addressed in care of this office to "Little Property."

THOSE MINSTRELS.—Primrose & West, with their brilliant company of minstrel merry-makers, are announced for tonight, at the opera house. This will be the one minstrel event of the season. Primrose & West are the acknowledged world's leaders in this style of entertainment. Other minstrel organizations have risen, fought out their life, and dropped exhausted and defeated by the wayside. But year after year Primrose & West have not only held their own, but have triumphantly advanced, capturing stronghold and citadel of public favor. To minstrelry they have devoted their lives. Their art is their creed. Its furtherance is their ambition; its proud destiny the realized Mecca of their hopes and aspirations. They have advanced with it; they are bound up in it; they have devoted every energy. They have spared no expense in keeping this most genuine form of American amusement in the very front rank of popular entertainment. This year is the epitome of their career. Their entertainment is new from overture to the final fall of the curtain. They have the best minstrel organization ever put together in America, and their appearance here should prove one of the happiest events of the amusement year. DIVORCE GRANTED.—There died in Shedd, Linn county on Friday night, April 14th, 1893, of consumption, Mrs. Benj. Looney, aged about 40 years. Mrs. Looney was a daughter of Mr. R. H. FIRST GRAND DISTRIBUTION. The Coupon Premium a Great Success—All Received their Books. Several hundred families were made happy Saturday evening and this morning by getting their first premium coupon book at the CAPITAL JOURNAL office. Coupon No. 5 was issued on Saturday and there was a big run made on the office to redeem. Pretty soon a stack of a thousand coupons were piled up on the counter, representing two hundred volumes of standard literature given away as a premium. Of course a great many people do not save their coupons, as they have libraries or do not read fiction, sketches, and travel. Before the week is up a first thousand will probably be exhausted, but another thousand will be on the way and we are prepared to continue our coupon offer to all regular subscribers or purchasers of the Saturday issue. The books seem to give universal satisfaction and have done not a little to popularize the already popular evening paper. MASONIC.—De Molay Commandry of Knight's Templar will have some special work tonight, and the following named brethren from abroad will assist: Past Grand Commander D. P. Mason, Grand Prelate Geo. E. Chamberlain, Grand Warder L. C. Marshall, J. P. Galbraith, W. E. Baker, Geo. Humphrey, and E. D. Cusick, of Albany; Grand Commander S. M. Moran, Grand Recorder J. F. Robinson, J. L. Page, N. L. Rooney, J. C. Goodale, A. C. Woodcock, Dr. Paine, B. D. Paine, Dr. Loomis, B. W. Henderson, W. M. Preston, of Eugene; O. P. Hoff, of Irving. After the meeting at the Commandry hall it is understood there will be a fine banquet at the Hotel Wilamette. NONE DENY IT.—That Jones & Bernard's French ice cream soda compared with other makes, is like French cream candies compared with stale stick candy. It is the only genuine.

FROM CHEMAWA. Mrs. D. E. Brewer has a bran new baby. The officers of the school are lamenting over the small appropriations. The number of pupils allowed, has been greatly reduced also. J. W. Bealy's incubators are hatching now, one of 500 egg capacity and one of 125. E. M. Whittle has rented T. F. Goodrich's place and is engaged in raising hens. He is going to work on a large scale. Look for a drop in eggs soon. Dr. Minthorn and another man were wrecked in a bushboard here Saturday evening. The Dr. was driving a pair of bunchgrass animals, when one of them got frightened at something at the school and started to run. In trying to hold them one of the lines broke short off and the team ran over a big stump and then straddled a telegraph pole. One horse went through his harness and was caught a few rods away. Dr. Minthorn had his legs wrapped up in the robe and the wreck was complete before he had time to jump. The other man jumped as soon as the line broke. Fortunately neither man nor team were hurt but the buckboard, tongue, neck, yoke and double trees were smashed. After getting a harness and wagon tongue from the neighbors, they patched things up and went on their way rejoicing. The road supervisor in Haysville was wallowing in the mud one to two and a half feet deep yesterday with the road scraper and mired down a few teams trying to scrape mud on the road so that it would run off like water. Fine prospect for a road, is it not??? April 16. To Get at the Facts Regarding Hood's Sarsaparilla, ask the people who take this medicine, or read the testimonials often published in this paper.
