THE SHAW CASE.

THE JOURNAL congratulates the lawyers, the press, the police, the court and anybody else that has taken a hand in the Shaw case so far. The combination against the JOURNAL, if any has existed, has been a strong one, but it has not been strong enough to hurt the JOURNAL nor help Mr. Shaw in the estimation of the people. THE JOURNAL still lives and will continue to live as a clean newspaper.

The Salem police deserve no censure in the matter of arresting Bowman and Worick, as it was their duty to do that. But when they testified to receiving a confession from Worick as to his firing blank cartridges at Shaw to scare him off the premises, and also testified as to all the circumstances that led up to that matter, they were put in possession of testimony that is criminating to Mr. Shaw in his relations to Miss Ferris. That testimony was drawn out of them by the deputy district prosecuting attorney and his counsel. Mr. Condit also knows that there are affidavits in existence, given by men whose characters are above reproach, bearing upon Mr. Shaw's relations to Miss Ferris. It is his duty to investigate and if there is reasonable certainty that a crime has been committed to prosecute the man upon whom the suspicion rests. It is the duty of the newspapers that are clamoring for a conviction to demand of the public prosecutor and police that they do their duty. This the public prosecutor and police will undoubtedly do without being called upon.

BETWEEN THE SHOWERS.

The over-virtuous newspaper man who always blushes in print at the thought of the press being corrupted by the use of money is, like the over-virtuous prude, always easiest corrupted.

It is a compliment to this country that even the Chinese try to get in here by smuggling.

The Silver Falls Populists want to run Pennoyer again for governor. All the silver people feel kindly for Pennoyer.

Salem should have a grand Columbian Fourth of July celebration. Or else celebrate the capture of Pennoyer's cannon.

Preserve the trees and the birds. Shade and music should be plenty and cheap.

The earnest large-heartedness of several Salem newspaper men to see THE JOURNAL editor in the penitentiary continues to be their dominant passion. The public will be glad to know that they can be earnest and sincere on one subject at least.

The Salem postoffice block is to have a new plate glass front. Some one will probably remark that it needs a new character.

NOTES FROM EXCHANGES.

Dallas Observer: Attorney W. H. Holmes of Salem and B. F. Burch, of Independence, were in the city, Wednesday.

The Barlow Sisters: The Salem JOURNAL has opened up a marriage bureau where the great unmatched may find happiness—or woe.

Astoria Budget: Rev. Wm. Lund, Episcopal minister of Salem, is visiting friends in this city. He will return home tomorrow.

Eugene Guard: Chas. Burggraf, a Salem architect, was in Eugene over last night.

Frank Alexander, who has been visiting at the home of his parents in this city, left for Lebanon this morning for a short visit before returning to the state printing office at Salem.

Salem is having a sensation over a blank catridge shooting affair in which a real estate and some newspaper men are involved. A young woman is mixed up in the affair.

[Yes, the Democrat man was involved to the amount of $24.]

Corvallis Times; Across the Willamette river is a bull that wears a board on his horns. At five o'clock Sunday afternoon he had escaped from the pasture and the hired man was after him, when the owner, Adam Radir, came down the lane, returning home from church. Passing the lines to his wife, Mr. Radir jumped out to stop the bull just as a little dog assaulted the animal from the rear. The board on his horns prevented the bull from seeing what was ahead and in his mad flight from what was behind he steered himself straight for the buggy. The horse did not want any of it, and wheeling suddenly around, Mrs. Radir was thrown from the buggy and her wrist fractured She also received several bruises about the face and head.

[It is an act of cruelty to fasten such a board across an animal's eyes.]

Wasco Sun: He who blows the loudest and labors longest to prejudice the people against his apparent enemy will surely find a reaction in his method of retaliation.

Insane Fire Drill.

Daily Eugene Guard: An article in a Salem paper relates how the Salem insane asylum would do in case of fire. The enterprising Dr. Rowland has inaugurated a regular weekly fire drill, the alarm is given and the patients hustled out in very quick order. The doctor is wise in inaugurating this drill as it might mean the saving of hundreds of lives in case of a fire. We have read of insane asylum holocausts in the last year or two where more than 90 per cent of the inmates were burned to death. It is one of the most difficult things in the world to do to save the lives of insane patients on the sudden breaking out of a fire. The numberless doors are all locked, and with the babel of excitement of patients, and the alarm natural to the feminine attendants, the chances are in favor of almost a total death rate of the patients. In a late test, however, the patients even in the violent ward, were turned out in the yard at dead of midnight, and a hose dragged through the halls within two minutes of the giving of the alarm.

If you are all run down, fagged out, take Simmons Liver Regulator and be spry.

THE TREE OF LIFE.

In his mother's sacred eyes,
Lit from God's own altar place,
Earth grows heaven, and gray time dies
In this Infant's smiling face.
From the shroud of withered years
Love and hope come young again,
And the heart awakened hears
Songs that make the life of men.

Children's lightsome laughter rings,
Dull, waste places hear their tread,
And the gleam of gracious wings
Lights old chambers of the dead.
All bright shapes of memory,
All glad dreams of youth and love,
Meet about the Christmas tree,
Underneath the Mystic Dove.

Time and fate are babbling words,
Vain vibrations of the tongue,
Since the song God's singing birds
O'er the Babe of Bethlehem sung.
Child of death that was to be,
Child of love and life with men,
Round the holy Christmas tree
Make us children, too, again.

Eyes that are love's deathless shrine
Where our holiest prayers arise,
Blest and blessing, dear, divine
Little children's happy eyes.
In your light the dark years change,
From your light all foul things flee,
And all sweet hopes soar and range
Round the Christ Child's Christmas tree.

Cost of Mississippi Steamboats.

Pictures of the packets scarcely show how unlike our boats these are, the difference being in the methods of workmanship. Each story is built merely of sheathing, and in the best boats the doors and fanlights are hung on without frames around them—all loose and thin, as if they never encountered cold weather or bad storms. All the boats that I saw are as nearly alike in all respects as if one man had built them. I was told that the great packets cost only $70,000 to $100,000, so that the mere engine in a first class Atlantic coast, river or sound boat is seen to be of more value than one of these huge packets, and a prime reason for the difference in construction suggests itself.

But I do not mean to criticise, for these great comfortable vessels serve their purpose where ours could not be used at all, and are altogether so useful and appropriate as well as picturesque and attractive to an eastern man that there is not room in my mind for aught than praise of them.—Julian Ralph in Harper's.

After Diphtheria

Paralysis of the Throat—Numbness and Weakness.

Perfect Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. C. S. Southwick
North Madison, Ohio.

"My wife and three children were attacked with diphtheria at the same time. After serious illness the greatest danger was safely passed, but they were all left with

Paralysis of the Throat, and with my wife it also affected her limbs. Her arms were numb to the shoulders, accompanied with a prickling sensation. It was so difficult for her to swallow, it seemed as if she must starve. The children were in a similar condition. Physicians were greatly perplexed and said it was very critical with my wife, as she was more than likely to have paralysis at any time, and if so it would be very doubtful if she survived. Finally a friend suggested Hood's Sarsaparilla. Although we had not the slightest faith, we were so discouraged that we were ready to try anything. I got a bottle and began giving it to them.

Words are Feeble

to express the gratification we all felt at the end of a week to find an improvement. When they had finished three bottles I could not see but they were as well as previous to their sickness. The numbness and paralysis entirely disappeared. There was no trouble in eating, beyond apparent inability to get enough to eat. The neighbors all know of this case and all think it wonderful, as do the doctors." C. S. SOUTHWICK, Grocer and Notary Public, North Madison, Ohio.
