

THE OLD RUT

Of buying goods on time, from credit houses, and paying other people's debts by additional large profits is not a desirable one, except to those who do not intend to pay their bills. If you have the cash to pay for what you want, get out of the old credit rut, and try the spot cash plan. You will be surprised at the percentage will save you, because they have no losses to account for and are satisfied with a small profit. Cash from manufacturer to consumer is our plan.

The New York Racket

Our line consists of boots, shoes, hats, shirts, pants, window blinds, lace curtains, laces, embroideries, underwear, and a full line of notions. See some of our bargains in table linens. We invite an inspection of our stock, quality and prices.

E. T. BARNES, State Ins. Block.

Keeping Pace With the Times. - - -

Have your business accounts kept in PERFECT books, such as

The Frey Patent Flat Opening Books.

Books that are worthy of the patronage and praise of the Government Officials of the State of Oregon, and the greater portion of the merchantile men of the State, are surely deserving of a trial by everyone.

Manufactured in Oregon ONLY by The Weston-Dyckert Book Mfg. Co., Portland, Oregon.

THE CAPITAL CITY BINDERY.

Binders to the State of Oregon, Printers and Lithographers, Salem, Oregon.

500,000 TREES!

OSWEGO - NURSERIES.

FALL, 1892. SPRING, 1893.

We would call the attention of dealers, and large and small planters, to our large and varied assortment of Fruit Trees and Small Fruits, Ornamental, Shade, Nut and Evergreen trees. Our trees are clean, smooth, and first-class in every respect. Send for catalogue and price list. Address,

WALLING & JARISCH,

Mention this paper. Oswego, Oregon.

Baby Carriages, Bicycles, Tricycles, Velocipedes, Boys Wagons BROOKS & SALISBURY,

(SUCCESSORS TO BROOKS AND HARRITT.)

Guns, Fishing Tackle, Sporting and Athletic Goods.

Base Ball Goods, Flags and FireWorks

BOXING GLOVES, LAWN TENNIS SETS, CROQUET SETS

KNIVES, RAZORS, SCISSORS, DOLLS, TOYS, NOTIONS.

LEATHER AND PLUSH GOODS.

SALEM, OREGON.

A. N. HALES, Proprietor.

R. H. PRICE, Manager.

A. N. HALES' LIVERY.

(Successor to H. R. Ryan.)

Livery, Feed and Boarding Stable. A full supply of Horses and Buggies on hand. Horses boarded by day, week or month. Office at stable, corner of Liberty and Ferry streets, East of Willamette hotel.

J. W. THORNBURG,

THE UPHOLSTERER.

Recovers and repairs upholstered furniture. Long Experience in the trade enables me to turn out first-class work. Samples of coverings. No trouble to give estimates. State Insurance block, Chemeketa street.

CHURCHILL & BURROUGHS

Spraying Outfits,
103 State Street.

Dugan Bros.

SEE Future Copies.

F. T. HART,

LEADING MERCHANT TAILOR.
247 COMMERCIAL STREET.

Meat Market.

Fresh and Salt meats of the best quality. Country and stock. Free delivery.

POWER HOUSE

FRED WAYMIRE.

FURNISHED ROOMS.—A few desirable rooms, with or without board, near business centre. Call at 321 Water street. 5-5-93.

FOR SALE.—A very nicely located lot, with house, on Mill street south of Willamette river. For terms and particulars, please inquire at this office. 4-14-93.

THIS PAPER is kept on file at E. T. Barnes' Advertising Agency, 64 and 65 Merchants Exchange, San Francisco, California, where contracts for advertising can be made for it.

ATTENTION.—Cash money paid for rags, bottles, old iron and all kinds of metals, as well as hides, at old Court House, Salem. 1-25-93. I. TOLPALAR.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.—Literature of all kinds on sale at 521 Liberty street. 4-17-93.

GROVER VETOED!

The Heathen Chinese Must Go.

REGISTRATION OR DEPORTATION.

President Cleveland's Suspension Policy Knocked Out.

THE SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS THE GEARY LAW.

The Mongolian Exclusion Act Stands.

Its Constitutionality Declared by the Highest Authority.

If Coolies Cannot Come or Remain Merchants Must Go Out of Business —Three Justices Dissent and Stand in Support of Cleveland.

WASHINGTON D. C., May 15.—The Supreme Court of the United States in a decision handed down by Justice Gray has sustained the decision of the New York courts in favor of the constitutionality of the Geary Chinese Exclusion act. Three Justices dissented. It is the most important decision rendered since the Dred Scott decision before the rebellion.

A SWEEPING DECISION.

Justice Gray, in announcing the judgment of the court, said the power of this nation to restrict or prohibit the immigration of aliens into this country or require such aliens already in the country to remove therefrom, was a well settled principle of international law, confirmed by an unbroken line of decisions in this court. The legislative power of this government is not transcended in any of its constitutional limitations in the act under consideration.

DISSENTING OPINIONS.

Justice Brewer dissented on the ground that if upheld there would be no guarantee that similar treatment might not be accorded to other classes of our population. Justice Field also read a dissenting opinion. Chief Justice Fuller also dissented from opinion of court. After court concluded its announcement of opinions, Ashton, of counsel for Chinese, moved a rehearing and argument before full bench at next term. At present the court stands five to three in support of the law. Justice Harlan being absent, the court took the motion under advisement, the effect of which is to postpone proceedings under the judgment announced today.

Cleveland Will Not Enforce.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 15.—Lyman Mowry, attorney for the Chinese six companies here, was seen. He says he predicted that the Geary law would be found constitutional. "But it will cost $10,000,000 to deport the Chinese and I think no immediate action will be taken by the president. He will probably defer acting on the matter until congress convenes when the law will doubtless be repealed."

China Will Retaliate.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The Rev. Dr. J. R. Baldwin, for 22 years a Methodist missionary in china, and one of the board of Methodist Episcopal church, which has large moneyed interests in China, says he has positive information from dignitaries of the Chinese government, and from his own Chinese missionaries, and if the Chinese exclusion act is carried into effect, Americans in China will be likewise deported from that country to the United States. He added:

"If the law is declared constitutional by the supreme court there will be a speedy exodus both of missionaries and merchants from China, in retaliation for our sending home the Chinese from the United States."

PORTLAND, May 15.—News that the supreme court had held the Chinese exclusion law to be constitutional caused a slight flutter in China town. Leading Chinese merchants were not disposed to talk about the matter. They preferred to wait until they heard from the Six Companies in San Francisco. Said Back, a leading merchant of this city, said: "I don't know what the outcome will be. I think, however, that if the law is enforced by the United States, that all Americans will be deported from China." Col. Weidner, collector of internal revenues, had not heard of the decision when a reporter showed him the press dispatch he said: "We have had no intimation whatever of any trouble, no matter how the case was decided."

Chinese Registration.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The return of Chinese registration, from 35 out of the 93 internal revenue districts in the United States, show that 3169 Chinese have complied with the law. The districts most densely populated by Chinese have not as yet made their returns.

Bringing More Chinese.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 15.—The steamer Danube left this evening for Portland with 500 Chinese from the Empress of China.

THE NEWS AT FRISCO.

Americans in China Will Not Be Accorded Treaty Rights.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—News that the supreme court had sustained the constitutionality of the Chinese exclusion act created great excitement among Celestials in China town. Cing Kwang, vice Chinese consul, was seen by a representative of the Associated Press, to whom he said: "I have little to say as to how the final decision of the supreme court will be taken by the Chinese in the United States. I do not think the provisions of the law will be carried out right away, as this necessitates a great expense, for which no appropriation has been made. It will be a great blow to business in Chinatown. As to what the Chinese government may do in the matter, I have still less to say. The treaty between China and the United States has been broken by the government at Washington and is no longer a contract. The treaty will not have any effect upon the Chinese government in what they may see fit to do regarding Americans in China."

Postmasters Retained.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Dan Murphy has recommended the retention of the following postmasters in Oregon upon petitions of patrons of the offices, and under this reform administration they will no doubt hold their places: R. E. Kirk, at St. Paul, Marion county; W. E. Finzer, at Woodburn, Marion county; L. C. Smock, at Sherwood, Washington county; Joseph Lyons, at Drain, Douglas county; Edward Bender, at Myrtle Point, Coos county.

John Markley will go home the first of next week and Dan Murphy will leave Friday or Saturday.

Accident in a Mining Shaft.

CALUMET, Mich., May 15.—The bodies of ten men, killed by falling down a shaft in the Calumet and Hecla mine yesterday, were brought to the surface in sacks late last night, a mass of broken bones and bruised flesh. The fragments were arranged as nearly as possible and each individual put together. Funeral tomorrow.

Mine Explosion.

LINCOLN, Ill., May 15.—Last night a gas explosion occurred in the citizens coal shaft. Following are undoubtedly killed: Joseph Page, night boss, Henry Wilnet, Mike Gleason, Dan Waylon, Steve Stuckel and Pat McNulty, miners.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

FOREIGN TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

The Campaign Against the Home Rule Bill.

Gladstone Charged With Making a Deliberate Attempt to Humiliate and Ruin England.

LONDON, May 10.—This week has brought only discouragement to the liberals. The records of the house of commons sitting in committee show a monotonous waste of obstructive motions and insignificant decisions. But for occasional squabbles provoked on the smallest pretext by the unionist leaders the desert of mediocre speeches and futile votes has been within an oasis of even mild excitement. The ministerials are puzzling now over this problem. If five nights are required for the discussion of the comparatively unimportant first clause of the bill, how many nights will be required for the discussion of all forty clauses? The indications are that the obstruction of clause 1 has been merely a specimen of what may be expected with the consideration of each succeeding clause. Mr. Gladstone is badly handicapped in his efforts to defeat the obstructionists by the admitted incapacity of Mr. Mellor as chairman. Mr. Mellor lacks qualification to guide directly to their end the proceedings of such an unruly body as the committee has become. Mr. Gladstone is reluctant to depose Mr. Mellor, who was the prime minister's own choice, but the other members of the cabinet urge that something be done quickly to place the guidance of the committee in stronger hands. If no other way out can be found, they suggest that Mr. Mellor ought to be raised to the peerage.

The Unionist leaders have decided in conference to make clause 2 a peg on which to hang another discussion of the supremacy of the imperial parliament, a question already debated at exhaustive length in the first days of the committee. The government will meet this effort to relash half the speeches already made in committee with summary repressive measures. The majority will abstain from speaking, and the closure will be applied with the utmost rigor. This plan may be successful, although many doubt that Mr. Mellor's back can be stiffened sufficiently to allow of its execution. Current events are hardly justifying the predictions that the Unionist leaders would profit from the lesson taught by the Belfast riot, and would moderate the tone of their speeches.

The unionists now speaking in the provinces are surpassing all their previous attempts at invective and rant. At Paddington Mr. Balfour described with vigor his "hated loathing and contempt of home rule," and denounced the bill at once as infamous and monstrous. Lord Randolph Churchill referred to the president cabinet as "infested by their arrogance beyond the point of ordinary insanity." Mr. Gladstone, he said, "was making a deliberate attempt to humiliate and ruin England." The liberals call these intemperate utterances the words of desperate politicians, who scent from afar the disaster about to overtake them and their party, and profess to be merely disgusted by such bombast. There is no reason to doubt, however, that the Ulster Orangemen are likely at any time to be encouraged by these utterances to repeat the scenes of the Belfast riots. Professor Tyndall, Mr. Gladstone's historic enemy, is equaling with his pen what the politicians are doing with their tongues. In an open letter he denounces John Morley as an English Robespierre, and calls Mr. Gladstone a traitor to his country, sacrificing everything sacred to his overwhelming lust of power, and surrounding himself with sycophants who push into monstrous activity the worst qualities of character. The professor also describes the home-rule bill as the "evil demon of the house of commons" and "a veritable nightmare." This ebullition of venom has evoked only ridicule from the liberal and radical press.

The three groups of English socialists who divided their party years ago have reunited and today issued a joint manifesto to the socialists of the country. They appeal to their comrades to sink all individual differences and strike hands on the common platform. The principal demand of the joint program is for the legal introduction of the eight-hour working day, the prohibition of child labor, the free maintenance by the state of necessitous children, the same wages for women as for men where the same amount of work is done, the fixing of minimum wages for adult laborers in the government and municipal services, the abolition of the subletting of contracts on public works, payment of all men in public service, including members of parliament, and really universal suffrage are also demanded.

IMPORTANT FOREIGN FAILURES

Signs of an Impending Universal Crash on London Stock Exchange.

LONDON, May 15.—This morning the stock exchange was nervously excited. Everybody is selling. So far only two small brokers have failed, but several large houses are said to be involved.

OCEANICAN FAILURE

Private cables announce suspension of the Commercial Banking Co., of Sydney, New South Wales. It is one of the oldest banking concerns in the Antipodes, capital pounds 600,000, reserve pounds 830,000. The uneasiness on stock exchange is increasing.

TWO MORE GO.
BRISBANE, May 15.—The bank of North Queensland and the Queensland National bank were suspended. Deposits in the latter at last report were pounds 8,500,000. Its subscription capital is pounds 16,000,000. Half paid up. It has claimed a reserve of half a millions pounds.

A Light Run Made.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 15.—A run on the Farmers' and Mechanics' Savings bank began this morning, chiefly by small depositors. It is considered one of the strongest banks in the state. No fears for its safety exist.

Another Suspension.
MINNEAPOLIS, May 15.—The Farmers' and Merchants' State bank has suspended. A statement shows the capital at $60,000; Surplus $70,000. The suspension caused no surprise, as it has been looked upon as weak for some time. It should be noted that this is not the Farmers' and Mechanics' Savings bank.

Wicked Work of Mob.
BEDFORD, Ind., May 15.—Early this morning a masked mob appeared before the jail, took John Terrill from the cell and hanged him to a tree in the courthouse yard. Terrill's crime was the brutal murder of Conductor F. L. Prince of the Ohio and Mississippi road as result of a quarrel over payment of his fare by Terrill.

College Athletes.
BOSTON, May 15.—Notwithstanding the rain, the third annual athletic meeting between Harvard and Yale took place on Holmes field, Cambridge, Saturday afternoon. The crimson again triumphed over the blue, but the result of the games was in much doubt until the last few events were run off. Harvard's superior work in the 100-yard dash, 440 yards run, 220 yards hurdles, 220 yard dash, 800 yards run, putting the 16-pound shot, running high jump and running broad jump carried the day for the crimson. In the 14 events on the program Harvard scored 67 points to 45 for Yale. There were no records broken, except the running broad jump, where Bloss succeeded in jumping 22 feet 4 inches, or an inch and a half better than the previous Harvard record.

Today's Races.
NEW YORK, May 15.—The Brooklyn handicap was won by Diablo, Lamp-lighter second, Illume third. Lamp-lighter was a favorite at eight to five.