NOTHING IN CHINESE RETALIATION.

The Administration Hoped the Court Would Hold the Geary Law Unconstitutional—The Cabinet and the

Washington, May 17.—The Chinese uestion occupied the entire attention (the cabinet at its meeting yesterday. Before the cabinet meeting Chief Jus-tice Fuller, who dissented from the decision of the supreme court, called at the White House and had a brief talk with the president.

Subsequently the chief justice had an is understood the conclusion reached by the cabinet was that the law could not be inforced for the reason that there is no money available for the purpose. The act only carries an appropriation of $100,000. Secretary Carisle showed that not more than $16,000 of the sum remained. It is estimated it would cost to deport all the Chinese 000,000. This statement exhibited what one member of the cabinet called the Ohio, solicitor of internal revenue. utter inability of the government to give any effect to the law without further action by congress. Under the circumstances it is understood nothing could be done, and it is said there is little, if any, probability of the federal government making any immediate

One of the prominent members of the cabinet, who is regarded as a man of great force, and strength of character, made the broad assertion after the sesshort of a political scheme enacted for political effect (he said, in fact, something about demagoguery), and intimated that there had been a general one among his a court would hold it to be unconstitutional.

It is assumed that in ordinary course the supreme court, as soon as a major. ity of the members determine the transmitted to the Chinese minister to be by him forwarded to his government. This will necessarily delay and congress will probably be again in session before a reply can be made to the com-

As to the expense of enforcing the law, it is not by any means sure, that if congress were in session the money would be appropriated. The effect of the decision is far reaching and involves according to the views of many diplomats and naval officers, the severance of our diplomatic and commercial relations with the Chinese empire. They are firm in their belief that the Celestials will retaliate against the United States That this extreme view of the situation is not regarded as altogether as an improbability is evidenced by the fact that the naval officials are considering the question in connection with the reorganization of the American squadron in Chinese. On the other hand, at the state department rumors and surmises of Chiese retaliation are not given credence to. Not even an intimation bearing on the report that the Chinese government intends to deport American missionaries and all other citizens of this country comes to the ears of the department officials. The impression is quite genertors not to make arrests to stand. A furnished. Becretary Carlisie received many tel-egrams today asking for suspension or parations of the law for at least six months. The best opinion obtainable on the subject in the treasury depart-ment is that the law is explicit on the point, having set the 5th of May as the last day on which registration could be tend this limit. Among the telegram received by Secretary Carlisle was one Companies, who saked for a suspensio of the law,

APPOINTMENTS BY COMMISSION

Cleveland Contemplating a Complete Revolution in the Civil Service.

NEW YORK, May 17 .- The Sun says Cleveland's experience with office seekers has convinced him that the Terrible present method of appointment to office through political influence has be-come a scandal, and he is revolving in his mind a scheme to do away with it entirely, by a complete reorganization of the system, and that he will probably recommend to congress the framing of a law for a commission on appointments, as far removed from political influence as the supreme court, to make all appointments except foreign ministers and certain high officials nearest the executive, qualification for place interview with Secretary Greeham. It to be the only question in making appointments.

Railroad Traffic Suspended By Floods of Streams.

CLEVELAND, Obio, May 17 .-- A furious storm raged here since Sunday night and still prevails. Nearly 84 inches of rain have fallen. Many uncompleted houses, sheds, and outbuildings are wrecked by the wind. The Cuyahoga river is out of its banks. Great quantities of lumber are being carried out into the lake. At noon railroad traffic was completely suspended. Trains are side tracked where they are and unable to move. Business is at a standstill. No hopes of relief till it
