

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL. PUBLISHED DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY, BY THE Capital Journal Publishing Company.

HOFER BROTHERS, Editors. Daily, by carrier, per month, $1.00; by mail, per year, $10.00. Weekly, 8 pages, per year, $1.00.

BETWEEN THE SHOWERS. Salem banks are all right. Why can't Salem have Corbett? Salem will have a fine new city hall in 1899.

This rainy season has made a whole lot of sentiment for good gravel roads. There is an awful crop of roses ripening, and Salem will have a rose show.

Make your business bloom by advertising. You will be sure to reap a harvest. At last the president is considering the propriety of enforcing the Geary act.

THE JOURNAL extends its sympathy to the owners of the street sprinkling plant. The big $500,000 steel bridge is worth caring for. The piers and paint need looking after.

The Oregon gooseberry is in the market. It is a perfect godsend to the bilious and the sugar trust. Regular JOURNAL advertisers are happy and prosperous people because their readers are that kind of people.

Every workman has just as much right to have his opinion about the anti-Chinese law carried out as the president. It now appears as though Cleveland may enforce the Geary act. But this statement may be contradicted tomorrow.

A suburban resident wants to know why he has to lead his cow to pasture when members of the city council can have their drive. An Eastern advertiser has confidence in the JOURNAL. He has just placed a $121.50 order for a year, paying the bill in advance. He also has confidence in Oregon.

Building the city hall and opening Liberty street will be a good big year's work for the present city administration to carry out. But they can do it if they will. By the wagons full of spring lamb and vegetables pouring into the city this morning the JOURNAL sees it evident Salem people enjoy good Sunday dinners as well as religion.

Day before yesterday he could not enforce the law. Yesterday Grover weakened. Today he says he may enforce the Geary law. Tomorrow it will be known what the Chinese minister says about it.

From certain informants of the public an outsider might be led to think that Salem editors had nothing to do but lay awake nights and study how to insult young ladies. But it is not true. Salem editors are gentlemen.

WILLAMETTE NOTES. Miss Constance Hawley visited school Friday. Misses May Dickinson and Miss Huelat were at school, Tuesday. Wm. Heardt, a graduate, was at chapel, Friday. D. E. Gardner, accompanied by his mother, of Canby, were at chapel Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Gelsendorfer of Albany visited her daughter, Mrs. Willis C. Hawley, during the week. Miss Carrie S. Rudolph read at chapel Friday and was heartily enjoyed. She has a rare sweetness and delightfulness that give her recitations a peculiar charm.

The preliminary oratorical contest attracted a large audience and the several speakers, Messrs. Floyd Field, John R. Hume, and John W. Reynolds, and Misses Myrtle Marsh and Edith Frizell, made good orations, the expression and thought were indicative of much study and preparation, the judges, Rev. John Parsons, Dr. C. H. Hall and Gen. W. H. Odell, awarded the first place to Miss Myrtle Marsh with John W. Reynolds a close second.

Thousands of new "HAPPY HOMES" will be bought this spring. We could bring hundreds of testimonials who have had "HAPPY HOMES," And made "HAPPY HOMES," By buying our "HAPPY HOME" Suits. But we will not do so as we are not a quack doctor. Come and see them.

A FIVE DOLLAR BOY'S SUIT, Extra pair of pants, and all for $3.50.

There are quite a number of good horses and colts now at the track and will when bell taps this spring, be on hand to go down the line and battle for place and purse with the best of them. The association are contemplating building a covered track for the coming winter for the benefit of breeders who have colts that can be developed at an early age. Our citizens have push in our town and are doing all in their power to help the management in their work. Local push makes a town. There are now between 30 and 40 head of horses in training at the track, and as soon as it is possible will be one of the fastest in the state. Jack Harkins the rustling blacksmith, and one of the best horsemen on the coast, has located here. The horse Rosemon has been bought by Jesse Wilkins of this place who will turn him over to Frank Enos who thinks he will make a very fast pacer out of him. In fact we are satisfied if Rosemon has no bad luck he will go down the stretch among the best of them, which will be a benefit to all who have bred to him. We think your paper should be patronized by all horsemen and it is something that has been needed in the valley.

Falling Off a Log. "As easy as falling off a log," is an old saying. When it was first uttered, nobody knows. Nothing is easier, unless it is the taking of a dose of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These act like magic. No griping or drenching follows, as it is with the old-fashioned pills. The relief that follows resembles the action of Nature in her happiest moods; the impulse given to the dormant liver is of the most salutary kind and is speedily manifested by the disappearance of all bilious symptoms. Sick headache, wind on the stomach, pain through the right side and shoulder-blade, and yellowness of the skin and eyeballs are speedily remedied by the Pellets.

Baby cried, Mother sighed, Doctor prescribed: Castoria.

Looking Better feeling better—better in every way. There's more consolation in that than well people stop to ponder. To get back flesh and spirits is everything.

Scott's Emulsion of pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites is prescribed by leading physicians everywhere for ailments that are causing rapid loss of flesh and vital strength.

Scott's Emulsion will do more than to stop a lingering cough—it fortifies the system against coughs and colds.
