STATE MILITIA.—The state military board awarded part of the contract for equipping the Oregon national guard to the Albany Woolen Mills. The Salem Woolen Mills did not compete as they have six months wholesale orders ahead in their tailoring department. The infantry overcoats will be lined with blue, the artillery with red, and the cavalry with yellow. The stripes on the trousers will correspond, also, to the colors of the particular arm of the service, the infantry's being white. The contract will read for about $15,000 and the board reserves the right to cut down the quantity 20 per cent.

ITEM OF NEWS.—In the U. S. district court Saturday Judge Bellinger made an order vacating his previous order which appointed R. A. Bessell as receiver of the Oregon Development company. This action was based upon a large number of affidavits from prominent people throughout the valley who averred in the strongest terms that it had long been a matter of common notoriety that Bessell had for years been so completely under the domination of the late Col. Hogg that it would be impossible for him to be impartial. These affidavits were filed by the attorneys for Messrs. Blair and Brown of New York City, holders of majority of the bonds under the first mortgage and who made the motion to have Bessell removed. No one has yet been appointed in Bessell's stead but Judge Bellinger will doubtless appoint some able and reputable man.

GOOD PURCHASE.—Ed. McKinney has bought the east half of the Waller residence property between Court and State streets. He will at once proceed to build on the same, and expects to make it his future home, as it is one of the finest building places in the city.

TOOK POSSESSION.—Under the anti-dues injunction, the opposing faction of the Evangelical church have taken possession of the First Evangelical church of this city.

THE SOLDIERS' HOME.

Heard on Application for Preliminary Injunction Before Judge Burnett.

The application of D. C. Sherman for an order restraining the Soldiers' Home commission from locating that state institution elsewhere than at the seat of government was heard in the circuit court at 2 o'clock.

Attorney General Chamberlain appears for the trustees, who have located the Home at Roseburg. He is assisted by A. M. Crawford, of Roseburg. District Attorney Condit of Salem, appears for the plaintiffs, assisted by H. J. Bigger, and Mr. Sherman was present.

The decision in this case will cover the location of the Eastern Oregon Insane asylum and other state institutions.

The case hinges upon the oath taken by the trustees to support the constitution of the state of Oregon in the matter of locating a Soldiers' Home, which is alleged to be a public institution under article XIV, Sec. 5, which provides that all public institutions hereafter "provided for by the legislative assembly shall be located at the seat of government," and that Salem is the seat of government.

The case will go to the supreme court no matter which way the circuit court holds.

At 4 o'clock the court took the case under advisement.

INSTITUTE FOR THE BLIND.

The Question of Swindling.

THE JOURNAL, whose editor objected to the price charged by this paper for the semi-annual financial statement, attempted to swindle the city by copying city advertisements from the Statesman and bringing in the bill to the city council. It had no authority for publishing the advertisement and of course the bill was not allowed.—Salem Democrat.

The Democrat man having charged $45 for an advertisement that since years was published in two papers for $12, feels just as guilty as he did for taking $24 from Mr. Shaw for charging the JOURNAL editors with blackmail. His idea seems to be any way to get money is justified by the getting of it. The above charge of swindling is just as untrue as his recent charge of blackmailing Shaw. What are the facts about the JOURNAL publishing the city advertisement referred to without authority? It was an advertisement for sale of the engine house properties. January 10th the committee on fire and water submitted a written report to the council, recommending that the committee "shall have inserted in the daily papers a notice asking for proposals," etc., for sale of that property. The council unanimously adopted the report. The advertisement was ordered inserted in the daily papers of the city, of which the JOURNAL was one. Where is the swindle about this? If there is any swindle it will be in the city council not paying for what its own records show it ordered done. So far there has been no swindle.

Memorial Day.

The following order was issued by Commander Crosson to the members of Sedgwick Post No. 10, G. A. R., and it is hoped all the members and all old soldiers will attend services on this day set apart by the command of the national commander. The pastor and members of the Christian church will spare no pains to make the event pleasant and enjoyable to all.

SALM, Or., May 22, 1893. Headquarters of Sedgwick Post No. 10, Dept. of Or. G. A. R., Gen. Or. No. 2. Members of Sedgwick Post No. 10, G. A. R., will assemble at headquarters Sunday, May 23, at 10 o'clock to attend divine service at the Christian church conducted by Rev. Williams at 10:30 o'clock. By command of Attest. R. A. CROSSAN, W. A. H. FOLGER, Post Com. Adj.

NOTES FROM EXCHANGES.

Baker Democrat: Mayor C. A. Johns and wife left for Salem last evening. Mr. Johns will attend to matters before the supreme court and returning will go to Eilensburg, Washington, to look up the defense in the case of Geo. Mc. Carty and Ray Christenson, charged with the Roslyn bank robbery. Mrs. Johns will visit in Salem for a few weeks with her sister.

Dallas Itemizer: It is said that the gambling places in Salem have really been closed by the city marshal. Wherever the city authorities are in earnest about it they can have all diabolical and unlawful concerns shut up.

Roseburg Review: A gentleman, a visitor from Salem, remarked Saturday "there is the finest looking woman in this town I ever saw." Yes, we might say the ladies of Roseburg are known far and wide for their beauty and high order of intelligence.

Deceased leaves no immediate relatives. The funeral will take place from the residence Wednesday at 2 o'clock and the remains will be interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Deceased enlisted in D. Co. N. J. Infantry, Feb. 21, 1841, and served nineteen years continuously when he was discharged for disabilities contracted in the Mexican war.

Rev. Copeland will conduct the services at the residence of J. H. McCormick, North Salem, funeral by electric cars. May 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark, who moved to Brooks recently, will be greatly missed in our neighborhood. While we regret to learn their leave, we are sure the people of Brooks will find them as we did good neighbors, and important factors of what makes good society.

Last Sunday afternoon the friends of Mr. and Mrs. P. Dyer, met at the latter's residence, the visit being in honor of J. W. Dyer, of Mayville, who was home on a short visit. He being a delegate to the meeting of the grand lodge of I. O. O. F., that was held at Eugene. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all, and the party of visitors left at a late hour, extending to J. W. their farewells and best wishes for success and a safe arrival home. May 21.

FROM AUMSVILLE.

This community is blessed with a good many Kansas people, but the last addition was a "Kansas go Devil" not imported from Kansas, but made here in Aumsville. The architect being Frank Pound, who claims great things for it. It was introduced into Kansas by the Republicans and so dissatisfied were the people that they bolted and voted for Weaver.

Mr. Moyer, proprietor of the "City Meat Market" is experiencing the usual trouble of a business man, but he is learning fast, and is growing rapidly, having had three wrinkles added to his home in one day.

Hon. Tom Anderson is straight up and down, when he sells a half hog, he sells half, including head and tail and when he buys he does the same thing, he is square all round.

Mr. Bard bought two pigs from John Lewis, they looked as if their fourteen brothers and sisters had taken advantage of them. Bard's pen would not hold them, as there were some cracks. Mr. Pound recommended tying a knot in their tails, good advice, but John Lewis did not deliver any tails with the pigs. Another friend recommended pouring water upon the pen to swell the cracks shut. Bard said: No, I will feed the pigs and swell them. It was a success, two quarts of milk made them larger than the cracks, if the milk holds out, the pen will hold them in.

There have been three shows at Aumsville lately. One fooled the people, one the people fooled the showman, and the last one fooled both the people and the showman.

About 10 o'clock Thursday night Will Porter fell in a mud puddle, and when he got out he took the mud puddle with him. Neither the mud puddle nor Will Porter have been seen since.

Mr. D. Swank has bought a block on Bismarck avenue in Garb's addition upon which he will build a dwelling.

Casey Nott is home visiting his father and mother. He looks very smiling, he says that he has worked for his Rachel, and is now going back to work for Leah.

A new industry will soon be started in Aumsville, which will give employment for our surplus population, a number of men were engaged last week in making preparation, but as it is often the case, a number, at this early day threaten to go on a strike.

NORTH HOWELL PRAIRIE.

Miss Bushnell, a teacher of Brooks, was a visitor at Sunday school last Sunday.

Prof. Luse spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends at Silverton.

E. W. Baughman has recovered his money that was in the Gervais bank, that failed.

A clever young man of our vicinity thinks there is no place like Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark, who moved to Brooks recently, will be greatly missed in our neighborhood. While we regret to learn their leave, we are sure the people of Brooks will find them as we did good neighbors, and important factors of what makes good society.
