

The Question is Often Asked Why the The New York Racket

as such a lively trade, while it appears dull in many places?

That question is easily answered, they buy their shoes from one of the most reliable cash shoe factories in St. Louis, paying cash for them, thereby getting their stock at the lowest price. Then selling for cash, they have no allowance to make for bad accounts. That explains why they sell shoes cheap. In other lines, such as Hats, White Shirts, Black Sateen, and light Dress Shirts, Pants, Overalls, Underwear of all kinds for ladies, and gents Hosiery, Socks, Embroideries, Lace Curtains, Ribbons, Gloves, Mitts, Table Linen, Linen Tablecloths, Napkins, Crash, Hammocks, Brushes and notions of all kinds which are all bought for cash in New York, and following that line, (cash) from factory to consumer, they can afford to sell at low prices. They ask an examination of their stock and prices.

THE EXPOSITION FLYER.

AN ANTI-SUNDAY INJUNCTION SUIT

To Head off the Government in its World's Fair Closing Enterprise.

CHICAGO, May 29.—The West Bound exposition flyer over the New York Central road which left New York yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock to make the trip to Chicago in 20 hours arrived here at 9:30 this morning three minutes ahead of time.

ANOTHER FAILURE.
An assignment was filed in court this morning by Weaver, Goots & Co., one of the largest coal dealing firms in this city. Liabilities are scheduled at two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Assets two hundred thousand.

SUNDAY CLOSING ENJOINED.
On application of the stockholders Judge Stein of the superior court of Chicago this morning issued a temporary injunction restraining the directors of the world's fair from closing the gates on Sunday. This suit is brought to head off the attempt of the federal government at Washington from securing an injunction to close the fair Sunday.

In opposition to the petition it had been urged that this was a Christian government and that Christianity was part of the law of the country. "This" said the court "is clearly not so. The position is certainly untenable in a country of religious freedom." Judge Stein, who rendered the decision, is a Hebrew.

JUDGE STEIN'S OPINION.
The proceedings in the state court are entirely distinct from the action begun Saturday by the United States district attorney in the federal court. Judge Stein held that congress had made no law compelling Sunday closing. The court held that as parks were set apart for the recreation of the public forever, the park commissioners had no power to grant the privilege nor the exposition management to exercise it of closing the gates on Sunday.

ACTUAL SUNDAY ATTENDANCE.
Returns of attendance at the world's fair yesterday are not yet completed, but the chief of the bureau of admissions from returns in, estimates the attendance at 146,379.

Old Man's Crime.
HUNTINGTON, Ind., May 29.—Last night a passerby noticed smoke coming from a small dwelling at Roskoche, occupied by Christian Habogoz and wife. The doors were all bolted and had to be knocked in. Mrs. Habogoz was found locked in the bed room with her throat cut from ear to ear and the bed on fire. Habogoz was afterwards found in a garret dead. Habogoz was 75 years old, his wife 70. It is supposed Habogoz killed his wife and then suicided.

Honors to Davis.
MOBILE, Ala., May 29.—As Jefferson Davis's funeral train pulled out of New Orleans last night, crowds appeared at every street corner till the corporation limits were passed. At every station crowds assembled. Old gray haired soldiers, ladies and children, with flowers, being prominent features. At Beauvoir, Davis's old home, the track and station of the platform were carpeted with rhododendrons. Among the floral offerings here was a wreath of cypress from Mrs. St. Green, nee Morgan, of Mississippi, brought all the way from her present home, Columbus, Cal.

The Briggs Case.
WASHINGTON, May 29.—The trial of Dr. Briggs began this morning. Appellants will be allowed four and a half hours to open and close the case. Briggs is allowed seven hours to reply and the New York Presbytery, from whose judgment the appeal is taken, are given two hours, in ten minute speeches.

Big Fire Loss.
BRANTON, Pa., May 29.—The Blooming mill, engine room and boiler house of the Lackawanna Steel company, burned this morning. The loss is one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars. Twelve hundred men idle.

Gresham on the Geary Law.
WASHINGTON, May 29.—Secretary Gresham authorizes an emphatic denial of the statement that the Chinese minister has notified the department of state that the Chinese government would retaliate if the Geary act was enforced. Gresham declared that in a recent interview between himself and the Chinese minister, not a word or intimation of a threat was used during the interview. Being asked if any steps had been taken toward the enforcement of the law, Gresham replied that it was in the hands of the secretary of the treasury, and as far as he knew nothing had been done.

Two Bank Failures.
FARGO, N. Dak., May 29.—The National bank of Ashley Meers was closed by the bank examiner. The first national bank of Dakota, N. D., was closed. Liabilities are said to be $60,000, with assets five times as much.

Suicide in Portland.
PORTLAND, Or., May 29.—J. W. Davis, a carpenter, committed suicide in East Portland by shooting himself through the head with a pistol. Despondency is assigned as the cause of the deed.

European Cholera.
HAMBURG, May 29.—It is officially announced that one death from cholera occurred here Saturday.

Paris, May 29.—Deaths of a cholera nature at Toulouse and one at Nismes are reported.

A Free Man.
DENVER, May 29.—Dr. Graves, the alleged poisoner of Mrs. Barnaby, has been set at liberty.

SUNDAY DISPATCHES.

There was an attendance of 220,000 at the world's fair, mostly working men and their families. It was emphatically the tollers day of recreation. A million dollar sugar refinery fire at Baltimore.

All About Salem.
A lot of excursionists from Boston got off the morning overland train to take a breath of our cool delicious mountain and sea breeze nectarine atmosphere.
"Ah! This is the capital of Oregon," said an old duffer in glasses.
"This is where Penney lives," said a smart young Harvard man.
"This is where young and old ride bicycles," said an arch maiden in broadest cultchawed accent.
"This is where the air is kept in motion by the fan like proportions of the young ladies' pedal extremities," said the travelling man.
This is the biblical city of peace," said the minister in the crowd.
"It is the best advertised town on the Pacific coast," said THE JOURNAL reporter. The only city of New England people, push and enterprise west of the Rockies"—and the train pulled out.

RINGLE.—At the poor farm, North Salem, Sunday afternoon, May 28, Joseph Ringle, aged 82, of paralysis. Burial at Rural cemetery. He had only been at the poor farm since May 10th.

SMITH.—At the home of her mother in this city, Sunday, May 28, 1893, Mrs. Wesley Smith, of Aumsville.

The Poet's Soliloquy.
"Kiss" rhymes to "bless," in fact as well as verse.
And "ill" with "pill" and "worse" with "hearse."
In fact and verse, we find "complete recovery" rhymes best with "Golden Medical Discovery."

For driving out scrofulous and all other taints of the blood—fortifying the constitution against lung-scurf or consumption, for strengthening the digestive organs and invigorating the entire system by sending streams of pure blood through all the veins—there is nothing equal to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the only guaranteed blood liver and lung remedy sold.

A Curious Example.
A youth at Oxford, being examined in Paley, was asked if he could mention any instance of the Divine goodness which he had found out for himself. "Yes," the conformation of the nose of the bulldog. Its nose is so retracted that it can hang on to the bull and yet breathe freely. But for this it would soon have to let go." The bull's point of view was not regarded at all.—"Twenty-five Years of St. Andrew's."

Not Very Wise.
Teacher.—Who was the wisest man that ever lived?
Boy.—Samson.
Teacher.—No, he was the strongest. If Samson had been wise, he would not have let his wife cut his hair.
Boy.—That's so. He'd a-gone to a barber.—Good News.

Encouragement for the Feeble.
So long as the falling embers of vitality are capable of being rekindled into a warm and genial glow, who so long there is hope for the weak and emaciated invalid. Let him not, therefore, despair, but derive encouragement from this, and from the further fact that there is a restorative most potent in restoring the dissipated powers of a broken down system. Yes, thanks to its unexampled tonic virtues, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is daily reviving strength in the bodies and hopes in the minds of the feeble and nervous. Appetite, refreshing sleep, the acquisition of flesh and color, are blessings attendant upon the reparative processes which this priceless invigorant speedily infuses and carries to each life-sustaining organ by the blood, which is incessantly even to the feminine palate, vegetable in composition, and thoroughly safe. Use it, and regain vigor!

Baby cried,

YOU DON'T KNOW

what a comfort it is to have ready at hand a remedy that never fails to relieve Constipation, and that, without pain or discomfort, and almost immediately cures headaches, and dispels every symptom of Dyspepsia. Such a remedy is found in Simmons' Liver Regulator—not a sweetened compound to nauseate, or an intoxicating beverage to cultivate an alcoholic appetite, but a medicine pleasant to the taste, and perfectly harmless when given to the smallest child. S. L. R. never disappoints. It possesses the virtues and perfections of a reliable remedy of the kind endorsed by eminent physicians.

"It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to those you receive annually in reference to your valuable medicine. I consider Simmons' Liver Regulator the best family medicine on the market. I have prescribed it with excellent results."
