MUTS PAY ON FULL VALUE.

Portland money lenders must pay on 100 cents on the dollar of their assessed mortgage valuation. The state has won its case in the suit brought by Multonomah county to enjoin the state treasurer from collecting taxes on the valuation as fixed by the state board of equalization.

It will be recalled that Multonomah county has not yet paid its state tax on mortgages as equalized for 1892 for the same reason. The result of this suit virtually decides that and a big lump soon to be handed over by the tax shirkers of the metropolis one of these days

The case will probably be carried to the supreme court. Attorney General Chamberlain has won a signal victory—won the third time in upholding this feature of the work of the state board. There is nothing more transparent than assessing mortgages at 50 cents on the dollar in one county and 100 cents in another. It is a fraud.

THE SOLDIERS' HOME SUIT.

The public await with much interest the argument of this case before Judge Burnett at Albany late this month. It may not be reached if there should be an unusual pressure of business on the calender. Then it would go over until the fall term of court and probably not get into the supreme court until next year.

This will tie up a large sum of money in the state treasury. To this the banks that are favored with deposits of state funds will not at all object.

The case of Attorney General Chamberlain is of course purely upon the legal question of construing the constitution. He does not enter into the question of the state in scattering state institutions or keeping them all at the seat of government. That is a matter for the people to determine. If their present constitution does not suit they can change it.

SUGGESTED COMMENT.

If Cleveland strikes off the list of Salem office seekers, all who do not pay their legitimate campaign bills he will have a very select crowd to pick from.

The alliance or People's party, seems undergoing all the tortures of the damned in the spurious leadership that is forced upon it. And the old politicians smile.

At the alliance picnic at Palestine, Lane county, Salem furnished brains for the occasion. Rev. M. V. Rork and L. H. McMahan, were the principal speakers.

An appeal to the courts will probably have to be taken to ascertain which is the bigger man—the foreign Bishop Wigger of New Jersey, or the American ablegate Satolli.

A revised canvass of the 53d congress shows a clear majority in the house of from 40 to 50 free silver coinage. The The senate is even more strongly committed to that course.

If Princess Eulalia will come to Salem this town will go her one better than Cleveland did in putting down a new carpet for her to walk on—we will will strew her path with Oregon wild flowers.

A man was asked the other day to which one of the numerous split-up the back and ripped through the middle denominations he belonged to. He said; "None; I am a Christian."

The council readily did what was suggested in these columns. The bids for the city hall are ordered submitted June 20th instead of the 6th, advertisements having been changed, and also published at Portland. The door was too clearly open to fraud as it was and the council has corrected its errors. Every future appearance of fraud will be promptly exposed in these columns and if as promptly acted upon as in this case an honest job may be secured. THE JOURNAL would rather have the people back of it than the council.

WILLAMETTE NOTES.

Dr. J. A. Geisendorfer, late of the Jefferson Medical school of Philadelphia, and Miss D. D. Geisendorfer were at chapel Monday.

It is said that the Willamette university educational exhibit compares favorably with any other similar exhibit at the world's fair.

I. H. Van Winkle left school Wednesday to accept a position of deputy assessor in Linn county.

The first intercollegiate oratorical contest occurs in the auditorium of the First M. E church of this city, June 2, 1893. Seven colleges will be represented as follows: Willamette university, of Salem, by Miss Myrtle Marsh; University of Oregon, of Eugene, by Chas. E. Henderson, '93; State Normal, of Monmouth, by C. J. McIntosh; Pacific University, of Forest Grove, by D. H. Thomas, '93; Pacific College, of Newberg;' McMinnville College, Mc Minnville; Albany Collegeate Institute, Albany, by Miss Mary Cardiff.

Rev. C. A. Lewis, of Skamockawa, was at chapel Wednesday.

Miss Allie Davis, of Monmouth, was visiting the session rooms Wednesday.

The Monmouth delegates to the oratorical contest will probably charter a boat and bring the school over in a body to attend the exercises. We welcome them.

HEADACHE, SLEEPLESSNESS, NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Gentlemen: I take pleasure in informing you of the very beneficial results which have followed the use of DR. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVINE in the case of myself and wife. For a year I was subject to a distressing pain at the base of the brain and upper portion of the spinal cord. I lost flesh and was greatly troubled with sleeplessness. Your Nervine was highly recommended to me. My case had been so obstinate that I had no confidence in the efficacy of any medicine. Yet as a last resort I consented to give it a trial. Much to my surprise, I experienced marked benefit; my sleeplessness disappeared; my headache was removed; my spirits and general health greatly improved. I soon gained twenty pounds. All this occurred after learned and well known physicians had failed. My wife is taking the Nervine with the best of results. Louis D. Vandervere

Colorless, Emaciated, Helpless

A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Otsego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of gravel, and have since been troubled with my

Liver and Kidneys

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I was so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I feel well and am well. All who know me marvel to see me so well." D. M. JORDAN.
