THE QUEEN—Of berries is in all her glory now. She is too cheap for profit but not too cheap to be good and to be enjoyed. Strawberries now sell at 5 cents a quart by the box or wagon load. A. B. Frost brings THE JOURNAL two potent palliols all larger than walnuts. They are the peerless Sharpless variety and are hard to beat. THE JOURNAL office is almost a little strawberry show by itself these days.

DIED.—At his home in Salem, June 12, 1893, where he occupied a prominent place in a number of grocery stores, Hard State Cheese, from old age. He was possessed of great strength in his prime but became a very hard character in his old age and no one had any use for him after Clark & Eppley introduced their full cream Little Neustoca cheese, toothsome to children and grown people, sold only at the Court street grocery.

HENRY STOLEN.—Sunday night a small bay horse was stolen from the stable of T. Burrows on Liberty street. The strap with which he had been tied was left intact, as though the animal had slipped it over his head, but it is evident that a thief was committed.

SHARP THIEVES.—That is they made a good haul of sharp carpenter tools from tool chests last night. They broke in and robbed the chests of the carpenters who are building the new Thos. Stumm's residence, Plummer & Ault. Their loss is considerable.

PROHIBITION CLUB.—The regular weekly meeting of the Salem Prohibition club will be held at the W. C. T. U. hall at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. Everybody is invited.

POLICE COURT.—Recorder Edce sentenced two drunks and a hobo this morning and the trial of John Ford for assault on C. R. Brown is set for 7 p. m. today.

COOL WEATHER.—Necessitates wearing wraps. Our jacket sale continues unabated; prices cut one-third in many cases. T. Holverson & Co.

A SPECIAL INDUCEMENT.—To purchasers now offered in our jacket sale. The finest line in the city, and the greatest cut in prices. See for yourself. T. Holverson & Co.

ALL RIGHT AGAIN.—D. M. Lettsol, proprietor of the Salem saloon has been the victim of some spite-work, as he says, having been subjected to two attachment suits, both of which he has settled.

INSANE.—The following were committed today: Jos. Weeks, aged 54, of Morrow; Lester Wise, 22, of Baker; John Wood, 76, of Clatsop.

A goodly audience assembled at 8 p. m. Monday evening to hear the lecture before the literary societies by Rev. J. W. Bushong D. D., of Centenary church, East Portland. The exercises opened with a violin and piano duet excellently executed by H. A. Kruse and Miss Nellie Carpenter. After prayer by Dr. Whitaker, Lloyd T. Reynolds, president of the Philodorian society introduced Dr. Bushong, the lecturer of the evening. He announced his subject "Euse quam videri," that is "Habit in Human Nature." The speaker proceeded to analyze the psychological features of the question to illustrate and enrich the discussion by poetry, anecdote and beautiful allusion, and despite a troublesome hoarseness he entertained and instructed the audience with a very satisfactory popular lecture.

The normal and academy graduates will hold their graduating exercises this Tuesday, evening, June 13, at 8 p. m. The classes are John H. Whitaker in the Latin and scientific course, and Mattie F. Beatty, Edith G. Gwynne, Emilie A. Henry, Eva M. Spencer and Anson W. Prescott in the normal course. The following is the program:

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Hon. E. J. Harding is in the city.

Hon. W. H. Blyeu of Albany is in the city.

Hon. E. J. Harding of Fairfield was in town today.

H. G. Colton, of the Massachusetts Mutual, is in the city.

Tommy Gilbert came up from Portland this morning.

Senator Blackman, of Heppner, is in the city.

E. F. Parkhurst, the solid insurance adjuster of the state is home from Alsea bay.

W. A. Jarvis, of Strong's restaurant force, returned last evening from a visit to his fruit ranch near Portland.

"The Pride of Oregon" is the pride of Salem's best housekeepers. It is the best flour ever made, and is a home product. Always call for it.

C. A. Sehlbrede, the Roseburg attorney, is in the city attending court. He is accompanied by Mrs. Sehlbrede, who is the daughter of Hon. Geo. R. Downing, where they are guests during their stay.

THE ONE CENT DAILY MAIL JOURNAL takes like wild fire. Of course, Salem gets freight by rail and boats land here every day.

W. W. Brooks, of Brooks & Sillsbury, is at Portland where he will collect and bring to this city the prizes donated by Portland for the state shooting tournament.

Remember F. S. Dearborn, the book-seller, will present every business man a Shannon binding case, who purchases goods to the amount of 10 cents or over at his store.

Branson & Co. occupy a front seat all the time in the matter of supplying family groceries. They always lead on berries for table or canning.

Bill Chambers is not shedding any tears over the appointment of Mr. Black as collector.

Max Praecht, the Ashland peach grower, was in the city today making arrangements to place his superior fruit.

Three of the best Democrats in Oregon have been appointed by Cleveland as will be seen in our dispatches.

BORN.

COSHOW.—To Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Coshow, Monday, June 12, 1893, a son.

THE ONE CENT DAILY.

It is a great success. Let! People can hardly believe it. Many are subscribing for it out of pure curiosity. One cent! They can hardly see how it can be done. One cent a day! But it can be done. It is being done.

We are preparing to take your subscription by the year or two years. The circulation of the JOURNAL is built up to that point where it can print a penny edition and circulate it all over this state by mail. 25 cts. a month by mail.

It is the only one cent Associated Press paper on the Pacific coast. 1111

Rally for Old Willamette.

Attend the commencement exercises of grand old Willamette. Let her sons and daughters rally to her support.

Let the pioneers and newcomers rival each other in enthusiastic devotion. THE JOURNAL freely gives a column a day to reports of the exercises.

Let Salem show Portland and the world that we can support Universities and colleges as well as Woolen Mills and Canneries.

President Whitaker is proving a grand all around athlete at the head of that institution. Let us back him and show Van Scoy, Stratton & Co., that they are not running the earth!

It is Algae.

THE JOURNAL has been alone in giving the people the facts about the Shaw case.

It has been alone in giving the facts about Rev. Kellerman's attacks on the grand army and pensions.

It has been alone in giving the facts about that iniquitous blanket license ordinance.

THE JOURNAL readers will get the news about any matter of public interest, though it feels like apologizing for some of the matters it has been compelled to publish in self defense.

The Flower Show.

Mrs. Wm. Brown is chairman of the committee on arrangements of the Flower Show.

The Flower show is held at the armory Friday and Saturday of this week.

Let enthusiasm prevail. Everybody help with a few flowers. Let the armory bloom as never before. Salem is the Bouquet City. Let the world know it.

Make It Go.

Attend that Fourth of July celebration meeting tonight at Hotel Willamette at 8 p. m.

Every business man of Salem who believes in our city should be there.

Van Eaton is the man! Catch him if you can. Selling on any other plan than pure, fresh, full weight teas, coffees, Price's Extracts, and groceries generally.

Rich golden Jersey milk is being supplied by the dairy of B. J. Sharpe.

Why suffer with sick headache and biliousness when Simmons Liver Regulator will cure you.
