After the Grip

Hood's Sarsaparilla Restored Health and Strength

"Last winter I had the Grip and was quite sick. After I began to get better, being weak and run down, I concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, seeing it recommended so highly. I must say that I was more than pleased with it. I recovered my health completely in a short time and think

I Am in Better Health

than before I was sick. I feel sure that this is due to Hood's Sarsaparilla. In the package of Sarsaparilla when I opened it I found a sample box of Hood's Pills. I was surprised and delighted to find how well they agreed with me, no griping and no weakening. I have tried other kinds of pills, but have the preference every time now. I think they are just wonderful. I am glad to recommend two such good preparations as Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills." MRS. ISAIAH EMERSON, East Manchester, N. H.

SUGGESTED COMMENT.

Dean Hole, of Rochester, says that if he had not been brought up a dean, he would have liked to be either the master of a pack of hounds, the head-gardener in a big nursery, or a bookseller, with a decided preference for the last named.

Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox wears a thumb-ring, and uses five quarts of milk to one complexion bath. This may account for the milky complexion of some of her writings,

If the American people have no other way of asserting their religiousness than by closing the world's fair on Sunday they are pretty hard up.

The Tacoma Daily News conducts an intelligent and appreciative literary department, indulging in not a little original criticism.

Booth, the interpretor of Shakespeare, was the son of a theatre flower girl who raised a large family of children and would hardly be considered smart in this day.

There were good races at Independence yesterday. There was quite a time starting them, but after they were started they were fine. A good crowd should attend from Salem tomorrow.

The showers will only bring out the enterprise of the Rose Show women all the more.

POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE.

Graduating Exercises of the Friends College at Salem.

Wednesday evening occurred the graduating exercises at the Friends' Polytechnic Institute, thus completing the first school year.

The exercises were held in the newly completed chapel, which was filled to overflowing with the friends of the Institute. After an opening song by a double quartet of students, prayer was offered by Rev. J. A. Douglas. Then came the orations of the three young ladies who thus completed the grammar school course: Miss Grace Ruan spoke of "Mountains," first from a physical standpoint, afterward drawing some excellent moral lessons from them. Miss Jessie Nelson presented many well arranged thoughts on "Character and Reputation." Miss Rebecca Ruan's subject was "The Influence of Little Things," which she illustrated by examples drawn from the lives of noted men. The diplomas were then presented by President Morrison.

The address to the class was delivered by Dr. H. J. Minthorn, followed by a few remarks by J. H. Douglas.

The program was varied by vocal and instrumental music by the music instructress, Mrs Lockwood and her pupils.

The Polytechnic has not made a great stir in Salem as yet, in fact, many living beyond the sound of the subdued hum of the class rooms and the unsubdued hum and buzz of its busy wheels did not know there was such an institution. But it is here, and is doing a great work aiming, as it does, not at less of mental discipline nor less of knowledge or culture, but at the same time training the eye and hand and keeping its pupils in touch with the avocations of every day life. Although this is its first year, the Institute has enrolled over eighty pupils, and the prospect for next year indicates double that number.

Caution to Customers.

Nothing of original or superior merit but has its imitations and counterfeits, even to imperiling the health of communities. For this reason the proprietors of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters caution their patrons to scrutinize every bottle offered (and it is sold only in bottles) and verify its many marks of genuineness.

A sufficient warning to those meditating fraud can be found in the unbroken line of judicial decisions, exposing and severely punishing every one detected in counterfeiting the Bitters, and the redoubled efforts that are being made to protect the public from the deception of these unprincipled pirates.

Remember the Bitters is sold in bottles only, never by the gallon or in bulk.
