Colorless, Emaciated, Helpless

A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Otsego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of gravel, and have since been troubled with my

Liver and Kidneys

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I was so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I feel well and am well. All who know me marvel to see me so well." D. M. JORDAN.

A FREE AMERICAN SABBATH.

In countries where church and state are united in government Sunday-closing laws are possible. In free America they are impossible of enforcement, unless directed against obvious immoralities, or clearly supported by an overwhelming public sentiment.

In all our large cities Sunday amusements have been established since a score of years. Sunday opening of parks, pleasure grounds, libraries, museums, fairs, theatres, horse races, baseball has been prevalent.

Within moral bounds Sunday is the day of recreation for the toilers of the week, whether it be at the desk, in the factory, or on the farm.

The result in the federal courts over the struggles pro and con about closing the world's fair exposition grounds on Sunday must be gratifying to every lover of a free American Sabbath. Religion cannot be forced upon men by law. Its observance must be an act of free will and love.

THE ONE CENT DAILY.

Cheap paper, fast presses, swift mails are the factors that make a One Cent newspaper possible.

THE JOURNAL is the first one cent daily on the Pacific coast. Its daily mail list has nearly doubled the past week. Please notice its condensed clear pages, full local reports, late reliable news, Associated Press telegrams, and crisp editorial paragraphs.

If you believe in inexpensive, intelligent, independent journalism for the masses, circulate the ONE CENT DAILY JOURNAL. Whip out the expensive high-priced monopoly dailies.

Arms-length editorials are as much out of date as three-hour sermons.

The DAILY ONE CENT JOURNAL is firmly established. You can order it sent for one day, one week, one month, one year, for one cent a day, 25 cents a month, $3.00 a year.

No papers sent but what are paid for in advance. No commission allowed to anyone.

SUGGESTED COMMENT.

A winner—The One Cent Daily.

The postoffices at Portland and Salem are the next plums the Democrats will pick.

Chicago has the boss mayor. He can kiss anything from a colored baby to the Blarney stone.

Now for the state shooting tournament, celebration, july races and ONE CENT JOURNAL.

H. O. Mitchell, a Portland painter killed himself with morphine Friday. He was despondent.

Portland will celebrate the Fourth of July with a sham battle by the First Regiment, O. N. G. and horse races.

Half-fare railroad rates to the races at Salem, Fourth of July week. Now let the boats do as well.

Why can't the Salem street improvement cranks hold a mass meeting. There's lots of them.

The JOURNAL is easily taken in when you appeal to it along the line of any one of its unselfish enthusiasms. It's no trick at all.

A Salem paper says the city council gives it city advertisements because it knows where to find it. That is right. They always find it on the side of the sack.

The first church in Salem to establish a free kindergarten for the little ones of the poor would strike a popular vein of usefulness. There is too much money wasted on grown-up sinners.

Capt. Jenk Harding takes the ONE CENT JOURNAL and says a paper that is not worth more than one cent is not worth anything. He is right. We guarantee the ONE CENT DAILY MAIL JOURNAL to be worth two cents or refund the money.

Roseburg people resented the insult offered Capt. Sherman by the Democratic crank paper there and treated the Salem man very handsomly. Everybody there gave Capt. Sherman credit with honesty of interests in the Soldier's Home case and the Review's ungentlemanly reference to him resulted in that sheet receiving an all around castigation from the people of all parties and almost an ovation for the gentleman it assailed.

Why do you endure the agony of dyspepsia? Simmons Liver Regulator will always cure you.

C. B. MOORES REPLIES.

SALEM, June 19, 1893.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—An annonymous correspondent of your issue of Saturday last, in a rather jocular way, alludes to me as the sleek and prosperous beneficiary of a large amount of 4 per cent. boodle absorbed by me as a member of the last city council. Little pleasantries of this kind go a long way toward softening the asperities of life, and I am sorry that the extreme modesty of my friend in concealing his name makes it impossible for me to return the compliment by denouncing him personally as an unmitigated liar. If however, this writer is not a mere sensational scandal-monger, but is really in earnest in his efforts to unearth political corruption, and will call on me in the rural retreat, where in fancied security, I have recently been enjoying the proceeds of a long and successful career as a political boodler, I think I can convince him that a commission of 4 per cent. on street contracts in a town the size of Salem is a rather narrow margin on which to base any hope of great success. He ought by all means to "raise the ante" to a more respectable figure. It is a reflection upon the profession. You will agree that any man who has been for two years a member of the city council must be abnormally sensitive who objects to being called anything from a murderer to a petty larceny thief when he is abused in general terms, but when a specific charge is made it should be either met by him or admitted. Your correspondent instead of fortifying himself with facts, and then in a manly way making his charges openly over his own signature, writes under an assumed name and even then indulges only in insinuation and innuendo. We believe that honorable men everywhere have more respect for the most corrupt politician boodler than they have for the scandal monger, the peddler of street gossip and the assasin of character who will from under cover make charges by indirection which he has neither the facts to prove nor the courage to openly avow. The meaning however of your correspondent is unmistakeable. He intimates that members of the late city council, taking advantage of powers conferred upon them by the people, exacted in the way of blackmail a commission of 4 per cent from bidders for street work, and that member of the present city hall building committee are doing the same thing. This is a matter of vital concern to the public. Servants of the people, acting in a public capacity, are charged with an act which is punishable as a crime and which cannot be condoned. If the charges are untrue there is no penalty too severe for those who give them circulation, as the officials themselves suffer unjustly, and the confidence of the people in all public officials is in a measure undermined without a cause. The people need protection fully as much against those who indiscriminately vilify public officials without a cause, as they do against corrupt officials. As your correspondent has seen fit to use my name in his communication I respectfully ask him to come out from his place of concealment and give his name and make his charges specific. There should be no beating of the devil around the stump in this matter and if his intimations have any basis of fact, he should, instead of writing anonymous letters veiled in obscure language, go like a man before the grand jury which is now in session, and tell all he knows. Messrs. Mason, Smith and Goodhue, who have done all the street work for the city are here and easy of access. The records in the office of the city recorder will show all bills that have been approved and paid. If the undersigned or any other member of the council has used his public position in any way for the purpose of furthering his individual interests directly or indirectly, he should be called to account for it by an appeal to every instrument and remedy which the law provides and, all public outcry about ring and boodlers that stops short of this, and consists only of indiscriminate abuse should be treated with contempt. Will your correspondent back the charges contained in his letter by an open avowal, and an appeal to the proper authorities for a remedy for the abuses complained of? He should either do this or publicly acknowledge that all his charges are willfully malicious and without a shadow of foundation. The public are interested in this matter even more largely than are the parties accused. C. B. MOORES.

SIX SPASMS A DAY.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

GENTLEMEN: I never lose an opportunity to recommend Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine to any one afflicted with nervous complaints with the assurance that it will not disappoint them. When our boy was eighteen months old he was attacked with violent spasms, sometimes he would have five or six spasms in a single day. WE TRIED MANY PHYSICIANS WITHOUT BENEFIT; finally our druggist recommended Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. We tried a bottle, and could see that he was BENEFITED FROM THE FIRST DOSE. We used three bottles, and I am happy to say the child was ENTIRELY CURED. We used no other remedy, and his cure is complete. He is now three years old and perfectly healthy.
