THE CAPITAL JOURNAL.

PUBLISHED DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY, BY THE Capital Journal Publishing Company.

HOFFER BROTHERS, Editors.

SUGGESTED COMMENT.

The ONE CENT DAILY has a fine list at Chemawa.

You are not fashionable now unless you suspend payments a little.

The Cleveland administration continues to not solve the financial problem.

Newspaper advertising is the short cut from the buyer to the seller. No middlemen.

The editor of the Sheridan Sun is by far the boss humorist on the country press of Oregon at present.

The state of Oregon could well afford to apply the Geary law to the Wascom family of Linn county.

One-hundred and sixteen days of Democratic administration and no perceptible alleviation of financial distress.

A. Bush, of Salem, does not maintain a cottage at the seashore like those Corvallis and Albany bankers but he keeps his bank open.

The Populist papers are saying all the Cleveland appointments so far are Penney Democrats. That means Oregon Democrats.

The fruit grower is learning that he can save a whole lot of money and get his fruit to the consumer a day fresher by shipping directly to market from the fruit farm.

The people have not made much by putting an administration in power that is hostile to silver and hence helps discredit two-thirds of our country's circulating medium.

An exchange thinks the ONE CENT DAILY more enterprising than DECRET. It is a Jacksonville hardtimes offer and if Old Hickory were alive he would take it in.

In a letter on a public matter a member of the late legislature uses the expression that he "knew nothing of anything." That was strictly true of many of the members.

All last week the Albany papers were crowing like young roosters of the Corvallis failures. This week it will be Corvallis' turn to crow. Best not to crow over anyone's disaster.

Our horse news readers say this paper has the most competent race meeting writer of any paper on the coast. His reports show it and he is a perfect gentleman and much-sought-after driver.

The Gullixson failure at Portland is a surprise. He never failed in getting all he wanted of the Oregon legislature but perhaps he understood political log-rolling better than legitimate commercial transactions.

We know nothing about that way of living, but a party organ that cannot live any other way ought to be supported out of a public office. Our country could not exist without organs and politicians, three minutes.

It is no wonder banks are first to fail. They have been carrying every conceivable sort of business credits, loans, personal notes, and public paper. It is the failure of others to meet their obligations to banks that has caused the trouble.

Those who try to make a living by holding out the idea that Salem is a bad town are reminded of the fact that Saturday and Sunday furnished the police court only one poor old drunk. And he did not live here. But the police got all there is.

The financial situation at Salem is very favorable. The state treasury is in good shape. The county treasury is overflowing. City warrants and school warrants are at par. If there was any shadow of doubt of this we would not hesitate to tell the people so.

For all we hear from the Oregonian as to the Portland capitalists generously upholding public credits, it looks pretty small for Ladd & Tilton, rated at twenty millions, to not help out the Albany banks which were perfectly solvent, when a Salem firm offered to put up $2 to their $1.

It is to be hoped President Cleveland may live to enjoy his full presidential term in good health. The public sympathies with him and realize the difficulties of his great task, not the least portion of which is dealing with his own party. To be threatened with becoming an invalid is sad to contemplate.

Salem banks are not depending upon Portland financiers for backing. We have quite as big a banker as Portland ever had.

NORTH HOWELL FARMER. J. H. Baughman of Chemawa was out to his farm for a short visit last week.

Ernest and Ephraim Wilner are home from Portland where they spent the year at Portland University.

The young people who went to the Baptist social at Parkersville report the same as a success in every way.

A portable saw mill has been located in our "woods" and is turning out lumber fast.

The Brooks road has been greatly improved of late as far as the old mill on Little Pudding river.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Engle of Woodburn visited with their daughter Mrs. L. D. Roberts, Sunday.

We are informed that Mr. Baker has sold his farm to a Norwegian family who will soon move thereon.

There is great rejoicing in E. W. Baughman's family since the arrival of a daughter on the 9th. The smile of Ed would be a blessing to lots of the rest of us.

On Wednesday evening June 28th the young and old people of the M. E. church, Woodburn, held a strawberry festival, the proceeds of which will go to the church and Sunday school. A good program is being prepared and every body is invited who wishes to enjoy a sociable time and hear a good program.

June 20. Wm. Lung.

This is the queer name of a Chinese laundryman in Hartford, but he has probably two lungs, like most of us. Some crying babies seem to have a dozen. Lungs should be sound, or the voice will have a weakly sound. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes strong lungs, drives the cough away, generates good blood, tones the nerves, builds up the human wreck and cures "another man" of him. Night-coughs, blood-spitting, short breath, bronchitis, asthma, and all alarming fore-runners of consumption, are positively cured by this unapproachable remedy. If taken in time, consumption itself can be baffled.
