OUT RAILROAD RATES.

Go Into Effect East Bound on June 25th.

PORTLAND, June 22.—For the second time the Northern Pacific has put the knife into transcontinental rates and made a reduction, which, for suddenness and extreme lowness, is calculated to throw the Great Northern's cut into the shade.

Portland to St. Paul... $25 00 Portland to Chicago... 33 00 This is a cut of $10 to either city. West-bound rates will be: 1st Class 2d Class St. Paul to Portland... $25 00 $18 00 Chicago to Portland... 33 00

MR. CHARLTON'S EXPLANATION.

Mr. Charlton was asked for an explanation of the unexpected reduction last evening, and said: "The cut was evidently made for the purpose of stimulating immigration. It has long been said that there were thousands of immigrants in the East who would come West but for the high second-class rates. We give them a first-class passage for one-third of the former price, or one-half of the old second-class rate, and a second-class service for less than one-half of the old rate. This should bring a large immigration, and if it does not, the only inference will be that there are no immigrants in the East who desire to come West."

Circus Smashed.

RIVER FALLS, Wis., June 22.—A terrific thunder storm raged here yesterday afternoon. Just as Ringling's circus had finished its performance and people were passing out a heavy bolt of lightning struck one of the center poles of the tent and more than fifty people were prostrated. Seven were killed instantly. Many more were injured and the balance are now regaining the use of limbs which were temporarily paralyzed by the shock.
