NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.—The bids for the new school house to be erected at Albany were opened by the directors Thursday. Bids from Salem contractors were as follows: Hutchins & Southwick, Salem, $14,470; Craven & Olinger, Salem, $14,197; C. D. Willson, Salem, $15,400. The contract was ordered let to Craven & Olinger, of Salem. The firm offered to subtract $300 from their bid provided Pioneer stone might be used for the basement.

A NOVEL AFFAIR.—The following handbill from Kingfisher, Okl., will remind many an old time Salemite of jovial scenes here in an early day: "Great Indian Dance! June 4th, 1898. At Johnnie Moore's Place, on the N. E. 2-4-9 1/2 S. Plenty of good shade and water, Trail Dance, War dance, Squaw dance, Ghost dance. Dances to take place from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m. Everybody invited! Come early! Indian Feast 25 cents admittance."

THE WORLD MOVES.—People cannot be too careful in driving along or across electric railroad tracks. The electric car is dividing the right of way with horse-drawn vehicles. Although the latter were here first, progress demands the use of the improved facilities of travel. The bicycle is dividing the walks with pedestrians and flying machines will be along next to hustle the world another notch.

RATHER LATE.—Here is a case of very close to the twelfth hour repentance: People at Drain Sunday, June 11, witnessed a scene that does not often occur. An old man was there baptized by immersion into the Christian church. He has passed the century post in life, being nearly 102 years of age. Mr. Brown is in feeble health, requiring assistance to get around. He says he has lived long enough and would meet death with feelings of pleasure.—Albany Democrat.

PROBATE.—The inventory of W. H. Scollard, executor of the will of Margaret Scollard, has been filed in probate court. The amount of real and personal property is $7,897.50, there being 192 acres of land appraised at $40 an acre, aggregating $7,680. J. Vorhees, John McCormick, and Felix Seguin were the appraisers.

WILL PRACH.—Rev. M. L. Rugg, of Seattle, formerly pastor of the Baptist church, of this city, will preach next Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Rugg is an eloquent speaker, and his many old friends will be glad of another opportunity to hear him. Children's day exercises will be held at 12 m., instead of the Sunday school.

POSTPONED.—Owing to inclement weather yesterday and the dampness of the lawn last evening, the lawn party of St. Joseph's Society at the Catholic church was postponed until Saturday evening. The Second Regiment band will give a concert on the lawn and a general good time will be had. A programme of the band concert, which will be a very fine one, will be published tomorrow.

THE BIG FOUR.

Fred Dimler's Hack Carried Off by Colored Men.

Fred Dimler of North Salem, a poor man and badly disabled since years, hired his valuable hack to four colored men about six weeks ago. They were to pay 75 cents a day, and at the end of the first week came back to Salem and paid him $2.00.

Since then they have not paid a cent and have not reported or shown up. They call themselves the Big Four and give minstrel and musical performances in small towns. Last night they were to be at or near Eugene.

Mr. Dimler has no means of earning money but by hiring his hack. He wants it returned. He has no means to hire a lawyer or employ officers. The four men are clearly absconders and should be overhauled and forced to return the hack and pay up. The JOURNAL has telegraphed to Lane county and other points and expects to be able to hear from them soon.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

PORTLAND, June 23.—If there ever was any anxiety on the part of Portland people regarding their deposits in banks of this city, it would have been dispelled by the sight of the arrival yesterday and Wednesday of an immense amount of gold coin from New York. Three express-wagon loads of shining twenties, tens and fives were taken from the trains at the union depot and distributed among certain banks. No display whatever was made over the affair; the bankers looked upon it as a simple occurrence.

TACOMA, Wash., June 23.—Final details of the deal by which the city becomes the possessor of light and water plants were concluded at a meeting of the council. The mayor, comptroller and city attorney will leave tomorrow for New York, taking the $2,080,000 worth of bonds for payment. They will be delivered in New York to the National Union bank. They were purchased by C. B. Wright, of Philadelphia.

DAYTON, Or., June 23.—M. W. Tallman, a warehouseman of this place, left for Portland, ostensibly on a business trip, last Monday morning. Since then nothing has been heard of him. It is now believed his business methods have been crooked for months past. His warehouse, in which a large amount of grain belonging to farmers in this section was stored, is found to be empty. Many people who have lately sold him grain and wool have received no payment, and the public are generally victimized. He is supposed to have gone to Canada.

CHEHALIS, Wash., June 23.—County Clerk W. H. Kenoyer was the victim of a serious accident. He was thrown from a wagon and rendered insensible. When picked up and carried to his home, it was found he had sustained a fracture of one of his legs. He was not seriously injured otherwise, but will be unable to attend to his duties at the court house for several weeks.
