PRICE OF DAILIES.

Following are the mail prices of the Pacific coast daily newspapers: wny Democrat San Francisco Dailies $6.00 to 10 00 Daily Oregonian 12 00 THE ONE CENT DAILY, per year $3 00

It will be seen that the ONE CENT DATLY costs just half what is charged by any other daily newspaper on the Pacific Coast. THE ONE CENT DAILY is a complete newspaper, has the Associated Press report, intelligent, independent editorial opinion, complete market report, all state capital news. Try it.

THE FINANCIAL TURNOIL.

It is working itself out. But like s volcano bursting with melting lava, causing the world to tremble with earthquakes, upheaving the ses in tidal waves of destruction, it is causing end less muchief.

As this journal has often stated, the finance system of our country is a patchwork of legislation upon a foundation forced upon the country by boridholders in time of war. It is not an adequate elastic system such as would be deliberately adopted to suit the business pecessities of a great commercial nation in times of peace.

The president and his finance secre tary and cabinet declare they are helpless, and refer the depressed commercial interests and languishing industries to a congress knowing little or nothing of finance or business interests.

The country has good crops, is at peace, and can probably stand the strain of further agitation.

CORRUPTION IN CITY GOVERNMENT.

This is undoubtedly the greatest evil that besets a city government. On every hand the cormorant of private greed seeks to insert his bill. No set of W. Gray and C. D. Gabrielson. men serving the city for pay or free gratis can entirely prevent it.

Nevertheless, it is the duty of the press to guard against corruption and Z. M. Parvin, Rev. J. H. B. Royal and clearly and without mincing matters A. N. Gilbert. future frauds. After the horse is stolen Mrs. T. Lockley and Theo. Nolf. it is useless for the press to declare the theft, when it is too late to-recover.

In two instances in letting the city lins, Mrs. L. Larned, Mrs. Pentland hall contract The Journal has felt and W. F. Boothby. the council has promptly corrected and D. C. Sherman.

For this they deserve credit. It should always be remembered that in seeking to promote public enterprise, erect publie buildings and make street improvements, the members of the city gov-erment have pitted against them all C. Progress and Cookery.

"The World Moves."

There is no better illustration of this old saying than the numerous schools nowa-days devoted to practical kitchen processes. These schools have been alert to find a reasonable substitute for lard, the use of which is so generally condemned. This want has been fully met by the new vegetable Lard. When science strikes the kitchen, it strikes home and everybody gets the benefit. Cottolene is a clean, delicate and economical substitute for Lard-cleaner than the hog, delicate as the finest vegetable oil, economical from its low price and small quantity required to be used.
