DENVER PANICKY

The Old German National Bank Fails.

WHITE-FACED SEA OF DEPOSITORS.

Banks Fail to Open for Lack of Cash.

Senator Teller Thinks Sherman Law Will Go

BUT A BETTER ONE WILL TAKE ITS PLACE.

Feverish Speculation in New York.

France Offers Siam a Twenty-four Hour Ultimatum.

The Denver Panic.

DENVER, July 18.—The panic in this city was resumed this morning with renewed vigor. As a result the old German National bank, with a reputation for stability of twenty years' standing, the equally reputable State National and extremely strong People's National failed this morning. All night depositors stood in line in front of the German National and by 9 o'clock one long sea of faces was stretching down the street. At the opposite corner where the State National has long done business, was also a crowd of anxious depositors. Here people were relieved of doubt, when at 9 o'clock notice was posted on the door of the bank that it would not open owing to lack of ready cash.

At the German National just before opening in a notice was posted on the window stating the doors were closed temporarily. This notice caused a distressing scene. Men and women down the long line broke out in tears and wailing. The run on all the remaining banks in the city is renewed. Reliable people, however, say there will be no more suspensions.

DENVER, July 19.—Senator Teller, in an interview upon the financial situation in this city, says: "There is no one reason to which the trouble can be charged. It is partly silver, but more to general depression that is affecting the entire country. The bank failures yesterday are unwarranted, and directly chargeable to people who became frightened, panic stricken at a shadow. There is nothing less fair than to blame all our ills to silver. Much better blame some to silver speeches."

Teller expressed the belief that the Sherman law be repealed, but not without a substitute of greater benefit to silver.

Gray wrote slowly and with much apparent labor. The few poems he produced were all polished to the highest possible point.

Bulwer wrote in retirement. When he had a good subject for a story, he would go out of town until the novel had been finished.

THE STOCK MARKET.
LONDON, July 19.—Stocks opened unchanged, declined and then advanced sharply on large buying orders from London.

Feverish in New York.
NEW YORK, July 19.—Stocks opened better, an advance of 1/2 to 3 immediately took place, but the latter improvement was partially lost. Toward 11 o'clock selling exhausted itself and the market began to mend. The break is credited to liquidation for an account of a prominent bull operator. Then London stopped selling and a rally took place.

Another reaction occurred after 11. At noon the speculation is feverish.

Favorable Resumption.

PONOMA, Cal., July 19.—Peoples bank reopened this morning with plenty of coin. Only four dollars were drawn out the first hour. Deposits are liberal.

Weather and Passes.

CHICAGO, July 19.—The weather continues clear and cool, with a comforting breeze from the lake. The Brazilian building is one of the handsomest of the Foreign structures on the grounds, and was dedicated today. Owing to the fact that it has been discovered that several thousand single admission newspaper passes to the world's fair have been stolen, the management this morning cancelled all these passes, and will get out a new lot. A number representing stolen passes have been arrested.

Fire at Marion.

MARION, Or., July 19.—[Special.]—A fire broke out in Marion last night at 12 o'clock which burned the entire block west of the depot to the ground. Mr. J. W. Lane was the principal loser, all the buildings, including the livery barn, carriage rooms, shoe shop, and met market belonged to him. He lost all his buggies, harness, etc. The houses were all turned out in the evening. Cause of fire unknown. Insurance $800. Probable loss $1500.

A Success.

China Refuses Reparation.

LONDON, July 19.—Adispatch from Shanghai says the Chinese government has refused to make reparation for the killing of Wilkham, Swedish missionary, by mob in Macheng. Foreigners in Hankow, 60 miles from Macheng and Snaghai, were summoned to attend a mass meeting for the purpose of calling on the European powers to compel China to respect her treaties and punish the viceroy of the province and the authorities of the city in which the murder was committed. The correspondent says the situation promises trouble.

What It Means.

PARIS, July 19.—Figaro says the terms of the French ultimatum to Siam demands that Siam evacuate the left bank of the Mekong river, give guarantees for the faithful performance of the treaty obligations, and pay indemnity for outrages on the French. The claim takes in the western bank of the Mekong river, giving France both banks and the entire control of it for most of its length, practically coming to border on the British territory.

Big Fur Seal Catch.

WASHINGTON July 19.—A dispatch reporting arrival of a ship at Valparaiso with a cargo of 60,000 seal skins taken at an unknown point in the Antarctic ocean was shown Prof. Goode, the well known expert of the Smithsonian Institution, who replied: "It is not at all improbable that such a catch was made. Fur seals occur on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of South America about the southern extremity and on all outlying islands. They have been found in fact at all the islands making up the chain of the Pelagic islets, stretching somewhat interruptedly from Cape Horn and Falkland islands eastward to Australia and New Zealand. The seal fisheries rookeries in that part of the world, however have been practically abandoned some years ago owing to Britain's failure to protect the seals so they became almost extinct and did not pay for the time and trouble spent in hunting them. Maybe these years of comparative safety have resulted in restoration of seal life to the former extent. If so, I wonder if Great Britain will undertake to protect the rookeries now?"

Corbett Must Go.

CHICAGO, July 19.—The circuit court today refused to issue an injunction restraining the world's fair management from prohibiting James J. Corbett's show on midway plaisance.

Insurgents Lose Their Way.

VALPARAISO, July 19.—The capture of the Italia wipes out the insurgent squadron and forces them again to depend for success on their land forces. Apparently undismayed by the loss of their navy, the land forces of the revolutionists in Rio Grande do Sul have become more aggressive than ever. Generals Saraiva, Tavares and Salgado have combined their forces and are now besieging Yaguaron City. The town is well defended and its capture will be difficult.

The Brazilian legation in Montevideo received official confirmation of the reported capture of the steamer Jupiter, with Wandekoik on board. The cruiser Republica, which overhauled her, is expected to reach Rio Janeiro to night with the prisoners. It is reported that the attempted revolution in Rio Janeiro has failed.
