LOCAL DATES.

Saturday, Aug. 5.—State Dairymen's convention, court house, 10 a. m.

AN ATTACK BEGINS.—It was not expected that anything would come of the action of the city council the other evening in ordering the police to enforce the city laws against houses of prostitution. An effort will be made to drive out the new one that was started in the block north of the Willamette hotel. A warrant was issued this morning for the arrest of Mattie Richardson, for keeping a house of ill-fame at the rear of the lot on which the Simon cigar store stands. The complaint was made by an adjoining property holder for the purpose of driving her out.

BADLY FRIGHTENED.—Last night as four young ladies on Front street were irrigating the yard, a lady and gentleman passed; the force being very strong some of the spray fell on the lady's shoulder, her companion resented this, and turning, frightened them all by saying: "If you ever do such a thing again, I will break your neck." Emphasizing his remark with an oath. The young ladies, now very pale, fastened the doors securely and spent half the night in watching for his return to carry out his threat.

BIG ESTATE.—The appraisal of the estate of the late W. S. Ladd, the Portland banker, was filed in the county court. The total valuation was as follows: Realty, $4,126,250; personal property, $3,373,908.95; total, $7,500,159.95. The appraisers of the estate are: Henry Failing, John Catlin and J. McL. Wood.

SUPREME COURT.—The judges of the Oregon supreme court are closing up a ten months' session of work and preparing their final opinions to be handed down Monday. Then the court will adjourn. All other cases left over will be filed up for the next term, and the judges will gambol in the surf, climb the mountain sides for trout or roast at the world's fair.

A FINE RECORD.—The capital city can feel proud to have gone through the present crisis without a bank or business failure of any kind. If this record is kept up it will be a great feather in Salem's cap. To be on a solid city out of a thousand would boost us up not a little.

STATE FUNDS.—All state warrants are paid on presentation at the state treasury. There is plenty of money to do it with and that means a great deal for the state treasury transactions average $100,000 a month and over.

PRETTY PREY.—Elmer Worick, who has been out on a government surveying trip with A. Gesner, captured a fawn which is now about three months old and perfectly tame. He brought it down to Salem with him and it will be kept for a pet.

PANIC OR NO PANIC.—It's all the same with the rushing Court street grocers, Clark & Eppley, who are succeeding because they strive to please their customers and "get there."

FRANCE OR SIAM?—But before that, and all other questions comes your grocer. If J. A. Van Eaton is supplying you, all right, your safe and sound to be pleased.

COUNTY WARRANTS.—The county warrants of many counties in Washington, Idaho, and a few in Oregon, are not being received by banks at Post, land.

FIVE DAYS EACH.—Times are not so hard but four men could afford to get drunk and be bound over five days each.

Hurrah for Buffalo Bill and Carter Harrison.

CHICAGO, July 28.—Yesterday was the day set apart by Mayor Harrison for an outing for the poor children in the city, and, as mayor, he asked that they be allowed to see the world's fair, in which the corporation of the city of Chicago has $5,000,000 invested. Their admission, however, was declined. Buffalo Bill's Wild West show is a private concern and under no obligation to the city of Chicago. Colonel Cody, however, so soon as he heard that the world's fair knew no "open sesame" for the poor children, made up his mind he would have them, and today 15,000 girls and boys from the slums and alleys marched in procession through the streets, were given a free ride by the Illinois Central road to Sixty-third street, and were royally entertained by Buffalo Bill, who gave them the most glorious day in all the history of Chicago waifdom.

Grant's Pass Items.

GRANT'S PASS, Or., July 28.—Two tramps giving the names of Moore and McKinnon were arrested for breaking into the house of Rev. J. P. Coleman and stealing several household articles. At their examination they were held to await the action of the grand jury.

Mrs. J. H. Williams died Sunday night and the funeral services were held in the Bethany church, under the auspices of the Daughters of Rebecca. The deceased leaves a husband and three children.

Flood Loss.

PUEBLO, Col., July 28.—Seven lives lost in the flood here. Financial loss a quarter of a million.

Murdered His Wife.

ASTORIA, Or., July 28.—Mrs. Caroline Hansen was murdered in a patch of raspberry bushes near her home Wednesday evening. She was found face down, her skull crushed in, and the head resting in a pool of blood, which was still warm. She was a quiet, good old woman, against whom no mortal could be expected to hold either enmity or jealousy; and neither just nor gain could have incited her slayer to the dreadful deed. The scene of the murder was the family residence on Bear creek, 10 miles from this city. There were no tramps or desperate characters about, and the evidence at the coroner's inquest is conclusive that her killing simply amounted to wanton murder.

The general opinion is that her husband, John Hansen, now under arrest on suspicion, committed the foul deed. The murdered woman was struck from behind, a stalwart arm swung the axe and a cold-blooded fiend left the body where it fell.

Wednesday, soon before her death, Mrs. Hansen told her niece she believed her husband would kill her. Hansen drank heavily and was known to have frequently quarreled with his wife. There was some talk of lynching among the settlers and the suggestion made that Hansen be strung up to a tree with a view to securing a confession, but the sheriff's presence deterred the men from acts of violence.

Suicide of a Maharajah.

BRINDISI, July 28.—Maharajah Tal Braga committed suicide by poison on his arrival here by steamer. It is supposed the cause of the act was the theft of a casket containing all his jewels and money. He was 19 years old.

Reducing Expenses.

ST. PAUL, July 28.—The appeals of the Northern Pacific stockholders for more economical management have induced President Oakes to make a retrenchment. Wednesday thirty men were discharged from the auditing department alone. Other departments will be cut down in proportion. The train service has also been greatly reduced. The management says that a reduction of expenses is made necessary by the reduced rates which the Great Northern have compelled them to make and also by the difficulty experienced in floating $12,000,000 of bonds which are now on the market.

The French-Siamese War.

NEW YORK, July 28.—It is learned through authoritative Russian sources that the Russian fleet now at New York are under orders to join the French Mediterranean squadron at Toulon. It was also stated that three of the Russian warships now here have received preparatory orders which may cause them to continue, after reaching Toulon, to East India waters. The informant, when asked if the orders had any connection with the Siam imbroglio, professed entire ignorance. This ignorance was emphasized by a peculiar shrug of the shoulders. The date of sailing will depend upon cable orders from St. Petersburg.

BANGKOK, July 28.—The French fleet gave notice of a blockade yesterday. All outgoing vessels are being warned to clear by Saturday or be tied up. The blockade extends along the entire north coast of the gulf. There is little doubt among foreigners that it is the French intention to make Siam a French colony, and unless England intervenes there is little hope that the French will desist from extreme measures, although it is well known to them that the government of Siam is exceedingly anxious to avoid war.

LONDON, July 28.—The Pall Mall Gazette says it learns from high authority that the Franco-Siamese difficulty has been settled and that France has agreed to accept Siam's proposals and abandon her claims to territory between the 18th and 23d parallels.

PARIS, July 28.—A local paper publishes a St. Petersburg dispatch saying the czar has ordered Vice-Admiral Tirovich, commander of the Russian Pacific Squadron, to proceed to Siam with all available speed. It is understood Russia intends to remain neutral in the Franco-Siamese dispute.

A country paper tells of a beautiful, amiable, fascinating and immensely wealthy young lady in a village in the country, who carefully conceals the knowledge of her wealth, wears cheap clothes and works in a millinery shop, waiting for an interesting young man to woo and win her "for herself alone." ### Murderous Officials Executed.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 28.—Colonel Jose Andrade, who, during the administration of the late General Manuel Gonzalez as governor of Guanajuato, was jefe politico of the Penagorda district in that state, was arrested a few days ago on the charge of committing a number of atrocious crimes while serving in his official capacity. It was alleged he shot a number of innocent persons without a trial. Upon being arrested Colonel Andrade was conveyed to the city of Leon, where he was given a trial. He was found guilty of the charges against him and ordered to be shot. When the death sentence was pronounced, the prisoner stated that he was ready to meet his fate and that he would demonstrate that he was no coward. He was shot at daylight in a public square of the city, the execution being witnessed by hundreds of people.

"Let me alone," said Kate; "see if I don't make some man give me a seat!" Selecting a meek looking gentleman with the married air about him, she walked up briskly and exclaimed:

"Why, Mr. Smith, I'm so glad to see you. What's that! Take your seat! Oh, no—well, I am tired, I won't deny."

Meek Looking Gentleman (with a twinkle in his eye)—Ah, it is you, Mary, is it! Did not suppose your mistress could spare you on washing day. You must be tired. Sit down. Kate got the seat, but somehow she feels that the meek looking gentleman is not beaten at all points.—Boston Transcript.
