A GUN ACCIDENT.—Last evening William Hannibal, a well known farmer of Benton county, residing across the Willamette, had just returned home from a hunt, and was taking his shotgun from the wagon, when the hammer struck something, discharging the gun, all the contents lodging in one of his arms, shattering it in a terrible manner.

DIRECT PURCHASES.—The New York Racket is receiving this week, a large lot of all kinds of goods in their line direct from New York. Such as hats, buck and other leather gloves, for harvest work, underwear for ladies and gents, overalls, all kinds of dress and work shirts, hosiery, dress staves and notions of all kinds and a large lot of shoes of best make direct from St. Louis to be sold at racket prices.

THE MESSAGE.—It was first given to the people in the JOURNAL and met with general favor. The bulletin board had an anxious crowd around it. The first copy of the message struck off was pated up so that all who could not afford to buy a paper could read it anyhow.

NO MARKET.—Business men who have a few hundred dollars of spare money can do well to invest in oats and other grains for which there is no market. Oats went begging in this county yesterday at 20 cents.

HOPS.—Scarcity of money is depressing hops locally. Unless there is relief hops will drop. G. W. Hubbard, who returned from up the valley today, bought 76 bales of hops in Lane county for 15 cents. That is all he will offer on new contracts.

FRUIT PALACE.—The state board of agriculture has offered $100 towards a fine fruit palace this year. It is to be moved, painted and made such a show as never was seen in Oregon.

CAPTURED.—The convict who ran away from the pen, was recaptured last night and returned to the prison about 5 o'clock. He loses all his good time of about two months.

SPEAKER CRISP.—Will be a very busy man for some months, but no busier than J. A. Van Eaton, the big grocer, for he has more people to look out for than Crisp.

MUSIC.—Investigate the merits of Willamette conservatory of music if you intend to spend money on the musical education of your children.

HARVEST.—Some farmers who have not held enough are experiencing great difficulty in getting money to harvest their crops.

FOR YOUR FINGER.—On a blue box key any hour, day or night, and you'll get instant messenger service from Lookwood's.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

If you are going East order the ONE CENT DAILY for a week or six months at 25 cents a month.

A 100-pound halibut was caught off the wharf at Newport a few days ago. This is the first one that has been seen in Yaquina bay, we understand.

The Oregonian says Portland is exceptionally blessed with prosperity and that there is no cause for gloom. Facts that are probably true, yet which read very peculiarly after six or seven bank failures.—Exchange. That city is so prosperous it has to keep back $300,000 of the people's money to do business with.

Salem visitors: Frank Davy, Forest Grove; Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Johnson, Mehama; Chas. Piper and Mabel Weller of Portland.
