A TORPEDO THROWN

To Cripple the National Bank System

CAUSES THE SENATE TO ADJOURN.

Sherman Wants the Currency of Banks Increased.

McCREARY OPENS THE SILVER DEBATE

New Scheme for Temporary Financial Relief by a Buffalo Bank.

The Senate Adjourns.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The unexpected decision of the senate to adjourn yesterday is believed to have been due to a torpedo thrown into the senate by Butler, of South Carolina, yesterday, in shape of an amendment to the bank circulation bill repealing the state bank tax, thereby alarming senators who desire speedy action on the measure, and who feared that the amendment might carry and thus cripple the national bank system. They accordingly permitted the adjournment.

Situation Growing Better.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Senator Sherman, in a letter to an Ohio friend, says he thinks it best for congress to move slowly until something effective can be done. The financial situation is gradually becoming better and the belief is becoming general that all that is wanted is to increase the currency of the National banks and the suspension of further purchases of silver. The latter, he does not regard as important, except to dissipate the fears of capitalists that we are coming to a single silver standard.

Debate Opened.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Silver debate in house opened today by McCreary Ky., in favor of repeal.

The Plan of Relief.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The city bank of Buffalo has devised a new scheme for temporary relief of the financial stringency. Briefly stated, the plan is for the city bank to issue New York drafts in uniform sums of $1, $2, $5 and $10 payable to the bearer, and let them be passed from hand to hand as cash, until it becomes convenient to redeem them in the government currency.

Financial Statement.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Bank statement, reserve $4,499,000, loans decreased $5,255,000, specie increased $4,728,000, deposits $1,901,000. In banks now $12,045,000 below rule. To make their future home. Increased circulation for the week, three million, three hundred and fifty thousand dollars. The statement was received with cheers by brokers, when read on change.

People's Party on Silver.

SYLVAN BEACH, N. Y., Aug. 19.—The People's party convention this morning adopted a platform reiterating allegiance to three basic planks of the Omaha platform. Safe and sound flexible national money, which shall be a full legal tender, with free and unlimited coinage, silver and gold at 16 to 1. Increase in circulation of mediums 50 per cent.

Per capita platform declares the present distress is the result of lost confidence, induced by the wall of capitalists over the exportation of gold, and urgently demands the construction of the public works for the unemployed.

Applications for Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The following applications for appointment have been filed here: J. D. Campbell of Astoria, Or., for inspector of bulls, first district of Oregon; Jerome Brizzolari of Tacoma, immigrant inspector.

Not Federated Labor.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—In speaking of the movement said to have been inaugurated in St. Louis of urging all the unemployed from the west to move on to Washington and by means of a tremendous demonstration force congress to provide relief for the needy classes, Herman Schultz, a prominent member of the local federation labor says federation labor is not at the bottom of the movement. It is the direct result of agitation by a lot of cranks, socialists and anarchists endeavoring to create trouble.

Mohammedans and Hindoos.

BOMBAY, Aug. 19.—This being Mohammedan prayer day, there was a general expectation of further troubles between the members of that sect and the Hindoos. The authorities stationed troops and artillery before the mosque resorted to by the Mohammedans and patrolled all the thoroughfares by soldiers.

Poll Books Stolen.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 19.—The poll books of nine precincts in the 6th ward, elect book, cash book and private memoranda were stolen from the committee room of the Republican city committee, about midnight last night. There is great indignation on the part of the Republicans.

Waite Softening.

CHAUTAQUA, N. Y., Aug. 19.—At Grange today Governor Waite of Colorado was the chief speaker, addressing himself to the silver question and closing with these words: "We of the West don't intend to wade in blood or anything of this kind, but let this oppression on the part of the East continue and then let any candidate of your old parties go before the people in 1896 on a platform of protection when the West has received no protection and he will not receive an electoral vote west of Ohio or south of the Potomac."

Gen. Weaver Speaks.

ERIE, Pa., Aug. 19.—General J. B. Weaver of Ohio was entertained here today by the free-coinage element. He addressed a farmers' picnic of 3000 workmen. He attributed the present stringency of the times to the insufficiency of the volume of money to the necessities of commerce, and said that the free coinage of silver in America is a panacea.

UNEMPLOYED IN NEW YORK.

Growing Restless and Listening to Inflammatory Speeches.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The unemployed, principally those concerned in yesterday's demonstration, held a continued meeting in Golden Rule hall, Irvington street. Emma Goldman, wife of Bergman, the man who tried to kill H. C. Frick in Pittsburgh, made a speech of the most inflammatory nature telling the men, among other things, that if they wanted bread not to suffer but to go and get it. A committee was appointed to arrange for a monster parade of workmen throughout the work quarters of the city. An anarchist named Blanck made an incendiary address. There will be a big mass meeting.

Henry Villard Speaks.

BOSTON, Aug. 19.—The story of a sensational suit brought in Philadelphia against four directors of the Northern Pacific for malfeasance in office was shown today to one of them, Edwin H. Abbott, who said it was all rot. "It is merely an attempt to influence proxies at the coming election in October," he said.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The following letter from Henry Villard was received at the meeting of the directors of the Northern Pacific railway yesterday. It relates to the charges brought by John Swope, a stockholder of the company:

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Thomas F. Oakes, president of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company—Dear Sir: I duly received your favor enclosing the communication of Messrs. Read and Pettit, made in behalf of John Swope, of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, and bearing the date of the 4th inst. I desire to immediately place on record my unofficial denial of the charges made, so far as they in any way relate to me, and to make more emphatic my statement I hereby present to you my affidavit on the subject as requested by the counsel, who will show you how absolutely unwarranted it would be to subject me to the annoyance and expense of litigation over matters in which I took no part. Yours truly,
H. VILLARD.

The affidavit requested by the company was appended.

Illegal Pensions.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Late Deputy Commissioner of Pensions Lincoln, who is a candidate for commander-in-chief of G. A. R., is authority for the statement that an effort will soon be made in the courts to declare the suspension of pensions granted under the act of June 27th, '90, illegal.

Feeding Laboring Men.

FRESNO, Cal., Aug. 19.—The event of today in this city is the feeding of laboring men at the free labor bureau. Two hundred were served.

Hop Market.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Hops are very quiet; brewers trade is moderate, export orders are light. Best Pacific's are quoted at 2 1/2c, European markets are firm on unfavorable crop prospects.

Ecuador Wants War.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The World's Panama cable says: There is a peculiar clamor in Ecuador for a declaration of war against Peru to take revenge for atrocities said to have been committed by the Peruvians during the dispute over the boundary, and in violation of the status quo. The Peruvian consul here officially denies the rumor. Peru would be unable to respond to a challenge to fight on account of troubles at home.

Trouble Among Laborers.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says in the fight between the French and Italian workmen in Algiers-Morles yesterday at least fifty were killed and 150 wounded. The trouble grew out of a dispute over wages paid the different nationalities.

Union Pacific Rates.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—The Union Pacific today gave notice that on next Sunday it would put into effect the $25 first class and $18 second-class rates from Missouri river points to Butte, Helena, Portland and Spokane. The same first-class rate applies East bound.

Business Men Talk.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—An officer of the board of trade states that a call for a meeting of the business men of the country, at Washington for the purpose of demanding immediate and unconditional repeal of the purchase clause of the Sherman silver act will probably be issued by the board within a few days.

The Bodies Recovered.

COLFAX, Wd., Aug. 19.—Word was received here this morning that all the missing bodies from the wreck of the steamer Annie Faxon have been recovered. It was reported that Mohr, one of the deck hands, who escaped injury, was drowned while in bathing this morning at Lewiston.

Prominent Portlander Arrested.

PORTLAND, Aug. 19.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of John L. Ayer, manager of the New England Building, Loan and Investment company. It is charged that Ayer hyped the cated eleven thousand dollars worth of the company's stock to his own account. Ayer, it will be remembered, figured in this city about two years ago, in local politics.

Stocktonians vs. Chinese.

STOCKTON, Cal., Aug. 19.—Yesterday some excitement was caused here when a meeting of laboring men was held on Hunter square to take up the anti-Chinese movement and run the Chinese out of Stockton. Officers were appointed of the meeting and were stationed in the crowd to stop any unlawful demonstration. The uprising ended in the talk of one man and a promise to assemble again tomorrow night and notify the Chinese to leave.

No Quarters for Mongolians.

FRESNO, Cal., Aug. 19.—Last night sixty men started for Roeding's nursery, seven miles west of here, to force the Chinamen employed there to leave. Sheriff Booth and an armed posse went in pursuit of the men, and overtook them near Roeding's. The sheriff read the riot act to the raiders, and making all return to town, where they arrived at 2:30 this morning. Some of the raiders were armed, and were inclined to be warlike, but soon subsided. The sheriff says he will arrest all the leaders.

New Mode of Exit.

WICHITA, Kas., Aug. 19.—Joseph Weirich, a farmer living west of this town, nearly succeeded in killing himself Wednesday in a curious fashion. He was found sitting on a freshly dug grave with his head and shoulders above the surface, putting the earth in over himself. Within his reach was a bottle labeled laudanum, which would doubtless have been emptied but for the timely arrival of a searching party.

It should be made a crime against the people to trifle with their taxes.

Thousands of Forged Stamps.

J. W. Palmer, a resident of London, has a room which is papered with 70,000 forged stamps. The place looks like an intoxicated mosaic, and Mr. Palmer, who is probably the most widely known stamp collector in the world, recently told a writer that if the collection was genuine it would be worth $5,000,000. The forgeries represent every known stamp and were found in collections which Mr. Palmer purchased during his 35 years' experience as a collector. To collect the 70,000 forged stamps took almost 30 years. To make wall paper out of them kept four pairs of hands busy for three months. They are pasted upon canvas, so that in order to remove the stamps it will not be necessary to remove the building.

Paste, not gum, has been used, as gum discolors stamps. Having been fastened to the canvas, the stamps were treated to a coat of shellac and were then varnished. In the "Chamber of Philatelic Horrors," as Mr. Palmer calls it, is a flat topped desk. Instead of leather, the top is inlaid with postage stamps. These are genuine, and they number 1,440. Near the desk stands a screen. It is about 5 feet high and 6 feet long. Both sides are covered with stamps. The most valuable among the forgeries is a Brattleboro, an American stamp of the face value of 5 cents. If it were genuine it would be worth $1,250. A genuine, Brattleboro was sold by Mr. Palmer for that amount.—Pall Mall Budget.

Squire Abington's Good Deed.

Some years ago a letter was handed to Mr. Baird written by the wife of a former friend. In this the lady informed him that her husband was dangerously ill in Paris, and that they had unfortunately reached the end of their resources. Under these circumstances she ventured to ask for assistance. Without a moment's hesitation Mr. Baird summoned the most eminent physician of the day, and having stated the circumstances he handed him a blank check, with orders to proceed forthwith to Paris, and at whatever cost to bring the invalid man back to England—completely cured.

His orders were carried out to the letter, and three weeks later his friend returned to London accompanied by the doctor, smothered literally from the grave by Abington Baird's generous impulse and genuine kind heartedness. After this let the over righteous stop their cackling criticisms concerning the poor lad who while he befriended many, was his own worst enemy.—London Truth.

The Faithfulness of Dogs.

The historic dogs of France were no time servers. They took little heed of reverse of fortune or change of dynasty, well content if allowed to attend their owners in prison or palace, to the throne or the scaffold. Lord Bacon says, "Take an example of a dog and mark what a generosity and courage he will put on when he finds himself maintained by a man who to him is in the stead of a god." A dog has no wish to command. 'Ich dien' is their motto, and more willing, easily remunerated servants it is impossible to find. Their fidelity is proverbial; their constancy is not to be bought. If there is a life beyond this for them as well as for their masters, they will not only love them "to the death" here, but "out beyond into the dream to come."—Art Journal.

Seaweed Island Priests.

It is said that the Kahunas were wild and weird in their methods, their gesticulations and howling when an extra healthy victim did not take kindly to the scheme of praying him into the grave being something terrible to witness and hear. The most recent victim of frenzy and fanaticism on the part of the Kahuna is one in connection with a double murder on the island of Lanai about a year ago. One of them was fairly clubbed to death by an aged beidame, the other being burned alive in a building. So great was the influence of the hag that the terrified Kanakas who witnessed her acts were afraid to interfere to save the lives of the victims.—Honolulu Cor. Chicago Trib.

WANTED A LICENSE.

And Thought He Was Entitled to It Anyway.

Mr. Jacob Sasfras of Hoopole district had answered all the preceding questions to the satisfaction of the clerk of vital statistics, and then that gentleman said: "Now, what is the lady's name?" "Can't you leave that blank?" asked the candidate for matrimony. "Certainly not." "Have you put the girl's name right in there, do you?" "Of course."

Mr. Sasfras rubbed his chin thoughtfully and then observed: "You kin make me out two licenses—one for Miss Jerusha Higgins and the other for Miss Amanda Abbott." "You are not going to marry them both, are you?" asked the clerk. "Of course not, but you see Jerusha mightn't have me. That's the reason I wanted the girl's name left blank."

"Haven't you asked her yet?" "No. Is that the regular way?" "That is the invariable rule. I never knew of a man coming here for a marriage license until the lady in the case had been consulted." "Was, that isn't my way. Ye see I hadn't popped to Jerusha yet, but I thought it would be a good way to get the license an show it to her an say, 'Jerusha, don't you think your name would look well on this document?' Don't you think that would be a good way to propose?" "Possibly, but I can't issue a license under these conditions."

"Not for Jerusha?" "No." "Nor for Amanda?" "No." "Nor with the name left blank?" "No." "Well, I sallow! Ef I've got to go back to Hoopole district and ask one o' them girls to marry me without a license to help me, I'm afeard I'll never get married." And Mr. Sasfras left the office with a big sigh.—Brooklyn Life.

An Amendment.

Some years ago in a very rural district a farmer had a cow for sale. Now, as there was no weekly paper to advertise in, it was the custom of the vicar to give such notices out to his congregation on Sundays. So the farmer thought he would go to the vicar and get him to advertise the cow in church.

"Yes," says the vicar, "but you don't come to my church." And they struck the bargain that the vicar should advertise the cow and the man in return should go to church. Now, unfortunately, the man was very deaf, and on the Sunday following, when the vicar gave out the banns of marriage between a Joseph So-and-so and Sarah So-and-so—a rather unusual incident, for they seldom had a wedding—the farmer took it for granted that the vicar was giving out particulars of his cow and shouted out:

"You may as well say, while you are about it, that she is a most gentle creature, entirely free from vice and a great eater."—London Tit-Bits.

Gas Heege, the author of "You Yonson," writes from Trondheim, Norway, that he has already gathered material for a new Swedish dialect comedy for Jacob Litt.

Charles Frohman disposed of his rights to "The Second Mrs. Tanguary" to Mr. and Mrs. Kendal recently, and the English players will use it during their forthcoming American tour. It is rumored that there may again be a Wallack's theater in New York city. Arthur Wallack, the eldest son of the late Lester Wallack, being credited with nourishing such a scheme.
