THE GRAVEL PIT CASE.—This afternoon at 1 o'clock the case of Louis Mc Clane came up before Recorder Ede. Prosecuting Attorney Condit conducted the case for the state while S. T. Richardson appeared for the defense. The charge is for assault with a dangerous weapon. Mr. Richardson addressed the court, claiming that there had been no assault, and asked that the case be dismissed. His Honor did not see it that way, and adjourned until 9:30 o'clock Monday.

LODGE MATTERS.—The Olive lodge boys rather got the start of the old Chemeketa people in leasing the fine hall in Tom Holman's new block. The conservatives held back for another five years lease on the old Turner block and the bright young men of the Olive got in ahead of them. The Chemeketas are doing some hard figuring and may beat the boys yet.

HOP FREIGHTS REDUCED.—The Oregon Pacific has made a rate of $1.50 per hundred, thirty days delivery, from all valley points reached by their lines to point on the Atlantic. This is a reduction of 64 cents per hundred and will help the hop growers of this vicinity to no small extent.

FIRST IN OREGON.—Jos. Kuerten, of the Salem Soap Works, was awarded the first premium for the best soap in Oregon, by the state agricultural society. He prides himself on using only the best material, and that is what housekeepers appreciate, hence they are learning to call for the Salem soap.

SCHOOL CHANGE.—Prof. J. T. Matthews, who has held the position of principal of the South Salem schools most acceptably for some years, has tendered his resignation to take the position held by Prof. Hawley prior to his promotion to the presidency.

WORLD'S FAIR APPLES.—H. S. Jordan of the State Insurance Co. exhibited the finest plate of Gravenstein's shown at the state fair. They were as big as your two fists and a brilliant red. They should be added to the World's Fair exhibit.

THE PREMIUMS.—From day to day THE JOURNAL will contain the awards of premiums at the State Fair. Persons wishing to get all the awards in one issue will find it complete in THE WEEKLY JOURNAL of next Thursday.

EVEN NOW.—A sheep raising rancher can bring a few wool fleeces into town, and if they are extra nice can get the price of a plug of tobacco for them. Times are not as hard as might be.

LA MODE.—The opening days of this fashionable millinery establishment have been set for Thursday and Friday, Sept. 21 and 22. All ladies are invited to call at the store on Court street.

RUBBERS OF ALL KINDS.—A fine new stock of rubber goods, including gentlemen's ladies' and childrens' rubber boots and shoes, just received at E. F. Osburn's Racket store.

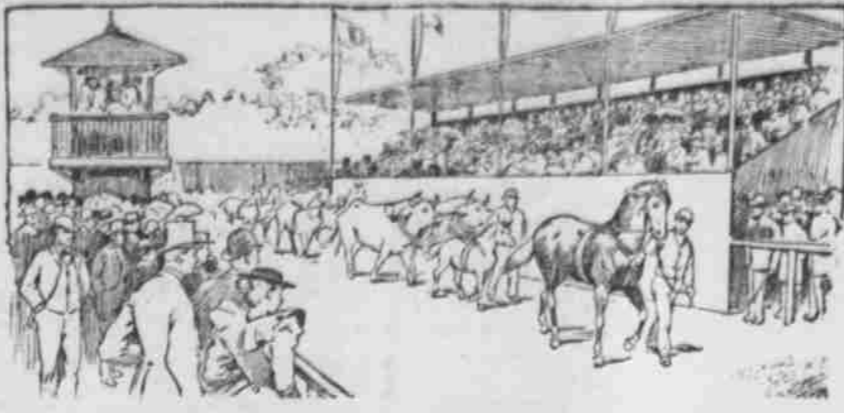

THE JERSEYS.—They attracted considerable attention at the fair, but not so much as those beautiful Jersey sweet potatoes at Van Eaton's grocery store.

UNIFORMS HAVE COME.—Co. "I" boys have received their uniforms and will make quite a good showing next Thursday night at their regular drill.

THE FAIR HARVEST.—One hobo and three drunks appeared before Judge Ede this morning and will board with the city for a few days for their fun.

A. M. E.—Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 3 p. m. James P. Simmons, pastor.

The Best Meals in the City at Private Rooms for Families have a five years lease on the largest dining hall on the grounds. This year in deference to hard times only 25 ct. meals were served. A skillful cashier was required to handle the receipts and expenditures, Miss Florella Phillips of the Capital National bank taking this arduous position.

THE WORKING LADIES

in charge of the dining hall were: Mrs. M. Thompson, Mrs. W. F. Boothby, Mrs. T. Jackson, Mrs. Fear, Mrs. Beggs, Mrs. Lockley, Mrs. Rockwell, Mrs. McFadden, Mrs. Olinger, Mrs. Wandl, Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Conover, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Buckingham, Mrs. Purdy, Mrs. Grilley, Mrs. Munson, Mrs. Burbam, and some others.

Coffee and tea were served in a pretty booth in addition to the regular meals. As high as five hundred diners were served in one day and yesterday 75 lbs of baked salmon was used besides roasts and steaks. Mrs. Smith, the culinary artist, was the same as was employed last year and is a host for maintaining a high standard of cuisine for a large crowd over a long period of time. John Moir and Tom Albert rang the dinner bell and ushered.

Mrs. White of North Salem is the chief dishwasher and has held this responsible office for five years. Mr. Purdy was the high chief butler in the king's kitchen. As the only regular male help, the ladies formed great dependence upon him and he comes out of the siege with an unblemished reputation as a very patient all around assistant. Other gentlemen assisted gallantly at times.

THE DINING ROOM FORCE is really too numerous to mention. It comprised prominent young society ladies of Salem and among them were the following: Miss Lulu Conover, Misses Creighton, Miss Stella Cannon, Miss Myra Albert, Miss Tottie Boothby, Miss Gertrude Riddell, Mrs. Sadie McFadden, Miss Kite Moore, Miss Anna McNary, Miss Edna Purdy, Miss Clara Albert, Miss Lillian Gwynne, Miss Ethel Van Eaton, Miss Olive Gwynne, Mrs. McGill, Miss Blanche Albert, Miss Maud Jackson, Miss Mary Joseph, Miss Helen Osborne, Mrs. W. T. Bennett, Miss Mary Childers, Miss Lillie McNary, Misses Dickinson, Miss Angie McCulloch, Miss Marie Rock, Mrs. Pugh, Mrs. Herren, Miss Applegate.

Hundreds of housekeepers seem to prefer the wonderful new shortening material Cottolene, to poor lard, and Harritt & McIntyre's sales of it are increasing every day. Try it.

F. R. Anson, Supt. of the Salem Electric Light and Power Co., is at Albany on business.

Try Cottolene instead of poor lard at Harritt & McIntyre's.

Governor Penneyer and State Treasurer Metcham went to Yaquina today to spend a short time at Hotel Monterey and catch some salmon in the bay.

A grand new line of umbrellas just received at E. F. Osburn's Racket store. Headquarters for the best peaches on earth at Clark & Eppley's.

E. E. Hull, of Portland, is visiting at the home of his parents south of town.

E. Shelly Morgan, of Portland, is in town today.

Miss Gertrude Savage came up from Chemawa this morning.

Howard Davis, on his way to Eugene university, stopped in town a little while today.

Morrison Bentley, formerly of H. M. Branson & Co., and wife went to Yaquina today for a short visit. They were accompanied by their daughter, Miss Corria Bentley, of the Yew Park school.

Presiding Elder John Parsons went to Shedd's today where he will preach tomorrow.

N. J. Keel of Chicago, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Gay Cooke, went to Newport today for a short outing.

Frank Koene and Albert Jessup went to Eugene today to continue their studies at the University.

Chas. Piper, of Portland a former Salemite, is in the city attending the fair.

Albert Winch left for Eugene today to attend school.

Geo. Russell Reed of San Francisco is in the city on business.

Mrs. L. Pray, and son Otis, of Portland, are visiting Mrs. E. McDewitt, on Water street.

rener Oregon, now old and out of date. DeLashmutt's Monday and colts, Thos. Tongue's Pandora; there was a lot of 20 per cent discount prize winners. It was a vastly poor show of horses for the great state of Oregon with its immense wealth of horse flesh, and revealed absence of organized effort to get them out.

SHEEP SHOW.

Robert Scott who has been an exhibitor of live stock since many years did not make an entry this year. He had a lot of sheep but the railroad company would not ship them without a stock inspector's receipt if it were worked up properly there is no good reason why nearly every sheep county in the state should not be represented at our state fair in place of merely a few flocks.
