Attempted Train Robbery.

CENTRALIA, Ill., Sept. 21.—Three men attempted to hold up the New Orleans limited train last night. The robbers climbed down and over the tender, calling on the engineer and fireman to throw up their hands. Instead of doing so they made for the robbers, who fired, wounding both severely.

The robbers then attacked the express car, firing numerous shots through the doors. The express messenger and conductor, who happened to be in the car, replying in kind till the door was shot full of holes.

The robbers finally broke open the door with a sledge hammer, and letting themselves down over the top of the car with grappling irons, renewed the fight with the messenger and conductor.

Among the passengers was an old brakeman, Jake Sanders, of Duquoin, who had a shot gun. He went out once to the express car and succeeded in bringing down one of the robbers with a well aimed shot. Seeing the game was up, the other two robbers fled, having secured nothing. It is understood a large amount of money was in the express safe. It is thought the wounded robber will die. His name is believed to be Daniel L. Joseph.

The name of the wounded robber is D. L. Jones, of Oxford Mills, Iowa. He confessed that the other members of the gang were named Charles Odwyer of this city, James Harding of Danville, Ill., and a man named Nichols. He also implicated a man named Martin in Duquoin in the plot, although he took no part in the robbery. Odwyer is under arrest at Roanoke.

Suspense at Rio.
LONDON, Sept. 21.—Private advices from Rio Janeiro state that bombardment is hourly expected. The only reason the bombardment was not commenced yesterday is that negotiations between the rebels and the government were undertaken at the instance of the foreign powers and foreign warships who wished to save the city from destruction. It is not believed that it will amount to anything. In fact it is believed the government is merely prolonging them to allow non-combatants to get away and merchants to save their goods.

New York, Sept. 21.—Business messages are received interruptedly from Brazil, and make no mention of the political situation.

In Congress.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Senator Pfeiffer introduced a bill creating a loan bureau similar to his bill of '92. Platt introduced his amendment to the rules, providing for cloture and adjournment.

The Kaiser and Bismark.
BERLIN, Sept. 21.—Emperor William sent a telegram from Gues to Prince Bismark expressing sympathy with him in his illness and offering him the use of one of the imperial castles which he thought might prove beneficial in view of the trying climate at Friedrichsruhe, the prince's place of residence. Prince Bismark replied in a long telegram, in which he cordially thanked his majesty for his sympathy and the use of the castle, but said he was obliged to decline the emperor's kind offer as his physician, Dr. Schweininger, was opposed to his making a change.

War in Congress.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21.—Against the protest of the Republicans, the Democrats of the house committee on rules this morning decided to report an order for two weeks debate on the federal election laws, repeal bill, and then vote. On assembling the house, an order was reported and the previous question demanded. Reed demanded the ayes and nays to determine whether the Democrats had quorum.

Will Hang.
FRESNO, Cal., Sept. 20.—Judge Holmes this morning sentenced Dr. F. O. Vincent, for wife murder, to hang Oct. 27th.

Cashier Guilty.
TACOMA, Sept. 21.—S. B. Dushinberre, cashier of the defunct bank of Puyallup, pleaded guilty today, to the charge of embezzling the bank funds to the amount of forty thousand dollars.

Another Revolution.
BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 21.—It is rumored here that a political crisis is impending. The cabinet council is holding a constant sitting and the state of siege is rigorously enforced. Advices from Tucuman say severe fighting has occurred between the revolutionists and the government forces. The rebels made an attack on the governor's position at Cabella, but were repulsed. The national troops in the provinces of Cordova and San Juan have mutinied and joined force with the revolutionary movement. A special sitting of congress has been called and important events are looked for at any moment. Belligerent is about to leave with troops for the North.

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 21.—The revolution in Argentina is spreading. Affairs have assumed a most alarming aspect. The government was defeated in the battle in Tucuman.

dress d the senate in favor of the adoption.

At the conclusion of Platt's argument the repeal bill was taken up. White, of California, spoke in opposition. The ways and means committee decided to at once begin work on the new tariff bill.

Krug the Absconder.
SEATTLE, Sept. 21.—Mayor Ronald is evidently right in his belief that powerful forces are at work to prevent the return of Adolph Krug, the absconding city treasurer, to the scenes of his misdeeds. This seems to be the case in face of the fact that Krug has signified in black and white his willingness to return without extradition process. Bearing out this fact the following special dispatch was received from St. Paul last night:

"Adolph Krug was arraigned in the police court this morning, charged with being a fugitive from justice and remanded to the county jail to await the arrival of the Seattle officers with their warrants. In the afternoon Attorney A. M. Harrison, of Minneapolis, acting under instructions from Hart & Hart of Seattle, was in St. Paul searching for information on which to base habeas corpus proceedings and to secure Krug's release. He visited the prisoner, but no steps were taken up to a late hour. Chief of Police Garvin holds an agreement, signed by Krug, who signifies his willingness to return to Seattle without objection. Krug refuses to be interviewed and is completely broken down."

Terrible Fire.
OMAHA, Sept. 21.—A special from Deadwood, S. D., to the Bee last night says: At 6:30 the forest fire had burned to Lead City. The Home stakes saw mills and lumber yard were first to go. Help was called from all other towns and 1,500 men were battling with the flames. At 9:30 the wind changed and there appeared to be hopes of saving the city.

Fire on the East has reached the foothills five miles from here and is threatening the ranch property of Henry Stearns and also that of Charles Trever. Stearns' family drove two miles through the flames to this city. The condition of old Mrs. Stearns, Mrs. Henry Stearns is serious, as all exposed flesh was burned to a crisp. They will probably die.

A bad fire is gaining headway on top of Black Tail divide, threatening Central City and the county poor house. Inhabitants of Terry have left the town to the flames: Everything will be a total loss and damage will amount to $60,000. The Buxton mill and dwelling house, valued at $2,000, were destroyed. Damage on Centennial is as follows: Henry Frawley, Centennial hotel, $12,000; Chas. Treper, Cliff house, $6,000; Charles Plunde, $6,000; Henry Stearns; $6,000; Charles Thompson, $6,000.

Deadwood is not seriously threatened although 300 men are patrolling the hills and putting out incipient fires, the Uncle Sam sixty-stamp mill and town of Perry have been destroyed: Communication is shut off and the full extent of the damage cannot be learned. Fire is burning at the fair grounds and the stables at the race track and other buildings will probably be destroyed. A special train left here at 10 o'clock for Fort Meade to bring up three companies of soldiers to aid citizens in controlling the flames.

Big Fires in the Black Hills.

Dastardly Assault.
ROANOKE, Va., Sept. 21.—One of the most dastardly outrages in the history of the city occurred yesterday. Mrs. Henry S. Bishop was enticed by a negro named Thomas Smith into a empty saloon basement, beaten into insensibility and robbed of her pocket book containing less than $2. The band was captured and lodged in jail. A crowd gathered around the jail and kept increasing as night approached. At 5 o'clock the Roanoke light infantry marched to the jail by order of Mayor Trout. Guards were posted and the streets in the immediate vicinity cleared. About dark the crowd was increased by a hundred men from the vicinity of the woman's home, headed by Mrs. Bishop's son. At 8 o'clock a portion of the mob battered at the side door of the jail where the militia and Mayor Trout rested.

Shooting was commenced by the mob and the mayor was shot in the foot. The militia was then ordered to return the fire and a volley from about twenty-five rifles was poured into the mob. It is thought about five men were killed by the fire and as many more wounded, some fatally. During the excitement caused by the volley the negro was taken from jail by officers and secreted.

The dead and wounded were removed to a drug store and to offices near by physicians. The militia then dispersed and left the scene as quietly as possible.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 21.—The negro, Thomas Smith, who assaulted Mrs. Henry Bishop last night, was lynched this morning. After last night's fatal encounter with the militia, the mob continued to search for the negro. They found the place where he was secreted, dragged him to death, and then in the presence of a thousand excited people, on the river bank, incinerated his remains. Eleven persons in all were killed in last night's battle.

Owing to the bitter feeling and threats against the mayor and Captain Bird of the militia they left town. Excitement is running high and trouble is feared. Only nine were killed last night as follows: S. A. Wiek, Wm. Sheets, C. W. Whitmeyer, J. B. Tyler, George White, W. E. Hall, W. Jones, John Mill, George Settle. A number of the wounded are likely to die.

A report reached Lead that Runkel, a small town twenty-five miles from here, was destroyed by fire. A hundred and fifty homeless people from the burned see it in a new place at Piedmont on Centennial prairie. A number of residences and several people were burned, one woman so badly that she may die. The fire near Lead is under control, owing to a change of wind, and no further damage is apprehended.

An Oregon Re-Union.
MEDFORD, Or., Sept. 21.—Although the weather is quite cool, with occasional showers, the second annual reunion of the soldiers and sailors of Southern Oregon is progressing very satisfactorily. A large crowd is in attendance from Ashland, Grant's Pass and other points of Southern Oregon. Hon. H. B. Miller, of Grant's Pass, made an interesting talk this afternoon. Company D of the National Guard, of Ashland, was down today in full force, and went through a skirmish drill for the entertainment of those present.

The first annual tournament of the Medford Gun Club commenced today, and is being participated in by several sportsmen from abroad as well as local marksmen.

How to Cure Hoboes.
CLE-ELUM, Sept. 21.—The citizens of this place have adopted an effective method of dealing with hoboes, dozens of whom pass through here daily and commit more or less depredation. Last Saturday morning Brakemas Charles Secour, of No. 57 freight, missed two overcoats and a sack coat from the caboose. He spotted a hobo hanging around the train just before it started, and his train had gone but a few miles on its way west, when the garments were missed. The train was stopped and Secour started back toward Cle-Elum. He soon met the hobo, westward bound, carrying a gunny sack. Secour held him up with his revolver and opened the sack, when his coats fell out.

The tramp was brought back to Cle-Elum, and given the alternative of going to jail or receive all the lashes that his captor could administer on a quarter-mile dash, the hobo to take six feet the start. The latter proposition was accepted, and Secour procured a blacksnake whip. The start was made and in covering the distance the whip was laid on the head, back, shoulders and legs with great vigor, every crack of the whip bringing out a yell. Since, two hoboes have been similarly treated and were severely punished.
