WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—The president of the United States will be arraigned in the United States senate Monday for violating the spirit of the constitution, in endeavoring to destroy the independence of the law-making branch of the government, by seeking to coerce congress into the passage of the repeal bill.

Notice to this effect is clearly indicated in a resolution presented this morning by Stewart, of Nevada, upon which he announced that he would address the senate Monday.

The resolution declares that the independence of the co-ordinate departments of the government must be maintained and the use of the power and influence of one department to control the action of another is in violation of the constitution. The introduction of the resolution created a sensation, and the discussion of the matter Monday will attract great attention as indicated by the attempt of the silver senators to divert the discussion in the senate to the alleged attempt of the president to control congress.

The cloture resolution was then taken up. Purple of Indiana argued against its adoption.

Rio Janeiro Safe.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—The following official dispatch has been received by the Brazilian delegation here, dated Rio De Janeiro September 22: The city has resumed its customary aspect. It never suffered from lack of food. The rebels never succeeded for an instant in taking possession of a single point on the shore, neither at Niteroi nor Santos.

Both chambers continue sitting regularly. President Peixoto informed them that he deemed it needless to prolong the state of siege.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Private advices from Rio Janeiro state that the situation is still unchanged. The rebel fleet still threatens bombardment. Negotiations are still progressing. Business has been partially resumed in spite of the threatening aspect, though it is thought possible that through the efforts of representatives of foreign governments, the matter may be patched up.

It is understood the terms under consideration are the resignation of Peixoto and pardon for the rebels.

Do We Want Money?

LONDON, Sept. 23.—A dispatch to the Economist from Paris says: "The negotiations with the United States to raise a gold loan of $50,000,000 at 4 per cent. has collapsed, through the intervention of the French government. France wanted reductions made in the tariff on French goods in return, for permitting the official listing of the proposed bonds on the Paris Bourse. The United States refused to treat on that basis. Overtures have been made in London for raising the loan.

It is Denied.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Secretary Carlisle has authorized the associated press to absolutely deny that the government is endeavoring to negotiate a loan abroad, as alleged in the dispatch from London. The secretary at once left for the white house, but for what purpose, is not known.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Charles Mitchell this afternoon signed articles to fight Jim Corbett at the Coney Island club for the championship about Dec. 18th. The articles are to be taken to Asbury Park tomorrow for Corbett's signature. Purse $40,000.

Mayor of Dublin Arrives.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—James Hanks, Lord Mayor of Dublin, and other prominent Irishmen, arrived this morning, to take part in the Irish day, at the world's fair.

In Congress.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Nothing of importance has transpired in the house today.

In the senate Voorhes said: "I may say that a consultation has taken place this afternoon between the senate and which resulted in an agreement as to the hours which we will occupy in debate. Without going into details I am warranted in moving that Monday and thereafter the hour of meeting shall be 11 o'clock and adjournment shall take place at 6, where there is no objection, and the chair declared it so ordered."

Breckenridge Replies.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Congressman Breckenridge has filed a reply to the charges in the suit for breach of promise to marry by Madeline Pollard. He denies that he seduced her, or promised to marry her, or is father to any of her four children. He declares that when they first met, he requested his advice as a lawyer in the matter of a man named Rhodes, who had betrayed her.

Crimes in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23.—Mrs. Louise Worthington, 70 shot and killed Baddely, her paramour, was today sentenced to twenty-five years' imprisonment at San Quentin.

Dr. West, accused of the murder of Addie Gilmore, says that girl was sent to him by a woman doctor, who had performed a criminal operation on the girl and then sent her him out of revenge. West still asserts that he gave Miss Gilmore's boy to two medical students, but refused name them.

The Argentine War.

BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 23.—The president is inclined to resist. Much uneasiness is felt in official circles at the turn affairs have taken Argentine Republic. The government of Santiago routed the rebels, who retreated to Tucuman. President Pellegrini is expected to arrive at Salago today with 1500 men. Disorders imminent at La Plata.

Private Coinage Scheme.

BONHAM, TEXAS, Sept. 23.—A syndicate, including prominent men of Texas, Colorado, Missouri & Kansas is being formed to coin silver dollars of the hexagon shape at the rate of $100,000 per month or more. If the legislatures of these states declare such coin legal tender it is claimed no individual or corporation can be prohibited from coining silver into standing dollars, provided the shape of such coins is not the same as that of coins issued by the United States government. Citizens of California issued a hexagon $50 gold piece the '60's and no one disputed their right.

WRECK ON THE RAIL.

Particulars of Yesterday's Wreck on the Wabash.

TWO RAILROAD MEN HELD

For Criminal Negligence, Which Caused a Wreck.

The Indiana Wreck.

PERU, Ind., Sept. 23.—Nearly all of the injured in yesterday's wreck on the Wabash road are better. Wm. Hoskins, one of the boys from London, is dying. F. P. Dow, of Washington, is in quite a serious condition, suffering greatly.

KINGSBURG, Ind., Sept. 23.—The wreck on the Wabash road yesterday resulted in the death of ten persons, with twenty-eight injured.

The calamity is directly attributed to brakeman Herbert Thompson's carelessness. He disappeared and all efforts to find him have thus far been in vain. The story of the wreck is as follows: The vestibuled limited train No. 55 from Detroit to Chicago was running in two sections and due to pass this station at 4:40 a. m. Fast freight No. 92 was on the siding waiting here to let 55 pass. The first section of 55 passed at 5:15 a. m. and by whistle called the attention of the freight crew to the second section. The freight engineer replied but it seems that brakeman Thompson did not notice the signal and went ahead to open the switch for 92 to leave. He had hardly done this before the second section of 55 was seen bearing down. Thompson seemed to be paralyzed. Swerving to the left the ponderous mass of steel lunged into the waiting freight train with a horrible crash. The scene that ensued was awful. Nearly all passengers were asleep.

Criminal Carelessness.

KANAKEE, Ill., Sept. 23.—The coroner's jury has rendered a verdict finding Engineer Thomas Ames, of the second section and Orville Duncan, flagman of the second section, guilty of criminal carelessness in causing the wreck at Manteno on Sept 18th and holding them to the grand jury. The jury also found Conductor W. B. Tynes, and Engineer Wm. Samsell, of the first section, guilty of gross carelessness. The verdict concludes: "We further believe the Illinois Central railroad company guilty of gross negligence in not providing proper signals and telegraph stations for locating passenger trains while running between Homewood and Kanakakee.

A Prize Fighter's Sorrow.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Bob Fitzsimmons doesn't rest quietly under her husband's charges in his divorce suit. At her home, 45 East Nineteenth street, she said that she was aware of her husband's infatuation for Rose Julien, a handsome blonde of 23 years, who as La Belle earns money on the stage by tying her shapely limbs into strange knots in company with her brother, Martin Julien, the contortionist, who was Bob's manager, and whom he has named as co-respondent.

"He wants me out of his way so that he can marry Rose," said Mrs. Fitzsimmons, "but he will find he will not have as easy a thing of it as he fancies. The trouble with Bob is that his head is swollen, and he wants to get rid of me because I helped him to earn a living when he was only a blacksmith and not a prizefighter. Bob says he has lavished diamonds on me. The only diamonds he ever gave me are in this horse pin. If he was so angry at Julien, why did he live at his house until he began training for his go with Hickey at Newark about three weeks ago? I know what he wants."

"Will you fight the case?"
"Indeed I will. I will bring a similar action for divorce, and I will have no difficulty in proving that Bob's relations with at least six different women whom I can name entitle me to a separation. I don't want alimony. I only want to be free from him. I want to say that Miss Julien will not be on my list. Bob wants to marry her. Alj I've got to say is that Mr. Julien was not more attentive to me than Bob was to his sister."

Heavy Matter.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—A severe snow storm swept over Northern England, following an unnatural spell of warm weather. Dispatches from Italy say the Apennines are covered with snow. An unusually hard winter is expected.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

A Bad Man.

PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 23.—Mounted Police Officer Foley made a good haul yesterday by arresting a boisterously drunken man who gave his name as McDonald.

At 5 o'clock Sheriff Massee, of Columbia county, called at the police station, asking that Chief Hunt co-operate with him in the apprehension of one William Graham, a desperate character, who made an effort to put to death an old man and his wife, named McDonald, living near the Gobie, last Tuesday night. The chief believed that he had a man locked up answering to the sheriff's description of the person wanted, and that individual proved to be McDonald.

The sheriff stated that Graham is a son-in-law of his intended victims, but that his wife, with her 7-year-old boy separated from him, taking up her residence with her parents. Graham had threatened his wife's life as well as her parents; but the night of the assault Mrs. Graham, fortunately enough, was away from home.

The wretch went about his work in a methodical manner. He first locked his little son in a room, and returning he began carrying out his fiendish work. He struck Mrs. McDonald over the head with a piece of rubber hose, knocking her down, but continued beating her until the appearance of her husband, whom he treated in a similar manner till he believed him dead.

Graham then searched the two sacks the house, robbing it of $85 in money, a gold watch and a rifle.

The McDonalds are about seventy years old, and it is a wonder that they survived the treatment to which they were subjected.

Mrs. Graham was married to the brute in Nebraska several years ago, but separated from him there, coming to Oregon with her parents, whither Graham soon followed, making much trouble for them after their arrival here.

Graham is thirty years of age, but looks much older by reason of the large quantity of liquor he consumes, and which renders him brutal. At one time he drove an express wagon in this city.

The Minister Guilty.

GRAFTON, W. Va., Sept. 23.—The trial of Rev. J. Chenoweth before the Methodist conference on charges of immorality, closed suddenly. Chenoweth counsel announced in open conference that their client desired to withdraw all defense and be allowed to withdraw from the ministry and membership of the Methodist church. This was granted. Chenoweth was formerly a presiding elder of the church, and was one of the most eloquent and distinguished ministers in this part of the country. He was charged with sustaining improper relations with Miss Jennie Lloyd.

Crops in Washington.

OLYMPIA, Sept. 23.—From reports received at the central office of the Washington weather service it is stated the late rains have considerably delayed harvesting and threshing operations, but here hop-picking is now in full blast in many fields of Western Washington. There is an abundance of white and Indian pickers to take care of the crops, which this year will be heavier than that of last year, though even yet a little short of a full yield in most cases. In San Juan county the hop crop promises to be the largest in many years.

Fruit has not made much progress during the week. Apples and plums, with the exception of a few favored localities, will be a short crop. Pastures have been immensely benefited by the rains of the past two weeks.

How Smallpox is Spread.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Eleven cases of smallpox were reported to the health officer from various parts of the city yesterday. A blunder that amounts almost to a crime has been committed in a clinic, and by its seeds has sown what may yet bear a disastrous crop.

The list of today's victims is headed by two young doctors. It was their coming down with the disease in one day, within a few hours of each other, that exposed the blunder. Vanderbilt clinic in West Fifty-ninth street, was the scene of it.

On September 4, James McGowan, a laborer, went to the dispensary and asked to be examined. Suspicious blotches covered his skin. An expert in skin diseases attached to the clinic saw him, and concluded that he had before him a fine case of chickenpox.

He did not make it his business to find out that the house from which McGowan came had been the scene of persistent cases of smallpox, with which the health officers are still struggling.

He took the man in before the clinic of young doctors and paraded him as a typical case of chickenpox. The doctors were interested. They looked at the blotches on the man's skin and felt of them, listening to the experts' exposition of the difference between the shot-like feeling of smallpox pustules under the skin and the more solid touch of the harmless chickenpox.

It was very instructive and altogether a rare chance. There were 20 or 30 doctors, and they all took their turn at the fine exhibition. Among them were Drs. Richards and Norris. These two are lying ill with smallpox; that was what the exhibit turned out to be health officers. How many more of the young doctors will follow these is no telling.

Fletcher of this place and her funeral was largely attended by friends from Brooks and Howell. Rev. Wolf, pastor of the M. E. church of which she was a member, was present and conducted the funeral exercises.
