SOCIAL CLUB.—As an evidence of the fact that the social season, for the coming winter, is about to be inaugurated in Salem, the announcement is made that the Willamette Social Club will meet in the Willamette Hotel parlors, at 7 o'clock, on Friday evening next to reorganize for the coming fall and winter months. This call will be hailed with delight by the favored few who last season participated in the weekly gatherings of the club, as well as those who from time to time, were their honored guests. While the program for the coming season has not yet been outlined, still it is safe to predict many pleasant evenings are in store for those who may attend, and it is to be hoped that every member of the club will be present at the meeting Friday evening and assist in making it a success.

THE ATHLETIC.—Insurance hall witnessed an attendance of nearly 25 young men Saturday night who organized the Athletic literary society that is to meet once a week on that evening during the winter. Officers elect are: N. J. Judah, president; C. E. Roblin, vice president; C. B. Brown, treasurer; A. Lee, secretary; Chas. McNary, sergeant at arms. President Judah read a lecture on cranks, and Del Dinsmore delivered a recitation and in all a very agreeable literary program was conducted. Constitution and by-laws were adopted and a committee appointed to fill an interesting program for next Saturday evening. The young men of this city who are not attending college are not going to abandon literary culture.

LEBANON.—A JOURNAL representative, who is also Colonel of Oregon Division Sons of Veterans, U. S. A., spent the day at Lebanon and addressed the associated patriotic orders in the evening. Lebanon has the reputation of being the liveliest little town in the valley and what we saw Saturday confirmed that opinion not a little. It was crowded with people from the farmlands of the region of the rich prairie about the forks of the Santiam, and the writer has promised to visit that city soon again and write up its industries.

NEW ROOF.—The Evangelical tabernacle in East Salem, which is serving temporarily until a church can be built, has just received a new shingle roof at the hands of E. J. Fisher and a few devoted brethren. The cloth roof was no longer sufficient to protect the growing congregation and Sunday school at that mission. Rev. Fisher is doing some good pioneering work in the eastern part of the city.

PAB EXCELLENCE.—Get your reserved seats at F. S. Dearborn's for the entertainment Friday, Oct. 13th, 50 cents. The best entertainment of the season. Miss Brown's first appearance before a Salem audience. Look out for press notices.

CALLER MEETING.—A meeting of the directors of the Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. is desired next Tuesday afternoon Oct. 10, 3 o'clock, in the Y. M. C. A. parlors. By order of chairman.

The finest case of first-class cigars in the city draws the smokers to Lunn & Brooks Capital drug store, Holman block.

WILLAMETTE PRESBYTERY.

Programme of the Fall Session at Salem This Week.

The presbytery of the Willamette will hold its fall meeting at the First Presbyterian church in Salem during three days this week beginning today, there will be quite a large attendance of ministers and elders. A number of ladies from different parts of the state are also expected.

The program for the session is as follows: MONDAY—Presbytery will convene at 2 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church.

At 7:30 in the evening the retiring moderator, Rev. E. J. Thompson of Corvallis will deliver the opening sermon.

TUESDAY—The regular session of the presbytery opens at 9 o'clock. Devotional exercises at 11:30.

Adjournment—12 to 2. At noon the ladies will serve a luncheon for the presbytery in the parlors.

During the afternoon the meeting will proceed with the regular work of the presbytery, adjourning at 5 o'clock.

There will be an all day session of the Ladies' Presbyterian Missionary society, and in the evening the presbytery will meet with them. To this meeting all are invited. The program will be as follows: WEDNESDAY—Presbytery meets at 9 a. m. and will adjourn soon thereafter.

The synod meets at Eugene on Thursday and will be in session several days. The delegates from Salem to the synod are Rev. Hutchinson and John Mair.

MARION CIRCUIT COURT.

An Immense Calendar Before Judge Burnett.

Court was called at 9 a. m. and the calendar was gone over, a great many more cases being settled or continued than usual.

District Attorney McCain is present and the trial of the 14 men bound over as rioters will consume most of the time this week. T. B. Southwick and G. G. Gans were appointed court bailiffs. Eli Burkholder was appointed grand jury bailiff.

53. W. L. Wade vs. W. W. Hepburn and N. M. Hepburn, action for money. Judgment by default and order to sell attached property.

50. Annie Grosse, vs. Henry Grosse, Divorce. Demurrer argued and submitted.

60. John Savage vs. T. H. and Arthur Wilson, action for money. Settled and dismissed.

61. J. D. Carter vs. Chas. M. Phillips and Cora M. Phillips, action for money. Judgment and order to sell property.

63. J. F. Beggs, vs. F. B. Mize, action for money. Same order.

87. J. W. Beatty vs. T. F. Goodrich, action for money. Withdraws demurrer and pays $5.

The petit jury was called and nearly all were present.

Following grand jury was drawn: R. C. Hawley, Henry Warren, Peter Feller, Edward Dupuy, J. H. Zimmerle, James Coyle, M. H. Craik.

COURT NOTES.

The lawyers are mostly young men and as fine a body as ever faced a judge in this county. Judge Boise is still the Nestor of the bar and pays close attention to everything that is done.

There is an unusual criminal docket and the grand jury has the usual number of personal epistle work cases before it. As a rule that class of justice court cases do not receive much attention and there ought to be some way to prevent their ever coming to circuit court.

A GLASS OF AUTHORITY.

Over the Christening of the Warship Oregon.

"There isn't a particle of gallantry about the Cleveland administration," said Governor Penney to a JOURNAL writer this morning. "This is the second time it has put its foot in it and committed an egregious blunder in a matter of state etiquette," said the present occupant of the executive department referring to the action of Secretary of the Navy Herbert in designating Miss Ruth Dolph to act as godmother at the christening ceremonies of the battleship Oregon.

"It is a piece of impertinence on the part of Herbert to name anyone!" continued the governor. The secretary of the navy has nothing to do with the matter until the warship is turned over to the United States. That ship is still the property of Irving M. Scott, proprietor of the Union Iron Works. He owns and controls it until the United States takes it off his hands. He never asked Herbert to name anyone, and it was at his request that I designated Miss Daisy Ainsworth, of Oakland, Cal., to name the ship."

CAPTAIN AINSWORTH'S VIEW.

OAKLAND, Oct. 6.—Captain J. C. Ainsworth said in regard to the report that the secretary of the navy had appointed a daughter of Senator Dolph to christen the battleship Oregon:

"There must be some mistake in this matter, for Governor Penney of Oregon has sent a communication to my daughter, which she now has, in which he has invited her to participate in the ceremony of launching the Oregon. If there has been any change in the program I have never heard of it, and I believe my daughter will be there. I know that Irving M. Scott has placed a tugboat at her disposal and I consider that act as final."

It looks very much as though the governor of Oregon had again caught the federal administration napping and brought it up a round sharp turn. Governor Penney certainly has not forestalled Cabinet Minister Herbert. The latter simply had no rights in the matter to be forestalled.

Christian Church News.

Revival services at the Christian church continues with increasing interest.

The meetings on both Sunday morning and evening were well attended. Elder Smith's discussion in the morning was founded on 1st Timothy, 1st chapter and 5th verse. Now the end of the commandment is love out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience and of a faith unfeigned. The sermon in the evening was on the "Parable of the Prodigal Son." There was one addition to the church at the morning service by relation and at the evening service there was three additions and one confession of faith in Jesus the Christ.

The Oregon ministerial association of the Christian church will convene here on Tuesday and continue in session during the days until Friday. The revival services will be continued by Elder Smith. Song service at 7:30, preaching at 8 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to every one.

CROPS.—The amount of winter wheat sown is small. Those who got some in were fortunate, as now the ground is too wet for seeding and will soon be too wet to plow. There is a general belief that we are to have a surprise in shape of some fine weather yet.

BORN. REID.—To the wife of A. M. Reid, Oct. 7, 1896, a daughter.

"Why is He So Irritable?" This question is often heard and nearly as often unanswered.

It is not often remembered, as it should be, that the occasion of ill temper and irritability is often to be found in the physical condition of the persons affected. What is the use of trying to "harmonize" a man whose liver has gone back on him? If a man is tortured with rheumatism, how can he be expected to be affable and agreeable? Can a confirmed dyspeptic be expected to be cheerful and always ready to tell a funny story? The only way to remove the difficulty is to get at the cause. Dyspepsia, rheumatism, impure blood and liver troubles yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla; this is why it is an effective tranquilizer, a peaceful messenger, and a preventive of domestic quarrels.

Nothing like Simmons' Liver Regulator for dyspepsia and indigestion—a safe and sure cure.

SUN ECLIPSE.—At 10:30, Oct. 9th the smoked glasses were in great demand to get views of the eclipsed sun as it escaped at times from the clouds of flying Oregon mist. Computations show that the eclipse was first noticeable from Mount Hamilton at 10:21:36 a. m., Pacific standard time at 10 deg. 47 min., north of the sun's west point, and end at 12:56:33 p. m., at 12 deg. 41 min. east of the sun's south point. At Salem the contacts occurred a minute later than at Mount Hamilton. Similarly for points east and southeast of Mount Hamilton the contacts took place later. At the time of the greatest eclipse the moon obscured the southwestern half of the sun for observers in Oregon. The day being cloudy, there was a noticeable darkness caused by the eclipse.

OREGON PACIFIC.—During the months of June, July and August the operation of the Oregon Pacific railway was unprofitable and the court during these months increased its indebtedness in addition to interest on certificates, etc., $14,296.41. The receiver's statements to the court, for the months of June, July and August, are as follows: June, earnings, $21,833.16, expenses, $25,617.41, loss $3,784.25; July, earnings $18,840.21, expenses $23,581.87, loss $6,441.66; August, earnings $16,367.61, expenses $19,238.51, loss $2,870.90.

WOODBURN ASSIGNMENT.—The inventory in the assignment of Charles E. Hudeleston of Woodburn was filed with the county clerk Saturday. The deed of assignment was made September 29th to B. F. McLooney. The inventory includes a dozen typewritten pages of manuscript but no total is given. It comprises stock of a hardware store and a long list of book accounts. The matter will come before the circuit court this week.

THE DOCKS.—The Oregon Pacific boat line has leased the U. P. dock at the foot of Trade street, for use this season. Their own dock will be taken to Independence, and the steamer Elwood will continue to use the same dock with the O. P. boats for the present.

Lively Boating Season Promised. If the following from the Corvallis Daily News is correct, there will be lively boating on the Willamette this winter: "We learn that there will be seven boats on the river this season running up from Portland. The O. P. company will have the Hoag and the Sisters on the upper river, the latter probably running up as far as Eugene and the former to Corvallis. The company will also run the Elwood from Portland to Salem. Then there are the Altotona, Ramona, Toledo, Willamette Chief and Manzanilla which will also run out of Portland, the two former as far up as Eugene and the latter exclusively for the Corvallis flouring mills, while the other two will carry freight between points. Under these circumstances boating will be lively on the river this winter."
