A KICKER.—The Independence West Side editor says of the state editorial association: "Forty editors proper, attended the meetings, but one hundred and forty ate at the banquet. The hangers on in journalism are the ones who make our annual meetings such a farce. Next year let no badges be given those who do not attend the meetings. The number of editors may be less, but the profession will be more honorable." Pentland, you are a kicker. Didn't Leo Peterson raise the money for the banquet? Why should not he and Mrs. P. and all the P's in fact, banquet at the Hotel Portland? He came as near being an editor as any of the officers of the state ass'n. He was once ad. manager of a real estate advertising sheet.

NEED MORE SCHOOL HOUSES.—The public schools of Salem opened on Monday last. The number of school children in attendance was 1156. There are 29 teachers employed in the public schools of the city. Some of the school buildings are crowded to overflowing; especially so is the high school, in the eastern part of the city. The total number of children enrolled was 1,506. That city needs more school buildings to accommodate the rapidly increasing school population. The fine school buildings already built are well arranged for school purposes, and would be a credit to any city.—Dayton Herald.

NOT FREDRICKSON.—Chief of Police Hinto has established by correspondence that the man Huffman now in the county jail suspected of being Frederickson, the murderer of Bruce, is not at party but that his name is really Huffman, and that he has served three years in the California state prison for burglary.

LOCAL UNION.—The executive committee of the Salem Christian Endeavor union will hold a session in the Baptist church parlors on Wednesday evening, Oct. 11th, at 8 o'clock. The presidents and vice presidents of all the C. E. societies and Epworth Leagues in the city are expected to be present.

SPECIAL.—Communication of Salem edge No. 4, A. F. and A. M. this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Officers, M. Rowley, W. M., Thos. H. Reynolds, secy.

JUSTICE COURT.—The case of Ellis & against Henry Huffman came before Justice Batchelor yesterday. The latter got judgment by default in sum of $162.40.

BE CHEAPEST.—Have the DAILY JOURNAL left at your office or residence. Only 50 cts a month. By mail in a month.

SHARP.—At Sharpe's dairy are as fine a herd of Jersey cows as wish to see. That is why they sell excellent milk and cream.

"Grandma Yocum," so-called, 75 years of age, led in the grand march at the ball at Myrtle Point recently, says the Roseburg Review. She also "tripped the light fantastic toe" to the strains of the enlivening music with the agility of youth. Our Oregon pioneer women are always in the lead.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Local Correspondence from Towns in the Valley.

FROM STAYTON.

Riley Thomas went to Albany Tuesday.

Mr. Mitchell of Lyons spent the week in Stayton.

Miss Maggie Coates returned to her home Monday, near Mill City.

Mrs. Dr. Kitchen and Minnie Magers went to Silverton Monday.

J. M. Danvin went to Portland on business last week.

Mr. Waldrop occupied the Baptist church pulpit Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. Kerns was in Salem the latter part of the week.

Dick Keene of Salem was doing business in Stayton Saturday.

Miss Maud Worley returned home last week from Buena Vista, where she has been visiting with her sister for the past month.

AUMSVILLE.

Mr. Bayard has certainly got the "Aladdin Lamp," and has been rubbing it, or else he has struck it rich in the last speculation he talked of going into. He at one time offered to give away his old clothes, but no one would take them as they were no better than his neighbors wore. A few days ago we were surprised at his buying a farm of 63 acres. Hardly had we got our minds settled when behold he bought a block of land on Merryfield addition and immediately commenced building a dwelling, and like Aladdin he was very quick about it.

Mr. L. Miller has bought the Weimlich property on Dearborn street. The house he will fix up in first class style, and the barn into a livery stable.

Two shoe makers have located in Aumsville in the last week.

Our "Nimrod" Moyer and his long gun had a startling experience so great that he has hardly been himself since. Way up in the mountains in a valley he ran across a bear, or the bear ran across him. Trembling in every limb, he brought the long gun into position and fired, but having only fine shot he thought best to run away, and he ran as only Moyer can run, saying, "By gracious," at every jump. It is supposed that "Dog Bob" had followed him and Moyer mistook him for a bear. Bob not being hurt is no evidence to the contrary, as that long gun never hurts anything but Moyer's shoulder.

While Mrs. Ellis was here she gave most of the children good characters and pointed out to them the vocation in life in which they could make a success. One ambitious painter, 8-years-old, was so enthusiastic that he tried his hand on the new school house. One day, when all was quiet, the little painter, with a pot of paint of his own mixture, started up a long ladder, holding the paint behind him, but just as he had opened the paint pot, one of the members of the school board made his appearance, and frightened the little fellow so badly that he split his paint upon the side of the house, which did not leave a very encouraging mark for the future great painter.

Our enterprising blacksmith has associated with himself in business, our old-time friend, Andy. May they prosper and have plenty of hard work.

Dr. Starling's new sign is encouraging to those who may need his skill. Unfortunately for the doctor, no one has been sick since he has been with us. Some enterprising man or woman ought to get sick to help the doctor. He will soon begin to think that he is in the "land of milk and honey."

We report progress on the new school house. The carpenters take advantage of every hour, and are rushing the work as fast as the rain will permit. One good week will find the building enclosed.

Mr. Ball is on the sick list.

Mr. Weaver has had on exhibition a very fine bunch of white beans.

Corvallis Times: Creditors of the Job bank will realize a few dollars out of the failure of the holders of a number of small claims to present them. The time for presentation expired yesterday, and somewhere between fifty and seventy-five claims aggregating a thousand or fifteen hundred dollars have not been presented. This windfall will swell the percentage that will be realized from the assets about one per cent.

WILLIAMS.—In Salem, at his room in the Anderson block, corner Commercial and Court streets at 8:30 p. m. Monday Oct. 9, 1893, Hial E. Williams, aged 56 years.

The cause of Mr. Williams' death was paralysis, although his health had been failing for some years. He was an old resident of Salem, having been employed in E. C. Cross' meat markets for many years. The funeral will be held Wednesday.

ZUMWALT.—Of lung troubles, at the home of his brother, in Lyon, Linn Co., Oregon, J. W. Zumwalt. Was born Dec. 3, 1833, in Lane county, Ore., and died Oct. 6, 1893, being 59 years, 10 months and 3 days old. Brother John united with the Disciples of Christ at LaGrande in the year of 1880. From that time he made the word of God his study and died a faithful defender of God's cause.—Albany Democrat.

Castoria is truly a marvelous thing for children. Doctors prescribe it, medical journals recommend it and more than a million mothers are using it in place of Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, so-called "feverishness" remedies, other narcotic and stupefying remedies. Castoria is the quickest thing to regulate the stomach and bowels and give healthy sleep the world has ever seen. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, quiets pain, cures diarrhoea and wind colic, always feverishness, convulsions, worms, and prevents all these ailments and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mother's friend. Castoria is put up in one-ounce bottles only. It is not sold in bulk. Don't allow any one to sell you anything else on the plea or promise that it is "just as good" and "will answer every purpose." See that you get Castoria.
