SALEM MINISTERS.—They seem to be in demand all over the world. Rev. C. K. Kellerman has been transferred by Bishop Goodsell from the Oregon to the Idaho conference, and appointed presiding elder of Idaho district. His address will be at Boise City. Rev. Wm. Lund has received a call from a church in Indiana and will probably accept it and remove to that state. From the church calendar it appears Rev. Lund was formerly rector at Aurora, Indiana. Rev. C. L. Corwin will be at the Portland meeting of the Willamette Congressional association held next week. He is preaching in Southern Oregon.

FRAUDULENT.—There is no physician in Salem or in any other place in Oregon except at our institutes in Forest Grove and Roseburg, who has the Keeley treatment to give, or who has any authority to administer such treatment, and any doctor claiming to give it is perpetrating a fraud. Neither have we any agents around to obtain patients either on commission or salary. We have many respectable friends who speak good words for us, and no workmen at "so much a head." Frank Dayey, manager Oregon Keeley institutes.

THAT BABY.—Recorder Edes had to guarantee the board of that abandoned child of Mrs. Thomas's before he could get it into the state orphan's home. Today he got up a petition for Mrs. Thomas to sign asking the court to appoint a guardian so that the child can be legally made over to the state institution. When this is done he will be relieved of that expense and the state will assume it.

WILL BE JUSTICE.—County Judge Hubbard received a petition signed by forty-two names praying that A. W. Lawrence, of Hubbard, be appointed as justice of the peace of the district comprising Aurora, Hubbard, and Butteville precincts, vice A. J. Giesy lately resigned.

MUCH TALK.—There is a great deal of talk about low prices on many articles these days, but probably the greatest cut in staples ever made in Salem is in the large reduction on school books just made by Dearborn.

PRICES TOO HIGH.—That fault is never found with the charges made by Clark & Eppley, the popular Court street grocers. Their goods are always fresh, and they don't get stale while being delivered.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.—This can never be said of goods that are ordered of the old reliable grocer, J. A. Van Eaton. Business is attended to with accuracy and dispatch at that establishment.

THE CHEAPEST.—Have the DAILY JOURNAL left at your office or residence. Only 50 cts a month. By mail 55 cts a month.

IN GRAND ARMY CIRCLES.

What the Patriotic Orders Are Doing at Salem.

Money is beginning to circulate as a result of the October quarterly pension payments, of which about $50,000 is received at Salem.

The Woman's Relief Corps gave a very successful social at Grand Army hall Monday evening. It concluded with a social attended by the sons and daughters. The W. R. C. assisted by the young people will be a dominant social force at the capital this winter.

The Sons of Veterans, Sumpter camp No. 8, last night received the resignation of Capt. Roberts, and elected Dr. S. C. Browne, a prominent and active fraternal order worker who will throw a great deal of new life into the camp. A committee of two was appointed to extend friendly greeting to a son of John Brown of Ossawatimie now residing at Salem and make him an honorary member of the camp.

Sedgwick post G. A. R. and W. R. C. meets every Monday evening. The next meeting of Sumpter camp will be next Thursday evening.

Commander B. A. Crossan requests the publication of the following preamble and resolutions adopted at the national encampment at Indianapolis, September 7:

The Grand Army of the Republic, in National Encampment assembled, speaking for that great army of beloved comrades, many of them too poor, too bruised, too broken, to withstand the strong arm of the government when administered with an unfriendly hand, proud of the good name and fair fame of the American volunteer soldier, interested far beyond any other person or organization that the pension roll shall tell the truth and in fact be what it is in theory—a "roll of honor," and ever mindful of its cardinal principle, "To preserve honor and purity in public affairs," scouts and denounces these indiscriminate charges of universal fraud and resent the imputation that because some unworthy survivors may be found, that discredit shall be cast upon the entire roll, and this great body of brave and patriotic citizens shall stand disgraced before the country. We demand, that there shall be no backward step in pension legislation or administration; that no pensioner shall be deprived of his property without due process of law; that the presumption shall be in favor of honesty and fair dealing; that the poor and lowly shall not be put to unnecessary, expensive or oppressive process to preserve their meagre pittance; that the sacred trust in favor of those who "have borne the battle" shall be secretly administered; and we do now solemnly and deliberately Resolve, That the Grand Army of the Republic looks with solicitude, not to say alarm, upon the proposition, that after sufficient tribunals have been established by law before which questions have been presented and adjudicated, upon evidence submitted and examined, and upon which a nation has accorded pensions in this their hour of need to those who in its hour of need stood between it and death, the officers of that nation, administering a public trust, have arbitrarily deprived, without notice or an opportunity to be heard, our needy and distressed comrades of the rights thus solemnly adjudged and confined to them.

WE DECLARE, That every presumption should be made in favor of such records so made; that no presumption of fraud shall be indulged in against them, and that no change be made in the pensions so accorded until after charges have been made and evidence in support thereof has been produced, of which charge each pensioner has had full notice and a full and complete opportunity to be heard in support of the pension so accorded to them; and it is further

Resolved, That as the Commissioner of Pensions, by his recent withdrawals of the obnoxious rulings which had been so generally condemned, has virtually acknowledged the incorrectness of such rulings, we deem it his further duty to at once restore to the rolls the thousands of pensioners now standing illegally suspended.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

An Old Newspaper Man Gets Two Years.

Business is going forward slowly in Judge Burnett's court. The grand jury is wrestling with a Chinese murder case and undergoing all the horrible torture of getting information out of Chinese witnesses.

The state cases against Moe and Wells are being tried. The latter stole bread and will probably go clear.

Franklyn Deye, who forged a check for $15 on Judge Moore of the Supreme bench, when nearly starved and dissipated, and passed it on Mr. Anderson of the Fan saloon, plead guilty and got the lightest sentence of the law, two years at the pen. He made a nice little speech to the court, waiving time and asking immediate sentence. He is an old newspaper man on the coast, is well educated, understands several languages, is a fine talker, elocutionist, stump orator, penman and writer. He was taken to the state prison at 3 p. m.

Behind the Scenes.

On the stage the tinsel, the glitter, the power and the paint, show forth the most, but step behind the scenes, and you will behold the truth. The chorus girls are not all "fancy paints them" but rather what they paint them selves; just so with many of the flamboyant advertisements of so-called "catarrh cures." Get back of the scenes and they are not cures. The real one and the only remedy that is a cure, is Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Lift the curtain, and you will find the naked truth to be, that this Remedy is the one that cures the worst cases of Catarrh in the Head, and no mistake. It is also remedy in all catarrhal conditions, such as Catarrhal Headache, Catarrh of the Throat, etc.

Not a Sell-Out—Here to Stay—New Stock.

I want the public to understand that I am not selling out old goods at cost but have brand new stock at lower figures than the people who pretend to be selling out. I am here to stay and hope by careful selections of the latest productions of millinery art, faithful work in my shop and moderate prices to merit the trade I have always been favored with. My fair prices are lower than any eternally selling out establishment in the city and the quality much finer for the money. The large number of people served the past two days is the best proof of this.

One pointer: I furnish frames for velvet hats and do the work and trimming for $1.00. Other work and goods in proportion. Mrs. D. L. Feister, Court street milliner, Salem.

TONIGHT AT OPERA HOUSE.—Miss Sara N. Brown as a dramatic reader is seldom equaled and rarely excelled in pathos and power. Her impersonation of Juliet in the passion scene, was intensely dramatic.

PROMENADE CONCERT.—Next Saturday evening the Second Regiment band will give a grand promenade concert at the Armory commencing at 8 o'clock. This will be the first of a series of concerts that the band will give during the winter months. Admission 10 cents. Children free. The program will appear in Saturday's paper.

DEED.

DICKINSON.—At her residence, No. 453 Front street, Salem, Thursday, Oct. 12, 1893, at 10:29 p. m. of spinal disease, Charlotte H. Dickinson, wife of the late O. Dickinson, aged 76 years, 8 months, and 11 days.

The deceased was born in Victor, Ontario county, New York, on February 1, 1817. Her maiden name was Charlotte Dryer Humphrey. She was married to Rev. O. Dickinson at Gilead, Branch county, Mich., on September 22, 1852. She and her husband sailed from New York on Nov. 13, 1852, for Portland, Or., coming via Cape Horn. They arrived on the 4th day of March, 1853. Then they came at once to Salem where a continuous residence has been made.

Mrs. Dickinson has been an invalid for over twenty years. She was a constant member of the Congregational church and her husband organized the church of that denomination in this city and became its first pastor.

She leaves one daughter, Mrs. A. N. Moores, and also Mrs. P. H. Raymond, an adopted daughter.

In Recognition of The One Cent Daily.

The August, 1893, "Newspaperdom," the acknowledged leading journalistic periodical of New York, has the following unsolicited notice of THE JOURNAL's enterprise in publishing THE ONLY ONE CENT PACIFIC COAST DAILY:

"A ONE CENT PAPER ON THE PACIFIC COAST."

"The Salem (Ore.) CAPITAL JOURNAL made an aggressive stroke in June, when it reduced its price to one cent a copy. The JOURNAL is the only paper on the coast that sells at this price. It has the press dispatches, is pretty well provided with ads., and is altogether an interesting and prosperous-looking seven-column folio. It has added over 1,000 names to its mail list since the reduction, all paid in advance. The mailing list is dated the day the subscription expires, on which day the name is taken off the list. A postal card notice is sent twice a month, notifying all of expirations.

"THE JOURNAL carried its daily to subscribers at 50 cents a month. It was found that it cost 25 cents a month to deliver and collect for it, and therefore it was better to give the mail subscribers the daily at 25 cents in advance than to charge 50 cents by carrier, paying out 25 cents and running the risk of collection.

"THE JOURNAL will make special efforts to circulate among the farmers and townsmen in the country and small towns."

RIFLE RANGE.—Attention! Members, Companies B, H, and I. You are hereby requested to report at Morning, Saturday, Oct. 14, at 8 a. m. to assist in building a battalion rifle range. The lumber was put on the ground today and all hands who can do so are urged to attend and help put up the rifle stand and dig the pit. Please bring along shovel and pick. By order of battalion committee, 2d regt., O. N. G.
