48 HOURS OF TERRIBLE STORM

A Number of Livres Lost on Lake Superior.

Scores of Vessels Suffer Shipwreck.

FORTY-EIGHT HOURS LAKE GALE

Results in Unprecedented Loss to Shipping.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—The severity of the northwest gale that has swept the Great Lakes for the past 48 hours has not been exceeded during the season for the past ten years. The list of wrecks in proportion to the number of vessels which were out in the gale is larger, perhaps, than in the history of the latter-day marine. That there has been a large loss of life now seems certain, but it may be several days before it is known just how many sailors perished. The list of wrecks thus far reported includes the steamer C. F. Curtis, ashore at Sheboygan; the lake tug Acme, foundered in Lake Huron; steamer Schuykill, stranded at Bar point; steamer Maritau, stranded at Elliott point. Dispatches from all points along the west shore of Lake Huron and the eastern end of Lake Superior indicate that the storm increased greatly in violence as night came on, and at midnight the storm was at its height, but most of the lake fleet had succeeded in reaching shelter.

THE BODIES.
DUNKIRK, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Following bodies from the wrecked steamer Dean Richmond which went ashore near here have been recovered: A. Dodge, second cook; Samuel Meadows, wheelman, William Brown, seaman; Mrs. Reta Ellsworth, stewardess; Captain Stoddard; Second Mate Boyson, and Wheelman Wheeler. The bodies are badly pounded on the rocks.

Latest of the Storm.
CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 16.—Advices to Associated Press report vessels ashore on the lakes but so far no loss of life beyond that already reported. Loss of property will be very heavy.

Chinese Extension Act.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The McCrea's exclusion bill has passed the house with Geary's amendment as to photographing Chinese and defining Chinese laborers and merchants 167 to 9. This extends the time for Chinese to register six months.

Terrible Shipwreck.
SAULT ST. MARIE, Mich., Oct. 16.—The steamers White and Giant, with Ocho Enola, Fanny O'Neil, and Annie Sherwood in tow, bound for Chicago with lumber, were out in the great gale on Lake Superior Friday and Saturday. The steamers are missing, the Sherwood alone being heard from, and she is a complete wreck. The survivors of her crew were picked up by the Sitka, Sunday morning, and brought here. The dead are: Captain Lewis Guthrie, Chicago; and James Cousins.

Will Filibuster.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The anti-repeal senators show a disposition to resist the effort to secure night sessions this week. They have had a conference among themselves and have decided to filibuster outright to prevent them.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—In the house debate on the McCrea's bill, to extend provisions of the Geary exclusion act six months, was resumed. Blair of New Hampshire, who was nominated to the Chinese mission by Harrison, but whose exequatur was not granted by the Chinese government spoke in favor of the bill.

IN THE SENATE.
There was up for consideration the house joint resolution, fixing qualification for voting and holding office in the Cherokee strip. The motion by Peffer to strike out the word "Male," so as to allow women to vote, was rejected by a vote of 40 to 9. Affirmative vote: Allison, Carey, Dolph, Frye, Gallinger, Hoar, Kyle, Peffer and Teller.

Fire in Kansas.
KING CITY, Oct. 16.—Fire last night destroyed the business portion of this city: Thirty buildings are burned, and the loss is a hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Highwaymen.
COLFAX, Wash., Oct. 16.—Saturday at Pullman a man named Holman was arrested on a charge of highway robbery and assault with intent to kill Dave Dobbins. The latter was in the city Thursday. Holman asked to ride home with him. En route he tried to pick Dobbins' pocket, and was knocked out of the vehicle pulling Dobbins out with him and in the scuffle the latter was stabbed in the left shoulder and a small amount of money taken. Holman was bound over, and is an old soldier and a member of the Grand Army.

Church News.
TACOMA, Oct. 16.—Special.—There appears to be little doubt that a conjoinder bishop will be appointed to assist Bishop Paddock very shortly. The trustees of the Protestant Episcopal church, Colonel Garretson, Judge Hoyt of the supreme court, George E. Atkinson of Whatcom, N. B. Cauffman of Chehalis and Bishop Paddock have asked the higher ecclesiastical authorities to appoint an assistant bishop. Rev. L. W. Applegate, who has for some time been assisting Bishop Paddock; Rev. Dr. Jeffers and Rev. Dr. Babbitt have all been spoken of in connection with the appointment.

A Good Match.
NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Information comes from Valparaiso of the marriage of Miss Amelia Rokas to Francis F. Egan, eldest son of Patrick Egan, late minister to Chili. The bride is the daughter of the late Don Jorge Rokas, at one time a member of the Chilean senate and one of the oldest families of Chili. The family is very rich.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Russian Fleet Gathering at Toulon.

GREAT BRITAIN'S DEMONSTRATION.

By Gathering a Fleet in the Mediterranean.

The British Fleet.

TARANTO, Oct. 16.—The proposed rendezvous of the British Mediterranean fleet here, beginning today, is regarded everywhere in Italy as a counter demonstration to the Russian squadron's visit to Toulon and is being made a matter of great demonstration.

The Russian Fleet.

TOULON, Oct. 16.—Few persons slept in Toulon last night. The streets were almost as crowded at 3 o'clock this morning as at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The illumination of shops and private houses did not cease until daylight, without a sign of weariness. When the officers' ball at the arsenal was over, just after 8 o'clock, the dancers came out in a scene of delirious enthusiasm. Bands playing the Russian anthem and the Marseillaise were parading the streets, and the throng were alternately singing and cheering, and shouts for Russia, the Russian officers, and the czar rang from every side. At 8 o'clock, Sunday, the crush was worse than it has been since the celebration began. Everybody was shouting "Long live Russia."

THE BATTLE OF FLOWERS.

As the day advanced all the main thoroughfares were thronged from wall to wall. Admiral Avelin and his officers were conveyed in open carriages to the Place de la Liberte, where the battle of flowers was to take place. The crowds were so dense that the horses could proceed only at a slow walk, and often had to be stopped. The Russians were half-mothered with flowers, confetti and paper spirals. They returned the fire with spirit and smiled and waved their hats to the people banked up to the carriage wheels. At the Place de la Liberte the procession of floats and flower-bedecked carriages was longer and finer than anything attempted at the Nice carnival. The pavements were strewn with tons of confetti. The enthusiasm of the unofficial crowd exceeded all bounds when the Russian sailors landed.

French sailors and civilians formed in processions, hoisted the men to their shoulders and carried them through streets. Women embraced and kissed them. Wherever the Russian sailors appeared deafening for Russia and the czar filled the air. Until evening, the demonstration was remarkable for the absence of drunken men. After dark, however, wine was given out in enormous quantities. Staggering sailors were to be seen everywhere, and the popular manifestation of enthusiasm degenerated into maudlin embraces and drunken howling. A dinner was given at the theatre this evening to the Russian officers and the high French officials who have come from other cities. Later there was a gala performance at the grand theatre, which the Russians attended at the invitation of the municipal government. The chief feature of the performance was a Franco-Russian ballet.

Only Empty Noise.

BERLIN, Oct. 16.—The outbreak of French Chauvinism during the Toulon reception has been ignored here as empty noise. The government undoubtedly has some information which has enabled it to treat the Toulon fetes with contemptuous indifference. The foreign office maintains silence as to the reported renewal of the entente between France and Russia. A correspondent however, has received from the best sources information which enables him to say that the conviction in the highest quarters here is that Russia prefers to revive closer relations with Germany rather than to risk an alliance with France, whether the commercial convention now in hand be signed or not. The negotiations for the convention are proceeding smoothly, but are likely to last until midwinter. The prospects of a political rapprochement with Russia are regarded now as better than ever before.

What England Thinks.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The central point of European interest in Toulon and the Russian fleet there at present, but the great body of English people are slow to detect the significance of such a spectacle, or slow to care about it. They rather grin as they hear of French and Russian grown men embracing each other. If the English press takes a serious view of the incident, as it must, the seriousness is not widespread. That will come later. The French government seems to have tried honestly to keep within prudent and manageable limits the general enthusiasm over the visit of the Russian fleet, and has succeeded fairly well. What has thus far been said and done need give umbrage to none. Germany and the rest of Europe will probably consider this moderation more dangerous, because it denotes the solidity of the understanding between France and Russia. France no longer feels alone, and therefore no longer feels sore, or finds it impossible to repress her irritation and her passion for revenge. There are spurts of ill temper in some of her papers, but the general tone is quiet. More could not be asked. If an alliance between France and Russia bodes no good to the peace of Europe, these two powers are nevertheless within their rights, and Europe must take its chances. So must England in the Mediterranean.

TACOMA TAILORS' STRIKE.

The Secretary Tells Why the Strike Was Ordered.

TACOMA, Oct. 16.—[Special.]—Thomas B. Hale, secretary of local union No. 68, Journeymen Tailors' union, says before the strike the union appealed to the bosses and offered to accept a reduction of 10 per cent, but the bosses curtly refused to accept any compromise.

The new schedule of prices made by the bosses makes a reduction on vests of 33 per cent, coats 15 per cent, pants 20 per cent and the one weekly hand at bushelman was cut 15 per cent. Mr. Hale says during the last nine months not one of the strikers had made an average of $10 per week under the old scale. In Portland and Seattle tailors are paid more than here, and the tailors rely upon this fact for success in their strike. The men on the strike, Mr. Hale says, are all residents of the city from four to twelve years, own their own homes and have investments in the neighborhood. Local tailors have made arrangements to bring a sufficient number of workmen here to take the place of the strikers. They are expected to arrive early this week.

Business Getting Better.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—The report of the San Francisco clearing house for the past week compares with the report for the corresponding week of last year as follows: Week ending October 14, 1893—Clearings, $13,835,763.61; balances, $1,804,719.66. Week ending October 16, 1892—Clearings, $19,439,127.26; balances, $2,199,750.09. The clearings of the past week were the largest of any week since the late financial depression began. The low point was reached during the week ending August 29, when they were $9,901,788. Since then business has steadily increased. One reason for the decrease of last week, as compared with the corresponding week of last year is the decline in the price of wheat.

Reed Speaks.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 15.—Ex-Speaker Thos. B. Reed spoke to a large audience for nearly an hour. He declared that the Democratic party succeeded in bringing about the closing of factories and mills, something they could not do with the senate. The senate, he said, is elected to govern the people, yet it could only give the people a test of physical endurance the greatest thing it has done being to remain in session for thirty-nine hours.

Got a Loaf of Bread.

EL PASO, Oct. 16.—The large crowd of tramps from the west who took possession of the east-bound Southern Pacific train to go to San Antonio, were brought before Recorder Caldwell. Twelve of them, whose hands indicated they were working men, were each given a loaf of bread and an exhortation to leave town at once. The others will be put at work fixing the streets.

YOUNG GIRL'S ROMANCE.

A Typewriter Keeps the Secret of Her Marriage.

SEATTLE, Oct. 16.—There is a romantic little episode in connection with the severance of Miss Clara Martin's relations with the county clerk's office. Under three administrations she faithfully performed her duties as typewriter, but no longer will her bright countenance be observed by the attorneys and others having business at that office. Her service ended a few days ago, when the young lady was somewhat surprised by the information quietly conveyed by County Clerk Gordon that as she was a married woman she need no longer report for duty. It appears that some seven months ago Miss Martin visited her lover at Sidney, where he was then engaged in business and before she again crossed the Sound the ceremony had been performed that made her Mrs. D. Bannerman. She succeeded wonderfully well in keeping the matter a secret, and it only came out when Mr. Gordon saw a copy of the marriage license sent from Kitsap county to him. He was surprised, as well as were the other attaches of the office.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
