FORT DONNELSON.—Saturday's JOURNAL contained an advertisement of the Confederate War Journal, Lexington, Ken., containing an account of the capture of Fort Donnellson by the rebels. As Grant's first great victory was the capture of Fort Donnellson many will be curious to know how the Confederates take it. His famous message was: "Demand immediate and unconditional surrender, or I move upon your works." And he did move. Sunday morning the white flag of truce flew from the fort and the union forces were ready to charge. The rebel generals now referred to as taking the fort had moved too, the Saturday night before. It will be no harm to read their account of it however, if the main facts are kept in mind.

DEMOCRAT IN TOWN.—W. P. Miller of Klappath Agency, a brother of John F. Miller with whom he has large land interests, is in the city. He is interested in a lawsuit before Judge Burnett, and is a prominent rancher in Southern Oregon. He says John F. Miller will be at Salem in a few weeks. Beef steers bring 2 1/2 cts, cows 1 1/2 cts. off the range for California market. Horses are very cheap. He says Pennoyer and Hermann have many friends among the people and are both great vote getters. His choice for governor on a fusion ticket is Attorney General Chamberlain who he believes will be the Democratic nominee and would poll a big vote.

A LARGE PARTY.—The following named parties left today for a visit to the world's fair during the closing days: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. England, Mr. and Mrs. E. Breyman, Miss Ethel Cusick and Harvey Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. England took in the opening days of the fair, and will no doubt find this second visit doubly enjoyable. The party go over the Union Pacific.

GETTING FAT.—Glover Cleveland is not the only person in the land that is getting flesh on these days. Salem has many people, young and old, who are enjoying excellent health, and it comes from eating that greatest of all cereals, whole wheat flour. Harritt & McIntyre are selling tons of it.

AUCTION SALE OF COLTS.—J. F. Goode, city auctioneer, will sell for Salmon Brown, Wednesday, Oct. 18th at 1 p. m. opposite Gray Bros. hardware store, four California trotting bred colts, (Altamont stock) also one fine flax tall and Altamont colt.

BOATS.—The Elwood came up from Portland Sunday evening packed as full of merchandise as it could hold. The Hoag will be down Tuesday. The G. W. Shaver will be up today for the Salem Flouring mills.

VERY OLD LIQUOR.—As everyone knows, age helps many things, and among them elder vinegar. Van Eaton has now on tap some of the pure article, made by himself several years ago, and it is superb.

EXQUISITE.—When one is buying toilet articles, the greatest object is to get pure goods and first quality. If you need soap, sponges or perfumery, this can be attained by selecting from the elegant new stock of the Capital Drug store, Holman block.

Perfectly pure, perfectly pure, perfectly harmless is Simmons Liver Regulator.

PRIDE.—Have you any pride in the prosperity of your city? If so patronize the Salem steam laundry in preference to the Chinese wash houses. It is a permanent institution, and employs only white help, all of whom contribute to the support of the place.

TO WED.—A marriage license has been issued to Pauline Herbold and Wm. Hughes.

BADLY CUT.—A five year term convict named Foster was discharged from the State's Prison Sunday forenoon, coming down State street on an electric car he was thrown off his balance on the curve at the Cook hotel. He grasped a broken glass to right himself and his wrist was so badly gashed it had to be sewn up.

Good goods for the least money at THE FAIR.

BREAKFAST CEREALS.—The choicest variety and quality always furnished by Clark & Eppley. Whole wheat flour always on hand.

It is an acknowledged fact, by all grocers and consumers, that Clark & Eppley sell the finest hominy in the city.

FROM VERMONT.—John G. Wright has just received direct from Vermont what will please everybody, some genuine maple syrup. It is pure and delicious. Try it.

JERSEYS.—At Sharpe's dairy are kept as fine a herd of Jersey cows as you wish to see. That is why they sell such excellent milk and cream.

OXFORD.—Teachers' bibles, $3 50, indexed. Family bibles, from $2 upward Small bibles and testaments, 6 cents and up, at F. S. Dearborn's.

THE CHEAPEST.—Have the DAILY JOURNAL left at your office or residence. Only 50 cts a month. By mail 25 cts a month.

T. T. Geer of Macleay, was in the city today. His daughter, Mrs. Downing accompanied him for a few days.

FASHION'S FANCIES.

Gay colored cloth coats are a feature of autumn fashions.

Black lace collarettes are trimmed with narrow jet pendant fringe. Black and white jacquard camel's hair materials are used for autumn traveling costumes.

Cream colored and chamois yellow felt hats in alpine and Duse shapes are trimmed with black velvet and black mercury wings.

Many of the balloon sleeves are now cut into two moderately full puffs. Roll over collars are new, and with these small cuffs appear.

Round waists have lost none of their prestige, but are rivaled by basque bodices and pointed corsages with frills attached to the lower edge.

New mohair braids show stripes in shot effects. Iridescent bead gimps are also imported. These make effective but not expensive trimmings.

Black and gray or black and white ribbons make pretty trimmings for autumn dresses, the black velvet band showing a narrow satin edge.

Black and white and brown and white suits made of the shepherd's check fabrics in fine wool are shown as suits centre, or made up in combination with plain Indian cashmere, camel's hair or English serge.

Draped double skirts will appear with winter gowns, and accordion and kilt plaited skirts are already seen—the plait or kilt by contraction and expansion wherever needed obviating the necessity of shaying by means of scissors.—New York Post.

TRIPPLICATE.—Those new photo novelties are the most satisfactory thing in their line now. See them at the Salem Art Co.'s studio on Liberty street.

NO CHINESE.—The Salem Steam Laundry has always excluded the Chinese. It does white people's washing with white labor.

CHILD DEAD.—A four year old daughter of Mr. Blair's family in Capital Park, died last night of membranous croup. That is a very rare disease at Salem. In fact croup of any kind. The child was buried this afternoon at Lee Mission.

Safe, Sure and Speedy.

No external remedy ever yet devised has so fully and unquestionably met these three prime conditions as successfully as Alcock's Porous Plaster. They are safe because they contain no deleterious drugs and are manufactured upon scientific principles of medicine. They are sure because nothing goes into them except ingredients which are exactly adapted to the purposes for which a plaster is required. They are speedy in their action because their medicinal qualities go right to their work of relieving pain and restoring the natural and healthy performance of the functions of muscles, nerves and skin. Do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Alcock's, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

Circuit Court Notes.

In case of State vs. Henry Carson for larceny of a watch from the person of Clarence Bell of Hubbard, the jury was out all night and finally hung. D'Arcy & Bingham defended him.

Saturday the grand jury returned two true bills against L. B. McClane. He is indicted for pointing a gun at Chas. E. Mason and J. Schuler, they being within range. This originated over Mr. McClane's efforts to defend his property against persons taking gravel from the bar below the brick flour mills which he believed was his property.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

The divorce case of Allie Brewer vs. J. H. Brewer was heard during the day and taken under advisement by Judge Burnett.
J. D. Gregoire vs. T. F. Roarke and C. Hamilton, appeal from J. p. court; motion of continuance by defendant. Same overruled.
A new case begun was that of the Stayton Hall Co. vs. Grant Lake, et al; motion to retax costs.

State vs. Merritt E. Willis, burglary; to receive sentence on Tuesday, October 17th.

THE KIRK DIVORCE CASE.

This suit occupied nearly all day. It is tried to the court and on account of its requiring the drawing out of somewhat disgusting details of Mrs. Kirk's troubles in seeking to prove what she has suffered at the hands of a too uxorious spouse, Judge Burnett very properly excused all but witnesses and officers of the court from attendance. The fight is really over about $40,000 worth of property. Mr. Kirk is a pleasant, genial kind of man. Mrs. Kirk is his fourth wife. The legal battle is being fought very hard.

The indictment in the Louis McClane case was referred back to the grand jury.

Henry Carson today entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to a month in the county jail.

Van Miller, another of the men charged with hop yard rioting was arrested Sunday, bound over to the grand jury and that body discharged him.

WILLAMETTE NOTES.

The only school in Oregon with an increase of attendance over last year.
Twelve new students enrolled Monday and Tuesday.

Pres. Hawley preached at Woodburn Sunday morning and evening.

Misses Alice Austin and May Miesder are new arrivals at the woman's college this week.

Miss Mollie Horner of Lincoln, who was in school three years ago, will enter the conservatory in a few days.

Prof. W. A. Ginn, musical alumnus of '91, is teaching a series of classes near Corvallis this winter.

A gymnasium fund is now in course of consideration, which should be pushed to the gates, or it may be to the doors of a good gymnasium building on the campus.

The advanced class in chemistry are now doing practical and effective work in descriptive chemistry, and are just beginning a course in qualitative analysis.

Prof. Brown delighted her audience Friday night. Although suffering from a cold her rendition of "Romeo and Juliet" and "Chant de Rance" were excellent. Her class work is equally as well appreciated.

Prof. Levi Magee, A. B. '90, who since graduating has been principal of the Grangeville academy, Idaho, has been under this last administration, appointed postmaster of Grangeville. He is also practicing law.

The College Ass'n of oratory met on Thursday and adopted a constitution and bylaws, which is to govern with more decision and dispatch their proceedings in the future. The local contest will occur in February. Provisions are made in the constitution for the length of oration, character of judges, manner of judging, etc. This association is an advanced step in western college life, which might have been effected some time ago. Tickets are now out for course of six entertainments which are to be given during the year under the auspices of the university. The first will occur Wednesday evening, Oct. 18, in the chapel; the second about Nov. 15, at which it is hoped to obtain Dr. Gue, of Portland to deliver his famous Patriotic lecture; the third about Dec. 15, in which Mrs. Hallie (Parish) Hinges will take part. Prof's. Coomer, Kruse, and Carpenter will take leading parts, assisted by Mrs. Holland and others. Prof. Brown may also recite.

The performers in the remaining three are not certain as yet, but will be equally as good. The proceeds of the first entertainment will go to buy periodicals for the library, of the others to put electric lighting in the university building. Season tickets for the entire course are $1.00. Each entertainment 25 cents.

Not a Sell-Out—Here to Stay—New Stock.
I want the public to understand that I am not selling out old goods at cost but have brand new stock at lower figures than the people who pretend to be selling out. I am here to stay and hope by careful selections of the latest productions of millinery art, faithful work in my shop and moderate prices to merit the trade I have always been favored with. My fair prices are lower than any eternally selling out establishment in the city and the quality much finer for the money. The large number of people served the past two days is the best proof of this.

One pointer: I furnish frames for velvet hats and do the work and trimming for $1.00. Other work and goods in proportion. Mrs. D. L. Feister, Court street milliner, Salem.
