AMERICAN HOUSE OF LORDS

Afraid They Will Fall Into Disrepute!

PENSIONERS SCORE A VICTORY.

A Bill Passed to Obviate Proof of Loyalty.

Senator Dolph Speaks.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—At opening of senate this morning Dolph asked that Journal be corrected to show presence of Allen and Kyle on sundry roll calls yesterday, they having been present in the senate but failed to vote.

IN THE HOUSE.

The bloody shirt waved for a time this morning when a bill providing the necessity for affirmative proof of loyalty of pensioners of wars previous to the civil war was called up.

He suggested the bill be modified to exclude pensioners. The modification was accepted and the bill passed.

Senate Rules.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 17.—Lodge of Massachusetts spoke last night in favor of his amendment to the rules providing that no senator shall read a written or printed speech, and the senators present and not voting shall be counted as present for the purpose of a quorum.

Hill asked why, if the majority favored the repeal bill it could not pass the senate. Vest replied if the senator read the rules and witnessed the proceedings under them he ought to be able to answer the question satisfactorily to himself.

Hill replied if the rules of the senate prevented the passage of a bill which the majority desires to pass the best thing to do is to amend the rules in the proper manner.

Vest retorted that he had heard that during the discussion of the force bill but the rules were not changed.

Hill said he repudiated the doctrine that one-fifth of the senate could absolutely prevent legislation. The power to make rules implied the power to change them.

The repeal bill was laid before the senate, Jones of Nevada, took the floor and proceeded with his speech. At 3:45 he asked the indulgence of the senate as he was not feeling well enough to finish today. Peffer then took the floor.

Palmer, of Illinois, got into a parliamentary squabble with Kyle and Allen. Palmer was complaining of the speeches made to consume time and Kyle asked him to specify one speech. Palmer replied: "I will answer by saying that I believe the senator from Nebraska" this was as far as he got as Allen called him to order.

Palmer declined to take anything back and Allen denied that his speech was an effort to consume time. After some colloquy Peffer resumed his speech.

At 6 o'clock by a vote of 39 to 18 the senate refused to adjourn. Within the next thirty minutes the attention of the chair was called three times to the fact that a quorum was not in the chamber but on each roll call a quorum responded.

Finally at 8:40 a voting quorum was obtained and Peffer continued his speech. At 10 o'clock Peffer, without concluding his speech, yielded to Voorhees who asked the senate to adjourn.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The word along the line of the silver forces at 6 o'clock tonight was to filibuster and require an absolute quorum at all times. The purpose in filibustering was to show the futility of attempting to further force unusual hours.

Efforts at compromise are kept up in a desultory way and Senator Cockrell, who has taken the lead as a compromiser, has continued work in that direction.

Senator Sherman was asked tonight by a representative of the Associated Press what he thought was the prospect for the repeal bill. He replied that it all depended on the Democratic side.

Or Lord Grover May Put Them on Bread and Water. CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 17.—The Record's Washington special says Secretary of State Carlisle informed Senator Bruce this morning that the president had put his foot down and will send in no more appointments, except possibly in a few cases of extreme urgency, till after the senate act on the silver bill.

ARE WE A COUNTRY?

China-men Employed By Uncle Sam

AS FOREIGN CONSULAR AGENTS.

Terms of the New Anti-Chinese Legislation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—The arrival of the Pacific Mill company's steamer City of New York, and her entry at the custom-house this morning revealed a curious state of affairs. While congress is considering the Geary act a Chinese is acting United States Consul and United States Marshal at Amoy, China. The consular papers presented at the custom-house this morning by Captain Johnston were all signed by F. (Fong) Chung, acting United States consul. The City of New York took over 1000 tons of tea from Amoy, and of course, the captain had to see the consul. When the latter was ushered into his presence he found the representative of this country to be a Chinese.

"It appears that both consul and vice-consul resigned and left Amoy as soon as Cleveland was elected. In that case, as ranking officer, F. Chung, United States marshal, became acting consul. I must say that it would be hard to find a more agreeable man than the one who called upon me as United States consul at Amoy. His address and bearing gave evidence of good education. This was soon explained when he told me that he was educated in France, and also took a post-graduate course at Yale. During our interview we discussed a variety of subjects and I found him to be a brilliant conversationalist."

THE NEW LAW.

The McCrary Chinese bill, as it passed the house, contains but two sections. The first is a repeal of section 1 of the existing exclusion act of September, in that it extends until six months after enactment the time allowed Chinese to register. It also extended the provisions as to witnesses, as to certificates, so as to remove the inadvertent discrimination made against colored persons. Under the bill any credible person, other than Chinese, can be a witness. This section has an addition in the shape of a paragraph defining a merchant as a person buying and selling in his own name at a fixed place of business and performing no other manual labor than is incident to his business.

Efforts to remove the Chinese from the streets of Amoy, and to remove the Chinese from the streets of Amoy, and to remove the Chinese from the streets of Amoy.

THE STATE BANK TAX.

Blanchard Argues in Favor of its Repeal.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The house banking and currency committee heard an argument by Representative Blanchard, of Louisiana, in favor of the state bank-tax repeal. Mr. Blanchard pictured the industrial and agricultural distress in the South, asserting that since the war in the South values (particularly of land) had steadily decreased and the people had grown poorer. He attributed this to a fault in the monetary system and dependence on the East. He favored the revival of the state banks to free the people from their thrall.

RINGING LIBERTY BELL.

What Was Done Children's Week at the World's Fair.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Glorious autumn weather smiled on the opening of children's week at the fair. All public schools are closed for the entire week. The admission for children under 18 years is reduced to 10 cents, and to make sure that none should be barred out by reason of lacking that amount or the price of transportation to the fair grounds, citizens have contributed money to buy tickets by the thousand to give to them and pay their fare on the railroads and steamboats, which have made special rates for the week. There have arranged that the little people shall not lack for something to eat because they have not the wherewithal to pay for it. Sandwiches and other eatables in quantities are provided for them. The fair officials have also arranged a series of entertainments especially for their benefit, from games in the stock pavilion to concerts by tom-tom beaters from the Midway.

IN THE LECTURE FIELD.

Rev. Henry Preserved Smith Will Abandon the Courts.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—Professor Henry Preserved Smith will not again appear in the courts of the Presbyterian church asking for relief on charge of being a heretic. Instead he will take the lecture platform, and in his own words "start on a campaign of education." He says: "The younger and progressive element in both the clergy and laity is on my side, at least this is my opinion that is backed up by many facts. Now, the thing to do is to educate the people up to what the new school of Presbyterians believe. We want more light, I have been misrepresented and the beliefs I hold have been stated in a way so as to entirely distort them. What is sweetly reasonable and Christian has by some been represented in a wholly different light, so now that I am out of the ministry and my chair at Lane seminary, I am going to devote myself to lecturing."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

THE JURY WAS BRIBED.

How Actor Curtis Was Acquitted of Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—The Examiner publishes a statement of the charges that have come to light recently of the bribery of four jurors in the recent trial of M. B. Curtis, the actor, for the murder of Police Officer Alexander Grant, of this city. The statement is based principally upon the declaration of J. N. E. Wilson, Curtis' attorney; and the men who are accused of trying to get money from Curtis on the ground that they paid jurors to vote for his acquittal are Frank McManus, commonly known as "King McManus," a local politician, and State Senator William J. Dunn. According to Wilson's statement, these men have, since Curtis' acquittal, made several efforts to induce Curtis and Mrs. Curtis to pay them $2800 saying that by an agreement with Curtis by which they were to receive $8000, they paid four jurors $2800 to vote for Curtis' acquittal. Thomas M. McFarlane and C. S. Coy are mentioned as two of the jurors bribed. Wilson denies there was any attempt to bribe the jurors as far as he knows, and Curtis, McManus and Dunn also deny it. Curtis is now living on his ranch near Fresno and is guarded by a deputy sheriff, as the actor has made a demand upon Sheriff Scott, of Fresno, for protection, stating his life had been threatened by McManus and others, though he did not say the trouble was on account of the jury-bribing transaction. Attorney Wilson relates an interview he had with McManus and Dunn, in which he says they tried to get money from Curtis to bribe jurors.

TOPICKA, Kan., Oct. 17.—The woman suffragists of Kansas, who months ago began a campaign for the right of women to vote at all elections are not working together.
