The Silver Democrats Forced to Surrender.

UNCONDITIONAL REPEAL GOES

Grover a Bigger Man than His Party.

REPEAL WILL COME TO A VOTE.

Result in Accord with Cleveland's Wishes.

Democrats Surrender.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—At half-past twelve o'clock today Senator Harris, who is acting for the silver Democrats, informed the silver Republicans that the Democrats had concluded, after taking all the circumstances into consideration, that they had decided that their best course was to drop their fight against repeal of the Sherman law and allow it to come to a vote.

If this decision is not reconsidered, and it does not seem at all probable that it will be, the end of the present fight will soon be reached, and the result will be in accordance with the president's wishes, and those of the repeal forces of the senate.

The silver Republicans will not undertake to prolong the fight beyond the time necessary to complete their speeches, and will after that permit voting to begin on amendments to the bill. It is generally believed that this will take place before the end of the week.

Stewart, of Nevada, resumed his argument against the repeal bill, let the administration take off its hands and let the majority express itself in the senate, he said, and silver would have nearly 2 to 1.

DUBOIS GIVES IT UP.

Dubois, of Idaho, who has taken a leading part in the fight against unconditional repeal, said this afternoon that vote would come probably within the week, as there will be no opposition or attempt at filibustering.

The silver men he said will offer amendments and debate them, and will probably vote for all amendments which promise anything for silver. "It is impossible to say when the vote will be taken but I should think within the week," Senate adjourned at 4 p. m. until 11 tomorrow.

Market Rashes Up.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The news of the surrender of the silver men in the senate was received in Wall street about 2 o'clock. It found the market with a strong upward tendency, which became a rush, resulting in a decided advance in stocks all along the line.

The Silver Situation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Senators Palmer and McPherson and other repeal senators had a long conference with the president and when they returned to the senate chamber, Palmer said he thought the cloture would be undertaken soon. "It has come, he said, "to be a question of whether the minority shall rule; and it is more important even than the financial question. We shall have to have that fight out."

It is believed that Senator Palmer expressed the sentiments of the executive. There is no mistaking the fact that many of the silver Democratic senators feel greatly relieved that the compromise amendment will not be offered. They say they surrendered all their convictions contrary to their best judgment and they are more willing to have the administration take the responsibility of not accepting a settlement. Some of the repeal senators who have heretofore stood staunchly by the administration are also criticizing the course which was pursued in the compromise matter by the administration.

Stewart of Nevada gave notice of an amendment he intended to offer to the repeal bill, proposing a conference to be held at Washington within nine months between delegates of the United States, Mexico, Central and South America, Hayti and San Domingo for the adoption of a common silver coin to be a legal tender between citizens of the countries represented.

SENATOR JONES' SPEECH.
He elaborated the arguments he was advancing when the senate took a recess Saturday evening, viz., that the standard of the country could be neither gold, silver, nor a material thing, but that whatever the standard might be it was quantitative and the value of each unit depended upon the number of single standard in the country and that one of quantity.

Last summer the British government, desiring to show its sympathy with the object of the administration in this country, issued an order with a view of facilitating the descent of silver. The order was taken by New York to be the announcement of the doom of silver. During this time there was the United States government, of all the nations most interested? The position of the chief magistrate of this country on the question was well illustrated by the line from Emerson, "I am the doubter and doubt," but in a word of supplemental line the genius of the republic admonished the president as well as Great Britain that the people of the United States did not propose to be left out of consideration as to what should be the material of their money. The United States is not yet a dependent of Great Britain, and the president is not governor-general. For the first time in our national history, we find ourselves putting into execution, through officers elected by the people of the United States, plans which, if not formulated, are heartily approved of by the horse guards and on Downing street. Jones remarked that he desired to yield the floor to Teller of Colorado, expressing a desire to resume his speech at another time.

Seattle's Treasurer.

SEATTLE, Oct. 24.—The bondsmen of Adolph Krug, the defaulting city treasurer, together with the banks of the city have made arrangements to return to the city treasury the amount of the shortage. The actual amount which Krug defaulted was $296,373. The city took possession of the warrants, notes, checks and other securities found in his vaults which amount to $82,709 leaving the net deficit of $122,567. The bondsmen have also made arrangements with the banks by which some of the heaviest borrowers of city funds will be able to reduce this amount by $40,000, leaving about $82,567 for Krug and his bondsmen to put up. Owing to the financial depression but few of the bondsmen were able to meet their share. To save the credit of the city the clearing house banks furnished the $80,000 taking security for loan. The proposition was submitted to the council and will probably be accepted today.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Corbett-Mitchell Match.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—Charles Mitchell says if the Coney Island match is off he is willing to go to New Orleans to meet Corbett, but has advice no boxing can be indulged in in the Crescent City. He will go to London and meet Corbett before the National Sporting club. He thinks they would have to come down in the size of the purse. However he's willing to meet Corbett for any purse the latter will accept. Brady, Corbett's manager, says he still has hope the match can come off at Coney Island.

Held up a Blue Coat.

TACOMA, Oct. 24.—Policeman M. Jacobs was held up between 3 and 4 o'clock last night while on his beat. He thought he heard a noise in a butcher shop on C street. He started to investigate about the rear. As he was turning a corner a man shoved a pistol under his nose and said: "Throw up your hands you blue-coated d— s— b." Jacobs did so. "Now get out of here, you are not wanted. See?" continued the man. Jacobs saw and upon arriving at the police signal station telegraphed for help. Upon arrival it was found that the man had attempted to open the safe with a poorly contrived ratchet and bit, but had left before accomplishing their purpose.

HILL ON THE WARPATH.

The New York Senator Makes a Speech.

LAYING DOWN DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE

Outlines the Purpose of Congress on the Tariff.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 22.—The Kings county Democrats tonight began the campaign with a mass meeting in the Academy of Music. Despite the rainy weather, 4000 people were present. Senator David B. Hill was the principal speaker. In the course of his remarks, he said:

"Foremost among the great questions passed upon at the last national election was the issue of the existing tariff. The Democratic party took the ground that the constitution does not authorize any species of tariff or other taxation, except for the direct purpose of raising the necessary revenue for the support of the government, and the people sustained us in that contention. In my opinion, they are not disposed to reverse that judgment now, when the country is on the eve of the realization of the enforcement of our policy. The committee on ways and means of the house of representatives is engaged in preparing a bill embodying the sentiments of the Democratic platform, and probably by Dec. the measure will be ready for the consideration of congress.

"While disclaiming all authority to speak for that committee, as to details of the measure, we may, nevertheless, anticipate some of its general features. It will be a revenue bill. Its purpose will be the raising of needed funds for governmental purposes, strictly in the mode and ways least burdensome to the masses. Raw materials needed in manufactures will be placed upon the free list. This relief will give an impetus to certain manufacturing industries and afford work to tens of thousands of idle laborers. Necessary of life will be substantially free. In fixing the necessary tariff upon manufactured articles, due consideration will be given to the difference in wages between this and other countries, and such difference will be equalized in the rates imposed here. There will be no unjust discrimination anywhere tolerated among its provisions. Bounties and subsidies will find little favor in its composition."

After expressing disapproval of the policy of federal control of elections, as affording federal officials an opportunity to intimidate honest electors, Mr. Hill went on to discuss the financial situation. He said:

"That the financial policy of our opponents has proved a disastrous failure and the McKinley law has been found inadequate for the requirements of the government, are facts shown by the official statement of the receipts and expenditures of the government during the fiscal year. That record shows that the receipts were $285,819,828. The expenditures during the same year were $283,477,904. This shows a difference of $2,341,924 between the receipts and expenditures, a narrow and dangerous margin, too close for convenience, confidence or security. It is a poor financial exhibit and naturally led to public distrust and anxiety and injured our credit abroad.

Passing to the consideration of the Sherman silver law which he termed "Another legacy left us by the Republican party," he said:

"The law is illogical in construction, vicious in tendencies and injurious in operation. The president of the United States, Grover Cleveland, performed a patriotic act in promptly convening congress, and recommending the repeal of the Sherman law. In a desperate effort to prevent or delay the passage of this bill, the freedom of debate was abused. No matter what may be the outcome of the present struggle, the necessity for a change in the senate rules is abundantly demonstrated. I promise you the effort for a change will be continued irrespective of the fate of the present bill. The majority must be permitted to dominate and control its proceedings or else legislation will become impossible."

During the meeting its promoters took occasion to have a long series of printed resolutions distributed. They contained a pledge to support Cleveland and the national democratic administration, and demanded the prompt and absolute repeal of the silver-purchasing clause of the Sherman act.

WALKED HERSELF TO DEATH

Woman's Terrible Tramp Across this Continent.

MONTREAL, Oct. 24.—Left destitute in San Francisco, Mme. de Lavalie started for Montreal several months ago with a horse and buggy. She reached here last evening on foot, and is in the Notre Dame hospital in a dying condition from the hardship and exposure of the journey. Mme. de Lavalie's husband died about a year ago, and her three children were also carried off by the smallpox. Having relations here she started on her journey. At the end of a fortnight her horse gave out and from that time the widow pursued her long walk over the prairies and mountains until Detroit was reached, where she rested awhile. Sometimes she was given a ride by trappers. For food she depended entirely upon charity, and her shelter at night was as often under a tree as in a shed or farmhouse. When Montreal was reached her clothes were in tatters and her shoes worn out. Still she persevered, and was leaving here for her home in Longueuil when she broke down entirely and was picked up in an unconscious condition on the wharf near the ferry landing and taken to the hospital. Her skeleton-like appearance and her wandering mind attest her complete physical and mental breakdown.

Bankers in Trouble.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—President Joseph Blunt of the Madison square bank and Director Simon Ottenberg, were arrested this morning under charge of mismanagement in addition to those arrested yesterday.

Counsel for the receivers of the defunct Madison square bank had a long conference with the assistant district attorney. It is understood he submitted proofs of forgeries that had been committed amounting to $400,000. Adolph Kalcbe, one of the directors, was arrested tonight charged with fraudulent bankruptcy. Frederick Uhlman, and other directors, were arrested on the charge of forgery in the third degree in uttering a promissory note issued by the Fort Wayne Electric Light Co., for $40,596.73, by feloniously adding to the endorsement the words "Not negotiable only in accordance with the contract by which notes have been made." Warrants are out for several other agents.
