

SHOE - SALE.

In the Lead

That is where we are continually striving to be, spurred on by your approbation and evidence of good will. We think we have surpassed our own record, though, this season. You are warmly invited to pass opinion.

Never in the history of Salem have so many shoes been sold in so short a time as since our Closing Sale started.

We still have many choice bargains and those wishing to be fitted should come in at once. Remember we have only the best makes, and can still please you.

THE PALACE.

You are going to build or make any kind of iron work, call on the one or good for material. We have a complete stock, and are ready to supply any prepared contract, sewer work, grading, etc.

Salem Improvement Co.

WILL FILED.—The will of Robert Zollner, deceased, who was accidentally killed on November 6th, was yesterday admitted to probate. Mr. Zollner resided near Mt. Angel, and left real property of probate value of $2,000 and personal property of about $2,000. The will bears date of April 12, 1888, and was signed in the presence of N. S. Todd and L. W. Guerin. There are four sons and three daughters, and his wife Theresa. To the children he gave $1 each, and to his wife all the rest of his property both real and personal to use during the time that she remains unmarried. In case of her marriage then all the real estate is to be given to the youngest son, Rupert, and in case of her death then he is to have all the property real and personal. Adolph Oermoth is appointed executor of the estate to serve without bonds and Martin Seltzer, Matthew Cooley and Thos. Fuchs are named as the appraisers.

CITY COMMITTEE.—The city republican central committee will meet at the office of Dr. J. N. Smith on Monday evening for the purpose of making a call for the primary convention. The committee has the following composition: Dr. J. N. Smith, chairman; Ross E. Moore, first ward; H. G. Meyers, second; Harry Keller, third; Geo. P. Hughes, fourth.

BOUND OVER.—C. C. Sarvis who has been in the employ of the Geo. C. Will Sewing Machine and Musical Instrument agency was today arrested and bound over to the grand jury for embezzlement of $50 from his employer. He had a hearing before Justice Eddy this morning and went to jail. The money was taken about November 1st.

STILL VOTING.—Not in New Jersey but the housekeepers of Salem continue to vote that Clark & Epply, the Court street grocers, are the most accommodating and reliable house in the city to deal with.

INSANE.—John Stout, aged 55 years, was today committed from Klamath county for the fourth time. Geo. Williams, aged 28, was also committed from Clatsop, for morphine habit.

MOVING THE REMAINS.—A force of men are at work today to remove the remains of nineteen union soldiers buried in Rural cemetery to their new resting place in the Grand Army circle at City View cemetery.

McKINLEY.—The presence of a number of people at THE JOURNAL counting room today with twenty dollar gold pieces leads this writer to remark that it would be a good idea to name those coins McKinleys.

A HEAD OF TIME

We are in advance of the season, as usual, in displaying our Novelties. But then we lead in everything—in thoughtful selection of desirable goods, in careful attention to your wants, in high quality, and in the most important of all—in price. That is always what it should be.

THE McKINLEY CELEBRATION.

Republicans Will Paint the Sky Crimson This Evening.

The committee met last night and arranged the program to be observed at the opera house—exercises to begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Music by the Second Regiment band. Five minute speeches by the following: Claud Gatch, C. B. Moores, Til. Ford, John Minto, H. J. Bigger, Lydell Baker.

An original campaign composed by Judge L. D. Henry and sung by H. G. Kundret.

Music by the band. More speeches: Judge Walton (by request), M. H. Hunt, F. E. Hodgkin, W. E. Copeland, E. Hofer, T. T. Geer, Capt. Sanderson, H. W. Cottle, Dr. Philbrook, W. H. Odell, Geo. G. Blingham.

Chief marshals of the parade Capt. D. C. Howard and Capt. Gesner.

The procession will start from the Hotel Willamette in time to reach the opera house by 8 o'clock.

The line of march will be up Commercial to State, up State to east end of Wilson avenue, down Court street to opera house.

There will be a bonfire at the post-office and hotel corner, one at the intersection of Commercial and State streets, and one at the opera house corner.

There will be quite a procession of protection Democrats, Free Silver Democrats, Anti-Cleveland Democrats and McKinley Populists.

A LIBERAL COURT.

Judge Hubbard Allows One Thousand Dollars Attorney Fee.

A number of farmers have been writing THE JOURNAL to know about the two attorney fee bills of $5000 each in the Salem steal bridge case.

The bridge was built some years ago and was shown up at the time in these columns as a barefaced piece of jobbery by which the county was made to pay about two prices for one of the poorest and rottenest structures ever erected.

The contractors sued for some thousands of dollars additional pay for work done not according to contract. The two Salem law firms entered a demurrer and Judge Boise sustained it. No court on earth could allow it. Public sentiment was so aroused by the exposures made in THE JOURNAL that the mere mention of the jobbery connected with the whole scheme threw it out of court. The people will be very much surprised to learn that at this late date $1000 attorney fees has been allowed in that case. No one will blame able and shrewd criminal law years for getting such a fee if they can.

TO BE MARRIED.—Tomorrow Chas. H. Morris, of this city, will be married to Miss Minnie Seifarth, at the home of her parents in Dallas. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Morris, also Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Morris went over this afternoon to witness the ceremony.

A LITTLE MORE CIDER.—This is the season when everybody wants a good drink of cider, and if you would know what you get order of J. A. Van Eaton, who makes his own. Sweet or boiled, always choice.

Ask Your Friends
Who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla what they think of it, and the replies will be positive in its favor. Simply what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, tells the story of its merit. One has been cured of indigestion or dyspepsia, another finds it indispensable for sick headache or biliousness, while others report remarkable cures of scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism, salt rheum, etc.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable.

WILLAMETTE NOTES.

Football is being played. New term begins Tuesday, with all its new experiences, conflicts and victories.

Bishop Dillon, resident bishop of the United Brethren church, addressed the school in chapel on Wednesday.

The lecture delivered by Prof. Yerex with the aid of some hundred views of the world's fair, at the M. E. church on Wednesday evening, was both pleasant and instructive, and showed that the professor had made a thorough study of this greatest of displays.

The college Y. M. C. A. gives a social gathering at the home of Bert and Mark Savage, on High street, on Monday evening, to the young men of the school. An enjoyable time is expected.

Prof. Marie Craig is now organizing a series of classes, with terms and times to suit all who wish to improve themselves in art. Quite a number are now doing good work, but there is room for many more.

Several new students will enter at the beginning of next term. Among the number are W. J. Sheppard, his sister, and Miss Bolhe Mann, of Zena, Polk county, Miss Eva L. Dimmitt, late of Ill., and Mr. I. P. Callison of Mossy Rock, Wash. Messrs. Sheppard and Callison were in last year. Now is a good time to enter as new studies will be taken up and those which discontinued, the back work can be taken next year.

The societies at their regular joint meeting last night, were greeted with a large and appreciated audience, and did justice to the occasion. The program was as follows: instrumental solo, Ernest Wilson; recitation, Helen Matthews; play, "Courtship of Miles Standish"; characters, Floyd Field, Miles Standish; C. J. Atwood, Jno. Alden; Edith Frizzell, Pri-cells; Percy Brown, messenger, and 1st Puritan; G. H. Tucker, 2nd Puritan; Ray L. eman, Indian and F. E. Brown, Elder Brewster. Vocal solo, Nellie Carpenter; Greek, Misses Myrtle, Venna Leeman and Anna Alderson. The program was rendered in the chapel after which the company repaired to the halls for the social repast which always follows such occasions, and dispersed at the appointed hour of 10:30.

SERIOUS THOUGHTS.
Choose such pleasures as recreate much and cost little. Things don't turn up in the world until somebody turns them up. Only what we have wrought in our characters during life can we take away with us.

TURF TOPICS.
A trotter's average life is 20 years. There are 19 trotters with records of 2:10 or better. The average life of the thoroughbred horse is 16 years. There are over 160 trotters with records of 2:15 or better. Forty-four of Lord Calthorpe's horses recently sold for $151,980. There is quite a demand for outclassed trotters and pacers for road use. Thetis, 2:10 1/2, by Mambrino Wilkes, is the fastest harness performer bred in New Hampshire. Hugh A. Walker, a wealthy Virginia tobaccoist, was killed in a gentlemen's running race recently. The Kentucky association will have a $25,000 Futurity stake next year patterned after the eastern Futurity. Mascot's mile in 2:04 in the second heat of the Detroit free for all this summer is the fastest second heat on record. Stromboli, the Australian horse now in California, is a giant in size and outmeasures the horses of the Pacific slope. Eight of the Washington park stakes, including the Derby, Sheridan and Queen Isabella, for 1895 closed with 800 entries. St. Leonards won something like $17,500 for the Keenes out of eight starts. He was first four times, second in the American Derby and Realization and once third. R. A. Alexander sold the stallion Norfolk for $15,001, the odd dollar being tacked on to win a wager that he would sell a Lexington colt for more than the $15,000 paid for Lexington.

FASHION'S FANCIES.
Pale rose colored, ciel blue and mauve watered silks dotted with black are trimmed with ruches and flounces of jetted net. The combination of lace with velvet and fur, so popular in last winter's millinery, will be seen again on French bonnets and on the soft small muffs en suite. Cloth round waists, with rounded circular skirts added, have corded silk vests, braided or gimp trimmed. Cloth sleeves, with silk shoulder puffs, are added. The newest camel's hair textiles for dresses are declared positively to come from India looms. They are expensive compared with other qualities, but it is claimed that they pay for themselves in the end. English feather turbans are again introduced to wear en suite with costumes of tweed in mixed colorings. These turbans are composed entirely of feathers, and much variety is observed in their arrangement. One of the handsome autumn fabrics is the Rochemont weave—a very fine woolen pelt, with a dot of silk of another color, which, though of pure wool, is remarkable for its lightness. It is used extensively for both entire costumes and in combination. Although the rich russet, wine, nautrium and other dark dyes seem to be in the majority this season, the fawns, almonds, grays and many half tints are worn at weddings, receptions and similar entertainments both here and abroad. —New York Post.
