WILLAMETTE NOTES.

Ten new students were registered on Monday. The outside rows are gradually filling up to the back part of the chapel.

Pres. Hawley made a flying trip to Portland on Tuesday for the purpose of attending the Epworth League convention and filing a number in the program.

The lecture by Rev. W. C. Kauter, of Corvallis, in the chapel on Wednesday was excellent. The gentleman is both eloquent and humorous, and those who are not "moving on" with the best possible facility, should have heard some of his very useful maxims and ideas.

These performing rhetoricals in chapel as the remainder of the list from last term, were Messrs. L. Reynolds, essay; Bert Savage, declamation; Miss Cora Winters, essay. Mr. Reynolds and Miss Winters prepared their papers in the form of a discussion of the Geary law.

Receptions have been the order of the week. On Monday the Y. M. C. A. gave a reception to the young men and gentlemen professors of the school at the house of Messrs. Bert and Mark Savage, on High street, and on last night the Y. M. C. A. entertained the young ladies and lady professors of the school at the home of Miss Helen Matthews, in Englewood.

Yesterday was election of officers in the Literary societies. At 3 p. m. the Philodivians filed their chairs of honor as follows: Pres., Cora Winters; vice pres., Verna Leeman; sec., Hetta Field; treas., Marie Rockwell; censor, Carrie Bradshaw; sgt. at arms, Miss Black; costodian, Mina Heulst. The Philodivians at 7 o'clock elected the following officers: Pres., Floyd Field; vice, C. J. Atwood; sec., R. W. Callison; asst., Wm. A. Morris; treas., Walter Shepard; censor, I. H. Van Winkle; lib., Ernest Wilson; sgt. at arms, Joo. W. Reynolds. No debate was had in either society, for elections were close and hotly contested.

Prevention is Better. Than cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease.

Patton Bros., The Philodivians are now displaying their Bibles, Albums, Juvenile Books, Call and examine.

A TRAGEDY.

This wild Thanksgiving turkey swallowed Brownie with a gulp and downed within him Brownie was ground into a pulp.
