J. R. Wetherbee, general secretary of the Salem Y. M. C. A., asks us to make public the following state ment as com- sessor's office. ing from him:

City Board of Charities have chosen postoffice, the same night for their entertainment | Pienty of Turkeys-Davison's market that has been advertised for several weeks past as the evening for opening a course of current history lectures at the Y. M. C. A. We deeply regret this as we do not wish to conflict with, but rather would help such a praiseworthy undertaking. We were informed of this conflict so late that it was impossible to change our lecture which we also regret, and therefore we would urge every one who would have attended the charity entertainment to do so and as many others as can."
