THE RESTORATION THEORIES.

If the Queen of Hawaii Cannot be Restored.

EXCEPT BY USE OF ARMED FORCE

President Cleveland May Ask Congress to Act.

Restoration Theories.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—There have been theories advanced that after hearing again from Minister Willis and learning positively that queen cannot be restored in Hawaii except by use of United States troops, that President Cleveland will then present to congress the case of the queen as a wronged monarch, whose government was overthrown by this government, and assert it is now the duty of the United States to restore the former condition, even by using force. This is the idea advanced by friends of the administration.

Thurston Returns.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Hawaiian Minister Thurston left here today, for Honolulu. Before leaving he called on Gresham. He was not sent out of the country, and does not go at the suggestion of the secretary of state, but goes of his own accord, to advise and consult with those he represents.

The Information Ready.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—It is not certain yet, what course the Executive will take, in response to the resolution of the senate, calling for information on the Hawaiian episode. The information will be given, but whether it will be a formal response to the Senate resolution, or in a special message from the president, has not yet been determined. The information is prepared, and can be sent in at any time. It is intimated from a responsible source that the ex-queen declines to go back on the throne unless by consent of the Provisional Government leaders, or a guarantee of protection by the United States.

More Offices.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—In the House Representative Diddle of Washington introduced a bill to enlarge the powers and duties of the bureau of labor and create an executive department, to be known as the department of Labor, with same officers and salaries as other departments.

Pension Legislation.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Voorhes opened his pension campaign in the senate this morning by introducing two bills—one declaring a pension a vested right, regulating the suspension of pensions and granting appeals to the supreme court of the District of Columbia and the other defining sundry claims against the United States in the administration of the pension laws.

Costing the City of New Orleans Dear.
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 7.—The jury in the case of the suit for the damages of thirty thousand dollars against the city, for the death of one Abagnatto, lynched during the Italian Mafia troubles here, returned a verdict this morning assessing damages at five thousand dollars in the United States circuit court. Six more similar cases are to be tried. All are to be tried by the same jury doubtless with similar results.

Politically Dead.
TOPEKA, Dec. 7.—The Kansas farmers' alliance is now politically dead. A long secret session was held today but enough is known to positively state that the politicians have won and Omaha Populist platform is adopted.

TRAVELLING MAN ARRESTED.

The Frisky Representative of a New York Carpet House.
NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—William McConnell, of Spokane Falls, Wash., was arrested here last night charged with grand larceny. He has been held for examination. He was the San Francisco representative of W. J. Sloane and Co., New York carpet dealers, some years ago, and while in that position is said to have sold $25,000 worth of the firm's goods and made way with proceeds. He denies the charge.

Private Pension.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The senate bill granting a pension of $100 a month to Frances Corse, widow of General John M. Corse, passed and the senate then went into executive session. At is close it adjourned until Monday.

Colorado's Governor.
SALIDA, Col., Dec. 7.—Governor Walte called the miners' convention to order yesterday afternoon. There were twenty delegates present, a majority of whom it is said, are opposed to calling an extra session of the legislature to legislate on the silver question. Governor Walte in his address claimed that every state has a right to make its own legal tender, and recommended that Colorado enact a law making every silver dollar full legal tender, no matter where such dollar was coined provided it contains .371 grains of silver. By a vote of ten to eight the convention decided in favor of an extra session. The governor announced that he would call the session early in January.

Will Obey Lewelling.
FORT SCOTT, Kan., Dec. 7.—The police authorities here express their intention of following the instructions of Governor Lewelling in regard to certain classes of tramps. This morning the Populist police ordered the release of three Kansas City tramps who had been arrested in a boxcar.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The Sun this morning announces that friends of Rev Mr. McGlynn have put him forward as a candidate for the ambassadorship at Rome, the post recently declined by J. J. Van Alen. ### MORE OF HILL'S SPEECH.

Discussing Dolph's Hawaiian Resolution.

SEVERE ON THE ADMINISTRATION.

President Has Decided that the Queen Cannot be Restored Without Force.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—Hill said he did not propose to cross the Hawaiian bridge until he should reach it, nor did he intend to discuss the wisdom of the original procedure, or of what had been done recently by the president's administration. This was a simple resolution asking for information from a department of government in reference to a most important matter; information which he thought the American people wanted to know from the president's message, and were disappointed when it was not given them. It had been said, continued Hill, that instructions had been given, (he did not say so, however, and he hoped it was not true,) from which it was inferred force might be used to restore the previously existing status, that brought up the question as to whether the administration had power, without the consent of congress, to use the army or navy to restore a previously existing condition of affairs, even conceding that such government had been planted by fraud or even by force. There were three departments of the government and the executive department was but one of them. There were reasons why this information should be given; now, perhaps at this moment, possibly at this very hour, the navy of the United States, co-operating with the United States minister, was seeking to destroy the provisional government by force and and that was a question the propriety of which should be determined by congress.

The Administration's Plan.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—The examiner's Washington correspondent telegraphs that he has succeeded in securing some inside information in reference to the administration's plans in dealing with the Hawaiian question. The purpose of President Cleveland and Secretary Gresham now is not to attempt to restore Queen Liliuokalani by force, but to lay the entire question before congress and secure the sanction of the legislative branch to any new move on the islands. Definite instructions have been sent to Minister Willis not to take any decided action until further instructions are sent him. It seems certain that new instructions have been sent him to this effect: by the Corwin. It is believed now that the president and secretary of state, from information received from Willis, have decided that the queen cannot be restored without force and that this course cannot be followed without the sanction of congress.

Grover and His Documents.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—In its editorial comment on the Hawaiian situation, the Chronicle says: "All that we can see and judge is that Mr. Willis has found that he cannot carry out his orders, and that he is awaiting further instructions. But it was Mr. Cleveland's duty to have told congress as much, to have communicated the nature of the text of his instructions, and for his neglect in this regard he should be called to account."
The Call has this to say: "Suggestion was made some days ago that Minister Willis needs reefing. He spreads over too much space. When he assumes that Grover Cleveland holds the fate of the islands in his hands, he forgets that Grover Cleveland voluntarily relinquished the right of control over the islands which was offered the government of the United States. Undoubtedly the minister may order the marines to be landed to protect the lives and property of American residents, but if this force is so directed as to pull down one government and set up another, somebody will have to answer."

Referendum.
NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—In the address of General Master Workman Severance to the Knights of Labor he says: "Elect all legislative, executive and judicial officers of the general government; take away the veto power of the president and destroy the avocation of corrupt lobbies by establishing the initiative and referendum, and thus we will give to the world our industrial system, menaced by no tramp at one end, no princely duke at the other."

POLITICAL ROUND-UP.

The McKinley and Alger Combination.

STRUGGLING OVER THE TARIFF.

Father McGlynn Proposed for Minister to Rome.

McKinley and Alger.
CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 7.—The coincidence of Governor McKinley and General Russell A. Alger being here to gather during a good part of Thanksgiving week and dining "chumming" together much of the time has set afloat a rumor that the very interesting topic under discussion was the presidential nomination of 1896, and that the governor and Alger were considering the advisability of pooling their strength.

Populists and the Tariff.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Inquiry as to the position of the Populists on the tariff bill leads to the conclusion that they are likely to support it in a body in both houses. They would like one even more radical, but being unable to get it, will take the next best thing. Their position in the senate is one of considerable interest. Some Democrats are inclined to oppose the measure unless materially modified.

Tariff Changes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—The ways and means committee has been listening, as sub-committee, in groups of two and three, and individually, to the complaints of those who want the tariff changed in different particulars, which will affect their interests. Among the delegations was one representing the large playing card manufacturing concerns of New York, Cincinnati and Indianapolis, who claimed that less tax would yield greater revenue and enable manufacturers to continue in business. A Democratic member of the committee said that he expected these protests would be made. He was not disturbed by them, and not inclined to make any changes unless it appear that some unintentional error has been made. Efforts are being made by those Democrats, dissatisfied with the bill to have a caucus held. Many members of the committee do not want a caucus, and will probably use their best endeavors to prevent one. Friends of the administration are also counted upon to prevent a caucus. The tariff bill will be taken up by the full committee, and some Democrats think that in three or four days it can be reported to the house. The Republicans want more time, but Democrats will insist on reporting the bill and having several set speeches in the house before the holiday recess.

A High Mason.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—Prince of Wales was nominated grand master of the English Free Masons by the grand lodge today.

Referendum.
NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—In the address of General Master Workman Severance to the Knights of Labor he says: "Elect all legislative, executive and judicial officers of the general government; take away the veto power of the president and destroy the avocation of corrupt lobbies by establishing the initiative and referendum, and thus we will give to the world our industrial system, menaced by no tramp at one end, no princely duke at the other."

INTERPRETS ZOLA.

Madeline Meril, who plays "The Story of a Kiss" tonight at Reed's, is an Italian born and educated, and commands universal interest on account of her daring to interpret Zola on the American stage. Zola is much misunderstood in America. He is a realist, but teaches the self-destructiveness of evil, and in the play tonight M'He Meril portrays the character of an Arab woman, who was forced to marry an invalid cousin, but falls in love with an artist, who is a villain. Together they commit a murder. It is a blending of passion, romance, retribution and remorse.

Meril is an interesting brunette of twenty-six years, with strong clear olive features, a face and figure that makes up well. She plays a small but strong company. Her theory of art, that the old school of stage-shriekers and barn-stormers is out of date, is correct. She has pet dogs, is a personal friend of the novelist "Ouida," has published a book of poems, is an honorary member of the New York Humane Society, and in all one of the brightest young women on the American stage. This writer seldom volunteers a notice of travelling players, but is glad to make an exception in her case.

Don't You Know

that you can secure almost immediate relief from Indigestion, and that uncomfortable fullness after meals, by simply taking a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator? Some people think that because it is called Liver Regulator it has nothing to do with Indigestion and the like. It is the inaction of the Liver that causes Indigestion, and that fullness; also Constipation, and those Bilious Headaches. Millions have been made to understand this and have been cured from those troubles by Simmons Liver Regulator—a medicine unailing and purely vegetable.

From Rev. H. B. Wharton, Baltimore, Md.
"It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to the great virtues of Simmons Liver Regulator. I have had experience with it, on occasion demanded, for many years, and regard it as the greatest medicine of the times. So good a medicine deserves universal commendation."
